

GERMANS PREPARE TO FINISH FLIGHT

SENATE FIGHTS
TAX PROVISION MADE BY HOUSE

Will Eliminate Section to Fix Amount That Company Must Distribute of Surplus

PROVIDED 70 PER CENT

Previously There Was Only Penalty in Cases Where Surplus Was "Unreasonable"

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright, 1928, Post Pub. Co.

Washington. The Senate finance committee will eliminate from the tax bill that provision inserted by the house which attempts to fix definitely the amount of income that a corporation must distribute annually out of its surplus.

The house bill provides that at least 70 per cent of accumulated surplus must be distributed. Previously the law had simply stated that there would be a penalty applied in any case where the accumulation of surplus was "unreasonable." This left it to the bureau of internal revenue to decide and the right of appeal naturally was given to the taxpayer. Considerable doubt has been expressed as to the constitutionality of this section of the law and it never has really been tested. Few cases have ever been prosecuted. Under these circumstances corporations are willing to go back to the present provisions of the law which they regard as more or less ineffective. For, they say, who is to determine in a particular business what is a safe or unsafe accumulation of surplus and what the hazards of the future are likely to be.

In the new proposal, real estate corporations are particularly affected. Joseph F. Mann of New York, representing the Building Managers and Owners' Association of New York and representatives of several similar organizations of other cities have appeared before the senate committee to explain the hardships that would be encountered if the house provision became law. Mr. Mann said in part:

"When it is realized that building companies must, in many instances, use all of their available earnings toward the amortization of mortgages, or toward providing sinking funds to meet mortgages, and for reconditioning, replacement and other unusual but essential provisions, it is to be seen that the inflexible provisions of section 104 are singularly harsh in their application to corporations owning and operating buildings."

BOUND BY AGREEMENTS

Many realty corporations are bound by their agreements with first mortgage bondholders to retain as big a surplus as possible and some are even restricted as to the paying of any common stock dividends while the mortgages remain unpaid. Just how it would be possible to force a distribution of dividends in violation of contractual agreements with bondholders has been one of the perplexing questions advanced. It led to the informal decision to rewrite the house provision and perhaps go back to the present section two years which has been the subject of so much discussion in recent years as to what constitutes a reasonable or unreasonable surplus but which never has had the practical effect of forcing any distribution except in a few instances of palpable evasion of taxes.

FAMILY SAVES TWO DAYS BY FLYING FROM IDAHO

Racing—(P)—Claiming that they had saved two days by their method of transportation, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Fritchens of Decorah, Ia., and their 5-year-old daughter, landed here Sunday afternoon after a 250-mile flight from Decorah.

It took the Fritchens two hours and thirty-eight minutes to make the flight, they said. They were former residents of Burlington, Wis.

The plane was piloted by S. T. Savage, commercial flyer at Dubuque, Ia.

ATTEMPT TO IDENTIFY
BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Milwaukee—(P)—Sailors on the steamer Virginia, Monday morning recovered the body of an unidentified man about 50 years of age, from the Milwaukee river. The body was floating near a dock. Police are attempting to identify the man.

Speeding The Speedometer!

Fifteen minutes after Mr. B. Worthing, 425 E. Pacific Street received his evening Post-Crescent he sold his Ford Speedometer, advertised for the first time in that issue.

This is an indication of the avidity with which people of Appleton and vicinity await daily, fresh classified listings.

Are you getting your share of Classified Bargains? Cultivate the habit of daily reading.

Advertiser 512
CLASSIFIED SERVICE
As Wide as Human Needs

HOTELMAN DIES

COURT JURY HEARS SINCLAIR DEFENSE

CAL PRAISES
JACKSON FOR LOYAL SPIRIT

Eulogizes "Old Hickory" in Accepting Statue for Place
Under Capitol Dome

Washington—(P)—The rugged figure of Andrew Jackson was accepted Monday by President Coolidge, on behalf of the nation, to join the solemn circle of bronze and stone likenesses of the great which stands under the dome of the Capitol.

In accepting the statue of "Old Hickory" from the State of Tennessee as a contribution to Statuary Hall, Mr. Coolidge paid tribute to Jackson as one who exemplified the unlimited opportunities offered to men, regardless of seeming handicaps.

History accords to Jackson one of the high positions among the great names of our country," Mr. Coolidge said. "He gave to the nationalistic spirit through loyalty to the Union a new strength which was decisive for many years. His management of our foreign affairs was such as to secure a wholesome respect for our government and the rights of our citizens. He left the treasury without obligations and with a surplus."

Coming up from the people, he demonstrated that there is sufficient substance in self government to solve the important public questions and rise superior to a perplexing crisis.

Like a true pioneer, he broke through all restraints and impediments into which he was born and leaving behind the provincialisms and prejudices of his day, pushed out toward larger freedom and a sounder government, carrying the country with him."

The present sketches Jackson's boyhood, young manhood and the period of his service in Congress and as president, speaking of his high and turbulent temper, his disregard of obstacles and his notable military exploits.

The aged man owned a small automobile and would go into the garage and tinker with it for hours at a time.

He was once seen to go to the garage about 11 o'clock Saturday morning, but nothing was suspected where he did not appear for the noon and evening meals as he had been in the habit of taking rides occasionally by the trolley.

When found, the boy was lying under the rear of the car and the supposition is that he started the motor and crawled under the car to make some repairs when overcome by the trolley.

Little is known of the man, who came here from Tomahawk. At the time of his entrance to the home, he is said to have had two brothers residing in Michigan.

He is reported to have had two brothers residing in Michigan.

He stressed the point that Jackson nevertheless insisted upon the supremacy of the law." Jackson, he said, held the first duty of the citizen to "obedience to the laws, even when we think them unjustly applied." The seventh president, he added, "believed that at all time and in all places the duly constituted authority of law should be supreme."

13 BURNED TO DEATH IN PENNSYLVANIA FIRE

Altoona, Pa.—(P)—Thirteen persons were burned to death at Blair Four, 20 miles south of here, early Monday when fire destroyed the home of Edward Krepachak.

The dead include a mother, her six children, and six guests who had gathered for a wedding in the home of Edward Krepachak, a quarryman. A daughter of the family was married Saturday and the bride and groom were among the dead. The cause of the fire was not determined.

BOY RUNS SHARP STICK IN SIDE IN FALL, DIES

Prairie du Chien—(P)—Injuries suffered when a sharp stick was driven into his side as he fell while playing, caused the death Sunday of a 9-year-old schoolboy here.

The boy, with the stick in his hand, ran against the school building and fell on the sharp point, which tore a hole in his right side.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at West Prairie.

It took the Fritchens two hours and thirty-eight minutes to make the flight, they said. They were former residents of Burlington, Wis.

The plane was piloted by S. T. Savage, commercial flyer at Dubuque, Ia.

ATTEMPT TO IDENTIFY
BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Denver, Colo.—(P)—Ability of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh to land his new monoplane about where and when he pleases on his eastward "vacation flight" across this rugged western country, has added hundreds of erstwhile anxious persons to his list of admirers.

Tests of the new ship and his desire to keep it perfectly "tuned" has provided most of the thrills. After causing scores of motorists to hurry to the air field at Williams, Ariz., Friday last he arrived after nightfall from the west to drop down smoothly by the aid of his landing lights and flares, he caused another near stampede Saturday by bringing his ship to earth in a rough section near here.

When motorists sped to the scene they found a note in the window of the plane which read "gone to lunch."

DISPELLED ANXIETY

The famous pilot was found at a nearby ranch house enjoying a lunch furnished by an incredulous rancher who for sometime refused to believe he was host to Lindbergh. Anxiety was dispelled when the colonel explained he merely was seeking a larger landing field than was available at Williams to permit taking off with a full load of fuel.

In taking off from Grand Canyon Sunday he used his plane to "roundup" a pair of colts. After he herded them to the far end of the field, he turned his plane and charged back in a neat take-off.

Although upwards of 3,000 persons were assembled at Lowry field here to watch National guard plane maneuvers when Lindbergh arrived, he was not recognized at first. Accompanied by Harry Knight and Harold M. Bixby of St. Louis, he went to the home of W. Octave Chanute, Denver broker.

Lindbergh later appeared to officials at a ceremony in the office of the general manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co. in which two aviation fields in California were lighted. He pressed a key to light beacons at the airfield at Williams, Ariz., Friday last by bringing his ship to earth in a rough section near here.

Tests of the new ship and his desire to keep it perfectly "tuned" has provided most of the thrills. After causing scores of motorists to hurry to the air field at Williams, Ariz., Friday last he arrived after nightfall from the west to drop down smoothly by the aid of his landing lights and flares, he caused another near stampede Saturday by bringing his ship to earth in a rough section near here.

When motorists sped to the scene they found a note in the window of the plane which read "gone to lunch."

DISPELLED ANXIETY

The famous pilot was found at a nearby ranch house enjoying a lunch furnished by an incredulous rancher who for sometime refused to believe he was host to Lindbergh. Anxiety was dispelled when the colonel explained he merely was seeking a larger landing field than was available at Williams to permit taking off with a full load of fuel.

Orders were left at Lowry field to have his plane ready to take off at dawn. It was understood he planned to continue east Monday with St. Louis as his destination.

Apparently the only damage suffered by the ship was the tearing of the left stabilizer.

At 10:30 a.m. Sunday he used his plane to "round-

CLAIM TEAPOT IN DANGER OF BEING DRAINED

Fall Leased Oil Lands to Sinclair Because of Possibility of Drainage

BULLETIN

Washington—(P)—Declaring he understood some newspaper had published or would publish the deposition of Albert B. Fall before it was introduced in the Sinclair trial, Justice Bailey Monday said he would consider such action as contempt of court and would take steps to mete out the necessary punishment.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN KILLED BY AUTO GAS

Leroy Buchanan, 85, Found Lying Under Car After Being Missed from House

Waupaca—Leroy Buchanan, 85, a civil war veteran and a resident of the Waupaca Veterans home for the past 14 years, was found dead in a garage in the rear of the home Sunday. Death was caused by carbon monoxide gas.

The aged man owned a small automobile and would go into the garage and tinker with it for hours at a time.

He was once seen to go to the garage about 11 o'clock Saturday morning, but nothing was suspected where he did not appear for the noon and evening meals as he had been in the habit of taking rides occasionally by the trolley.

When found, the boy was lying under the rear of the car and the supposition is that he started the motor and crawled under the car to make some repairs when overcome by the trolley.

Little is known of the man, who came here from Tomahawk. At the time of his entrance to the home, he is said to have had two brothers residing in Michigan.

He stressed the point that Jackson nevertheless insisted upon the supremacy of the law." Jackson, he said, held the first duty of the citizen to "obedience to the laws, even when we think them unjustly applied." The seventh president, he added, "believed that at all time and in all places the duly constituted authority of law should be supreme."

COMPLETE OFFICIAL CANVASS OF PRIMARY

Madison—(P)—Official returns filed with the secretary of state show that the Progressives elected 17 and the Republicans 9 delegates to the Republican national convention at Kansas

City.

Complete returns from the primary election April 3 show that Senator
Robert M. La Follette polled 371,000 votes, the greatest of any candidate for delegates at large.

This gave him a margin of 19,000 over his rival, Senator John J. Blaine, but fell short of 30,000 of equaling the record of Blaine four years ago when he led the Progressive delegate slate with 201,117.

Mrs. Eric Johnson of Madison, Progressive, and Walter J. Kohl, of Kohler, Republican were the other delegates at large elected. Kohl with 133,410 led the anti-Progressives and had 33,000 votes more than Emanuel Philip, who led the conservatives in 1924.

The final vote on the delegates at large race follows:

La Follette, 171,669; Blaine, 152,141;

Kohl, 133,110; Johnson, 125,581;

Kronshage, 121,975; Kreutzer, 117,729;

Weight, 113,858; Macaulay, 107,816.

Complete returns from the primary election April 3 show that Senator
Robert M. La Follette polled 371,000 votes, the greatest of any candidate for
delegates at large.

This gave him a margin of 19,000 over his rival, Senator John J. Blaine, but fell short of 30,000 of equaling the record of Blaine four years ago when he led the Progressive delegate slate with 201,117.

The final vote on the delegates at large race follows:

La Follette, 171,669; Blaine, 152,141;

Kohl, 133,110; Johnson, 125,581;

Kronshage, 121,975; Kreutzer, 117,729;

Weight, 113,858; Macaulay, 107,816.

Complete returns from the primary election April 3 show that Senator
Robert M. La Follette polled 371,000 votes, the greatest of any candidate for
delegates at large.

This gave him a margin of 19,000 over his rival, Senator John J. Blaine, but fell short of 30,000 of equaling the record of Blaine four years ago when he led the Progressive delegate slate with 201,117.

The final vote on the delegates at large race follows:

La Follette, 171,669; Blaine, 152,141;

Kohl, 133,110; Johnson, 125,581;

Kronshage, 121,975; Kreutzer, 117,729;

Weight, 113,858; Macaulay, 107,816.

Complete returns from the primary election April 3 show that Senator
Robert M. La Follette polled 371,000 votes, the greatest of any candidate for
delegates at large.

This gave him a margin of 19,000 over his rival, Senator John J. Blaine, but fell short of 30,000 of equaling the record of Blaine four years ago when he led the Progressive delegate slate with

ORDER ANOTHER EXAMINATION FOR POSTMASTER HERE

Government Says First Examination Did Not Result in Enough Eligibles

Because the recent examination of applicants for appointment as postmaster for Appleton did not result in a sufficient number of eligibles from which to make a selection, the post-office department has ordered another examination for which applications will be received until May 8.

Under the executive order providing for postmaster examinations if fewer than three eligibles result from an examination another may be ordered.

The appointment will be made to succeed William H. Zuehlke who resigned a year ago Feb. 17, 1927, to devote all his time to the Aid Association for Lutherans of which he is secretary. Fred F. Wettengel was appointed acting postmaster to succeed him and has been serving in that capacity since that time.

The postmaster here receives a salary of $3,800.

Examinations are made by representatives of the civil service commission who interview Appleton people concerning the standing, ability and character of the applicants. These agents report to the commission which establishes the rating and refers them to the president who makes the selection.

I WON'T APOLOGIZE TO SMITH, NYE SAYS

North Dakota Senator Says He Doesn't Owe Statement of Regret to New Yorker

New York — Reopening his controversy with Gov. Alfred E. Smith, growing out of the recent oil debate, Senator Ny of North Dakota, chairman of the senate Teapot Dome committee, decided here tonight that he could not "in good conscience" grant the New York executive's demand for an apology.

"In the first place, I can not apologize for doing a thing the record shows clearly I did not do," he said in an address.

SAYS NO APOLOGY DUE

"I am sure that I owe no apology for there having been developed facts showing that there was basis and justification for the information in my hands which was responsible for the statement of my understanding made on the floor of the senate to which the governor objected.

"That statement of understanding in effect was that Gov. Smith had been a beneficiary of Harry S. Sinclair's contributions and that Smith had appointed Sinclair a member of his official family. The governor's denial is not substantiated by the information about Sinclair's contributions to New York democratic committees, which has not been challenged.

UNDERESTIMATED FACTS

"As it now appears, instead of misrepresenting the facts in that Senate debate, I underestimated them. Certainly I owe no apology for that, nor can I bring myself to see the occasion for apologizing for this correspondence and its attendant publicity disclosing that the governor of New York, Alfred Smith, retained Mr. Sinclair in his official family."

Senator Ny told his audience that since the second and last letter sent to him by Gov. Smith, he had held his peace, feeling anything he might say or do "would not make the record of this controversy any clearer than it already was."

DECIDE ON IMPROVEMENT AT THURSDAY MEETING

Stockholders in the Winniegamie Land company, holding company of the Butte des Morts golf club grounds who wish to give them views on an addition to the locker house, will be given the opportunity to present their side of the case at a meeting Thursday night in the city council chambers.

It is estimated that the addition will cost in the neighborhood of $30,000 and plans for the addition are now being prepared. The plans were submitted to the directors of the Land company last week but were ordered revised before being presented to the stockholders.

A letter has been sent all stockholders notifying them of the plans for the addition and asking for their comment. The meeting was originally called for Tuesday but was changed to Thursday in order to give everyone interested a chance to attend.

THE WEATHER

MONDAY'S TEMPERATURES
	Coldest Warmest
Appleton	29 36
Chicago	32 34
Denver	40 58
Duluth	2 38
Galveston	54 60
Kansas City	40 48
Milwaukee	30 34
St. Paul	28 32
Seattle	48 54
Washington	32 46
Winnipeg	22

WISCONSIN WEATHER

Mostly cloudy tonight and Tuesday, warmer tonight and in south portion Tuesday.

GENERAL WEATHER

The pressure is high over the eastern half of the country, with fair and cold weather. Another moderate high pressure area over the Red River of the North valley, with some local snows and low temperatures. This probably will cause low temperatures to continue in this section tonight and Tuesday. The pressure is low over the Rockies, with temperatures near or above the normal and the weather rather unsettled. This low probably will develop further and move eastward and cause unsettled weather in this section later in the week.

HAUL ICE CREAM IN AIRPLANE

When trucks hauling ice cream "mix" to Stevens Point were barred from the soft roads because of their weight last week, the Mory Ice Cream company chartered the "Pride of Appleton" to haul a load of the product to that city. The trip was made in 35 minutes.

An airplane was used for the transportation of ice cream, in this section of the country at any rate, for the first time last week when the "Pride of Appleton" hauled a load of ice cream "mix" to the Mory Ice Cream company's factory at Stevens Point after the county highway commissioner had issued a truck weight limit that barred transportation by that method.

All "mix" is made at Appleton and then distributed to the branch factories where other ingredients are added to assure an even quality and flavor.

The Stevens Point branch had been running low on "mix" for some time but expected the road situation to clear up enough to allow the transportation of a sufficient quantity to last them until more could be received.

When the weekend drew near and

ROHAN OPPOSED TO STATE TOURNAMENTS FOR H. S. STUDENTS

Appleton Superintendent, at State Convention, Votes Against Big Athletic Meets

Ben Rohan, city superintendent of schools, was one of the group which voted against state athletic tournaments for high school students at the meeting of city superintendents in Milwaukee Friday. The meeting was held in the Schroeder Hotel and held its evening session with members of the Wisconsin School Boards association.

The superintendents disapproved state tournaments, Mr. Rohan said, because of the educational interest which is lost both before and after big meets and because of the hard ships which concentrated athletic contests put on students of high school age. It was also brought out that school spirit and school interest in contests could carry on very well without state and district tournaments. The Fox river valley was cited as one place where the system had worked successfully.

Fitting the child for life after he leaves secondary schools was the principal academic topic discussed by the superintendents. Practically all of the day's speakers dwelt on some phase of that question or with the correct methods and the philosophy of educating students. Mr. Rohan discussed a cumulative record for students, as chairman of the committee in charge of that work.

The record, while only suggestive, and presented to the superintendents as a means of getting their reactions, wanted a plan whereby the personality, traits, physical record and environment of students could be traced from the first year in kindergarten to the senior year in high school.

SCOUTS URGED TO FEED BIRDS UNTIL SNOW GOES AWAY

All boy scouts of the Fox river valley council have been requested to care for the birds that have migrated to the north for the winter, and which now are freezing and starving because of the snow which covered their source of food.

The scouts are asked to throw out crumbs or bits of food for the birds, until the snow has melted and they again are able to care for themselves.

USE SCHOOL GROUNDS FOR DIRECTED PLAY

Board of Education Orders Improvements at McKinley School Next Summer

Use of school grounds for directed playground activities was granted the Civic council Saturday evening by the board of education. The grounds used again this year are at Jefferson school, Third ward; Washington school, Fifth ward; McKinley school, Fourth ward; Franklin school, Sixth ward, and the First ward school.

Summer improvements to be made this year in the schools and approved at Saturday's meeting call for a new heating system in McKinley school in the Fourth ward, and showers for girls in the same school. The board also voted to purchase a new and larger sanding machine and disapproved tornado insurance.

A tentative list of repairs for Washington school in the Fifth ward was approved. Regular monthly reports were received and monthly accounts allowed.

HOLD REHEARSALS FOR COMING PLAYS

Vocational School Dramatic Club Will Give Two Plays Next Friday Evening

The first rehearsal of the casts chosen for the two plays which the Appleton vocational school dramatic club will give on Friday evening, April 27, was held Friday evening at the Appleton Womans club playhouse. The play is to be given for the students of the school and their parents.

The cast for the play, "The Road to Agincourt," by Enza Allen Zeller is composed of Anatole, Due de Pont-Esprit, Sophie Teske, Count Dubois, his friend, Marie Niles; Romaine, and English knight, Catherine Young; Alicia, a hostage, Esther Horn, Dorcas, a sewing woman, Lucile Hoolihan; and Francis, her husband, Marie Puss.

The cast for the other play, "The Mechanical Jaw," by M. E. Barber, is made up of Miss Priscilla Robins, played by Virginia Grassi; Miss Tabitha Robins, Adele Endter; Jane, a mechanician servant, Mildred Endter.

The dramatic club will not meet on Monday evening on account of the Gai-Curci concert. The next rehearsal will be held Tuesday evening.

This Date In American History

April 16
1681—Province of New Jersey offered for sale in England for $25,000.
1736—"Contrast," first play written and performed in America, produced at John Street theater, New York.
1886—Niagara Falls park established.

LETTER GOLF

DON'T FALL OVERBOARD
You don't have to paddle far to go from RIVER to LAKES—par is only four, but it's a tricky, treacherous trip and you may find it difficult to achieve the par solution on page 9.

THE RULES

1—The idea of letter golf is to change one word to another and do it in par, a given number of strokes. Thus to change Cow to Hen, in three strokes, COW, HOW, HEW, HEN.

2—You can change only one letter of common usage, for each jump. Slang words and abbreviations don't count.

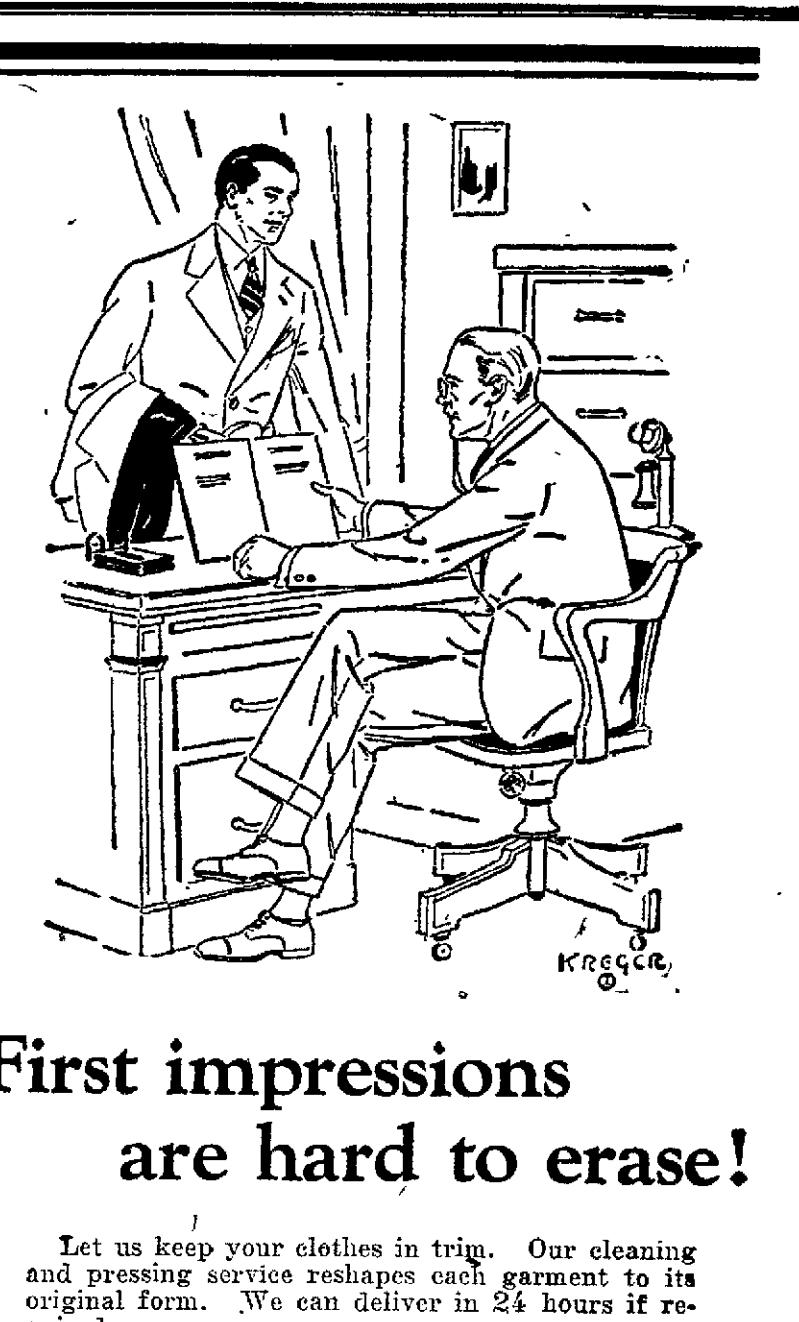

3—You must have a complete word at a time.

4—The order of letters cannot be changed.

CATHERINE ABBEY SELLS MOST TICKETS

Catherine Abbey of the Clover Leaf troupe won the first prize of $2 for selling the most tickets for the moving picture "Ramona," to be shown at the Elite theatre this week. This service is sponsored by the Appleton Womans club for the benefit of the Girl Scouts. Olive Miller of the Blue Bonnet troop won the second prize.

First impressions are hard to erase!

Let us keep your clothes in trim. Our cleaning and pressing service reshapes each garment to its original form. We can deliver in 24 hours if required.

Let us call for your formal clothes too. It pays to be careful in the choice of your cleanser — we guarantee complete satisfaction. Check your wardrobe now — then telephone

PHONE 911

Badger Pantorium CLEANERS & DYERS

219 N. Appleton-St.

Appleton

PORK CHOPS 18c
PER LB.
You will find many more Tuesday Specials at our four markets
HOPFENSPERGER BROS. INC.

FINISH THE WINTER WITH ## POWER COMPANY

At A Special Spring Price Reduction
Cleaner Than Pocahontas

Put in a ton of this clean burning Coke to tide you over to the first summer days. You'll save money on the purchase price and be convinced of the superiority of this fuel and the economy of using it in your home.

Our New Convenient Payment Plan now effective on local Power Company Gas Coke enables you

TO PUT IN YOUR NEXT WINTER'S SUPPLY AT

$200
Per Ton
Down

THE BALANCE
$2.00 PER TON
MONTHLY FOR THE NEXT
5 MONTHS

Fill Your Bins Now! Prices subject to change without notice.

ORDER FROM YOUR DEALER NOW

John Haug & Son
Hettinger Lumber Co.
Ideal Lumber & Coal Co.
Marston Bros. Co.
H. Schabo & Son
Balliet Supply Co.

Fraser-Commentz Coal Co.
D. A. Gardner Coal Co.
Guenther Transfer & Supply Co.
Wisconsin Michigan Power Co.
LITTLE CHUTE
Little Chute Lumber & Fuel Co.

KIMBERLY
Home Supply Co.
NEENAH
Home Fuel Co.
O. K. Lumber & Fuel Co.
MENASHA
R. L. Pankratz Fuel Co.

The Help You Want For Housecleaning

---a dozen cleaning services at your disposal

Our modern laundry service is just the reliable help you need this spring. We can lift off your shoulders at least one-half the wearisome labors of housecleaning time.

You want the curtains carefully washed, carefully dried and stretched, and exquisitely finished, all ready to hang up in your spic and span — our work will delight you.

You want the heavy winter bedding, quilts and wool blankets — skillfully washed and dried delightfully warm and downy — we have special equipment to handle this work in a scientific manner.

You won't need new bath and floor

Uneeda Damp Wash Laundry

PHONE 667

Peerless National Laundry

PHONE 148

OHIO G. O. P. LEADERS KEEP CAMPAIGN GOING; DEMOCRATS ARE CALM

Supporters of Senator Frank B. Willis Turn from a Candidate to a Cause

Columbus, Ohio—(AP)—Ohio republicans who had supported the late Senator Frank B. Willis turned from a candidate to a cause after death strode to the stage of the crowded assembly hall in Delaware and beckoned Willis from the platform.

The political cards that fell from the lifeless hands of the Ohio senator were badly shuffled for a time, but they are in order now. The hand remains as Willis dealt it with a considerable part of the state's republican forces solidly against the effort of Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, to win a share of Ohio's 51 delegates to the national convention at the state primary April 24.

Before Willis died predictions were that the Ohio favorite son and Hoover would split the delegation, and both camps have asserted they will carry on the battle as vigorously as before. Carmi A. Thompson of Cleveland, moreover of the Willis campaign, declared the Willis hosts will hold their ranks. The Hoover fight will continue to be directed by Walter F. Brown, Toledo, assistant in the federal department of commerce, and Thad H. Brown, former Ohio secretary of state.

Frank Q. Lowden of Illinois may be the principal beneficiary of the tragedy. Willis' delegates will go to the convention unstructured but standing pledged as when they entered the contest. Thirty-four indicated Lowden as second choice.

Eight second choice delegates are pledged to Senator Charles C. Curtis of Kansas and nine to Col. Charles Fisher of Wilmington, Ohio. Some have indicated they may turn to Vice President Charles G. Dawes or Charles Evans Hughes, should either enter the race.

There have been no fireworks on the democratic side of the Ohio primary. The state's 48 delegates are expected to be pledged to former Senator Atlee Pomerene, not an avowed candidate.

After giving Pomerene a complimentary vote under present plans, the delegation then will line up for Gov. Vic Donahay. Under orders of the state central and executive committees, it is bound to support an Ohio man as long as he has a chance. After that, eventually, the Buckeye delegates may go to Gov. Alfred E. Smith, of New York.

WOMEN GOLFERS OF STATE MEET APRIL 20

Election of Officers and Date for Tournament to Be Decided at Neenah

The ninth annual meeting of the Northeastern Wisconsin Women's Golf Association for the election of officers and other business will be held on Friday, April 20, at the Valley Inn at Neenah. A luncheon will precede the meeting. Mrs. James Bergstrom, Neenah, president, Mrs. J. W. Foster, Brandon, treasurer and Mrs. S. B. Sanderson, Menominee, Mich., secretary, will retire after five years service.

At the business meeting during the annual tournament last year at Tuscarobia club, Green Lake, an invitation to play the annual tournament at Sheboygan was extended. Dates for the tournament will be set at the meeting next Friday.

New tournament rulings made by the board of directors include a four day tournament instead of three days as in the past; all flights to be made of sixteen players and all matches eighteen holes; all players to register by 10 o'clock for play or they will lose their place and pairing.

Among the tournaments scheduled for the summer are one of the Buttes Morts club the first week in August and one at the Riverview Country club the first week in September. Other tournaments will be held at Green Lake, Tuscarobia country club, the second week in June; Manitowoc, Lakeside country club, fourth week in June; Northeastern and Wisconsin state annual in July; Marinette-Menominee, Riverside country club, first week in August; Oconto, Oconto country club, third week in August; Oshkosh, Oshkosh Country club, first week in September.

"PRIDE OF APPLETON" TAKES LOAD TO DETROIT

A group of business men from Menominee, Mich., Milwaukee and Milwaukee have the North American Airways company's airplane, "The Pride of Appleton", for a flight to Detroit, Mich., and return. They will leave Sunday morning. While in Detroit they intend to attend the international aerial exposition, now in progress. Eddie Meritt, pilot, took with him an order for a sister ship to the "Pride of Appleton", to be known as "The Pride of Menominee", to be placed in service between Menominee and Chicago.

STOP BAD BREATH

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

Olive Tablets bring no griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after 20 years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the at tendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are a pure vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take nightly for a week and note the effect. 15c, 30c, 60c. All drug gists.

OHIO FAVORITES

BLAINE HAS PLAN FOR MODIFICATION OF 'DRY' AMENDMENT

Badger Senator Says Bill Will Open the Way for Consideration of Dry Law

MADISON—(AP)—Senator John J. Blaine has introduced in the United States senate, a bill which he claims "opens the way for a same consideration of national prohibition."

Intoxicating liquor is construed in the bill to mean liquors "which are fit for beverage purposes and which, when moderately used, are in fact intoxicating and which contain two and three-fourths per centum or more of alcohol by weight."

The bill, according to Senator Blaine, abandons the theory that federal government shall supervise and enforce "mere police regulations relating to local affairs." Many of the sections of the Volstead Act would, under the provisions of his bill, be repealed or re-written, with view of limiting the power of the federal government in the regulations of intoxicating liquor in interstate or foreign commerce.

The bill, Senator Blaine says, "is not repugnant to the 18th Amendment. It comes within its terms. It restricts the federal government in the enforcement of the 18th amendment to the regulation of the liquor question in interstate and foreign commerce, the only field in which the federal government can successfully operate."

It provides that no state shall pass any law to restrict the provisions of the proposed change in the prohibition law relating to the manufacture, sale or transportation of liquor. It would also change the title of commissioner of internal revenue to "commissioner of prohibitions."

"Since liquor is recognized as a medicine, if it is good medicine in one state, it is good in all states and if the sacrament wine is good in one state, it is good in all states. The citizens of each state should be protected against prohibitory legislation in all states respecting medicinal liquor or sacramental wines, for even sick person may travel from one state

VARIETY OF CAUSES FOR 25 FIRES IN PAST MONTH

Twenty-five fires in Appleton in March caused damage estimated at $6,000 according to the monthly report of Louis McGillican, secretary to George P. McGillican, fire chief. Sparks from chimneys caused five of the fires and there were five chimney fires. The fire department made the balance of the calls for the following reasons: escaping smoke, 3; overheated furnaces, 2; short circuits in automobiles, 2; escaping steam, 1; heating oil on furnace, 1; sparks igniting dust, 1; spontaneous combustion, 1; hot embers setting fire, 1; cigarette setting fire, 1; rubbish fire, 1; unknown, 1.

to another," Senator Blaine said in support of his measure.

The bill fixes a single standard respecting the issuance of prescriptions for liquor for medicinal purposes and simplifies and standardizes permits for use of wine for sacramental purposes.

LOVERS IN SCREEN CLASSIC

DOLORES DEL RIO IN "RAMONA" AT THE ELITE THEATRE FOR FOUR DAYS STARTING MONDAY.

AGENT SAYS FARMERS FAIL TO SIGN NAMES

About 20 farmers who sent requests to R. A. Amundson, agricultural agent for government bulletins on farm subjects, failed to sign their names to their requests and as a result Mr. Amundson has been unable to dispatch the material. The county agent said he frequently receives letters from farmers asking for information or material and they either fail to sign their full address. Mr. Amundson said it is very necessary, especially because of the duplication of names, that those sending in requests should also send their full name and address.

BEAUTY CULTURE ENROLL NOW—REDUCED

For Summer Term, Beginning May 15. Learn Our French Method Beauty Culture.

THE SCHOOL

317 Cleveland Bldg., Milwaukee.

"Oldest Licensed School in Wisconsin."

GLOUDEMANS-GAGE CO.

"The Best Place to Shop... After All"

THIS IS FABRIC WEEK ON THE MAIN FLOOR

Featuring Pure Silk Stockings

For the Women Who Demand the Most for the Money they Spend!

98c
THE PAIR!

Included are These New Shades!

White
Pearl Blush
Gun Metal
Sandust
Champagne
Vanity
Nude Evenglow Season
Rose Taupe

In the Notion Section

Stamped Pieces

Pillow Cases—89c to $1.69

Very finely made of extra quality, weight and finish tubing, and stamped in a wide variety of pretty, easy-to-embroider designs. Hemstitched ends. 42x36 inch size.

18x45 In. Dresser Scarfs
39c--59c--89c

A splendid assortment of fine quality dresser scarfs to match the cases. Stamped on very fine quality, weight and finish bleached art cloth. Very pretty.

EMBROIDERY FLOSS. J. & P. Coats six-strand floss in all colors. Guaranteed boil-proof and fast color. 3 for 10c

D. M. C. For embroidery work Six-strand. Guaranteed fast-color and boil-proof. Per skein . . . . . 5c

Brown Muslin

12 1/2c Yard

Extra fine quality and weight with a good, soft finish. Free from all starch or filling. A very special value for this week's selling.

Bleached Sheetings. "Wearwell" quality sheeting. Fine weight and finish. Pure bleached. No filling. 81 inches wide. 48c yard.

36-In. Ginghams

12 1/2c Yard

Very fine quality and weight ginghams for aprons, dresses, etc. A splendid variety of new checked and plaid patterns in pretty fast-color combinations.

Boys' Hose
25c Pair

For school and play wear. Extra heavy ribbed in colors of black and brown. All sizes from 6 to 10 1/2. Extra value.

"Household" Cases

25c Each

Pillow cases of exceptional quality and weight. Free from all filling. Pure bleached. 42x36 inches—size before hemming. A long wearing case for home use.

Children's Hose
19c Pair

For school, or dress wear. Plain ribbed and finely mercerized. Pretty champagne shade only. Good variety of sizes.

Yard-Wide Percales

19c Yard

Very good quality and weight and shown in a most varied collection of pretty, new patterns in light and dark colors. Guaranteed washable.

Imperial Chambrays

29c Yard

Full 32 inches wide and offered in a remarkable variety of beautiful patterns in unusual color combinations—also plain shades. Guaranteed sun and wash fast. Non-shrinkable.

98c Yard

Guaranteed!

Jack and Jill Prints

35c Yard

Full 32 inches wide and offered in a remarkable variety of beautiful patterns in unusual color combinations—also plain shades. Guaranteed sun and wash fast. Non-shrinkable.

SPORTS

NEWS OF NEENAH AND MENASHA

SOCIETY

GIRLS SCHEDULE 12 MEETINGS FOR WEEK

Skating Party, Luncheon and Art Classes Part of Their Program

Neenah—Camp Fire groups, Cellicotton girls' skating party, Friends' class and Kimlark play practice, are scheduled for meetings Monday evening at the Young Women's club. At 6:30 the Camp Fire girls will conduct "Sing." At 7 o'clock the Uke class will meet, followed by a meeting of the Uke club.

The weekly noon dinner will be served Tuesday evening at the Bierstein mill. At 2:30 in the afternoon, the Twin City club will meet. At 7 o'clock the weekly Bible History class will meet followed at 7:30 by roller skating. At 8 o'clock the art class will hold its meeting.

The weekly dinner will be served at noon Wednesday at the Jersild Knitting company plant. In the evening, at the club, folk dancing and basketball will take up the time.

Dinner will be served at noon Thursday at the Bergstrom Paper company plant. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the Thursday club will meet. At 4 o'clock the Ekola and Bluebird groups will hold their weekly meetings. At 7 o'clock in the evening the French class will meet and at 7:30 the art class will get together for work. At 8 o'clock the Overall club will meet for play practice and the Theda Clark gymnasium class will meet in the gymnasium.

The Guardians will hold a supper at 6:30 Friday evening, followed by a public bridge party at 8 o'clock in charge of the Guardians association.

The weekly story and game hour for the children will be held on Saturday morning with meetings of the Camp Fire groups during the afternoon.

The club rooms will be closed all day Sunday.

NEENAH SOCIETY

Neenah—Carl Lempke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lempke of Neenah, and Miss Alma Berg of Greenwood, were married last Thursday at Waukegan, Ill., according to announcements received by relatives here. Following a short trip to Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Lempke will return to Neenah to reside. Mr. Lempke holding a position at the Hardwood Product company plant.

The dancing party given Saturday evening by the Eagle social club at the aerie hall, was attended by a large group of young people. The next party will be given Saturday evening.

Miss Verna Handier, having secured the larger number of votes in the Royal Neighbor popularity contest, was crowned queen of the Mardi Gras carnival which closed a week's festivities Saturday evening at S. A. Cook armory. Miss Margaret Danielson was second choice for queen and Miss Martha Cole was third choice. The carnival closed with a dancing party.

Fraternal Reserve association has arranged for a dancing party to be held Tuesday evening at S. A. Cook armory. The original Dixie Entertainers will furnish the music.

A delegation of Danish Brotherhood called Sunday afternoon at the home of Nels Tolverson to assist him in celebrating his eighty-first birthday anniversary at his home on Lake-ct. Among the delegation were several who have reached the 80 year mark.

Danish Brotherhood entertained a large group of people Saturday evening at its hall on W. Wisconsin-ave. The Brotherhood had the Danish Sisterhood as its guest.

The weekly card tournament was held Saturday evening at the Neenah club rooms. The evening was spent in playing schafkopf. Prizes were won by Charles Pope and Francis Hatton.

GRANT NEENAH DOCTOR DECREE OF DIVORCE

Neenah—Dr. Gilbert H. Gafford, Neenah, obtained a decree of divorce from Nina Gafford, Saturday, in circuit court, Oshkosh. He had charged cruel and inhuman treatment and the action was not contested. The findings stated that Mrs. Gafford left Illinois at the time the summons in the action was served upon her. The court judgment permits her to keep the property she took with her as a final property settlement and to resume her maiden name of Nina Graemer. They were married Sept. 27, 1926 and there are no children.

HIGH SCHOOL SOCIETY

REHEARSING COMEDY

Neenah—"The Fourteenth Hour," a farce comedy, is being rehearsed by the high school Philomathia society, for presentation next Wednesday at Kimberly high school auditorium. The play will be the Philo's part in the inter-society contest. John Hewitt will have the part of Dick Slade; Phillip Hahl will be Tom Slade; Harvey Jorgenson, Harry Slade; Robert Gillispie, Willie Jeanette Bessex; Kit Brooks; Bernice Boersom; Margaret Short; Helen Hauser; Leona Dorothy Gottfried; Meta Mann, and Stanley Staffeld, the minister.

KIWANIANS DINE AND SEE DRILL BY GIRLS

Neenah—The weekly meeting and lunch of the Kiwanians club will be held Tuesday noon at Kimberly high school dining room. The luncheon will be prepared and served by the young ladies of the domestic science department under direction of Miss Charlotte Peters. The club will have for its guest, C. P. Hedges, superintendent of schools. Following the meeting, Miss Smeal and a class of girl athletes will give an Indian club drill in the gymnasium.

TEACHERS MEET

Neenah—A general teachers' meeting has been called for 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Kimberly high school. Superintendent C. F. Hedges will be the speaker.

Box Car Library

Coloma, N. M.—Coloma is to have a public library in a box car, bought and equipped by the Sorosis Literary club, Neenah.

Where Twins Grow

Coeur D'Alene, Ida.—The Hayden Lake public school, with 106 pupils, enrolled, has eight twins.

Collegiate Family

Seymour, Wis.—Five of the 13 children of Julius Bubolz are in college, and the other eight, he says, will be.

Menasha—Clarence Melke and John Ziebeck were arrested Saturday evening on a charge of driving an automobile without the owner's permission. When arraigned Monday morning before Justice Jensen, Melke waived preliminary examination and was bound over to appear at 10 o'clock on the morning of April 24 in Municipal court at Oshkosh. Ziebeck was held until Monday afternoon to allow him to see counsel.

RECEIVES $776.48 FOR VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Neenah—Checks totaling $776.48 have been received by Lawrence Lambert, city treasurer, from the state treasury as Neenah's share toward vocational education. Of this total, one check was for $153.12 for the commercial course; one for $153.12 for the home economic course; one for $153.12 for the manual training course and one for $302.12 for the district union and consolidated school fund.

MRS. JOHN MADDER

Neenah—Mrs. John Madder, 54, died at her home at Neenah on Saturday morning. Mrs. Madder was born in Hortonville, but moved to Neenah with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Waite. Surviving are her widow, two daughters, her father, four sisters, three brothers and six grandchildren. The funeral services will be conducted at the home at 10 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and at 2 o'clock at the Neenah Congregational church. Burial will be in Woodhill cemetery, Neenah.

Collegiate Family

Seymour, Wis.—Five of the 13 children of Julius Bubolz are in college, and the other eight, he says, will be.

Menasha—Al. H. Spies of Menasha, charged with violation of the dry law, was ordered to appear in municipal court at Oshkosh Monday. His place of business was visited by a dry squad several weeks ago.

2,000 PERSONS VISIT NEW FILTRATION PLANT

Menasha—More than 2,000 people inspected the new filtration plant Sunday afternoon and evening. It was the last day the plant was to be open for public inspection. As there was no registration of visitors no record was kept of the number of callers during the week.

WOMEN'S CLUBS SHOW VALUE OF ORGANIZATION

Menasha—Wisconsin members of the Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs are joining this week with the national organization in demonstrating to the committees of the state the value of their federation.

Many of the clubs are holding district meetings to observe the week. The observance in Madison takes the form of a district meeting and banquet on Thursday night. Miss Lora Westlake, Madison, is president of the state organization.

The federation was organized in St. Louis in 1919, following a survey of organizations devoted to the interests of business and professional women. Its total membership is now 50,000, distributed among 900 clubs in 47 state federations.

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

489

THE CANARY MURDER CASE

BY S. S. VAN DINE, AUTHOR OF THE BENSON MURDER CASE

JOHN F. X. MARKHAM, District Attorney of New York County
PHILIP VANCE
MARGARET ODELL (THE "CANARY")
CHARLES CLEAVER, a man-about-town
KENNETH SPOTSWOOD, a manufacturer
LOUIS MANNIX, an importer
DR. AMBROSE LINQUIST, a fashionable neurologist
TONY SKEELE, a professional burglar
WILLIAM ELMER JESSUP, telephone operator
HARRY SPIVELY, telephone operator
ERNEST HEATH, Sergeant of the Homeless Bureau

THE STORY THUS FAR

Margaret Odell is found strangled. Skeel's finger prints are found in the apartment, but Vance believes Skeel had been hiding in a closet while the murder was committed. The thing that baffles police is the side door to the alley, which had been bolted on the inside the night before and was found the same way in the morning. Mannix, Dr. Linquist and Cleaver all lie about their whereabouts the night of the murder. Spotswood, who had promised to tell the girl, had rushed back to her door at the sound of a scream, but had been reassured that everything was all right. Then Skeel is found strangled just like the "Canary" after he had promised to tell who murdered the girl. Heath arrests Jessup, believing him the only one able to manipulate the side door. But Vance declares Skeel could have gone out that way and re-bolted the door on the inside.

CHAPTER XLIII
"Skeel! — This isn't the age of massacres, Mr. Vance."

Vance swang about and faced Markham.

"Listen! I'm telling you Jessup's innocent." He spoke with a fervor that amazed me. "And I'm going to prove it to you — some way. My theory is pretty complete; it's deficient only in one or two small points; and, I confess, I haven't yet been able to put a name to the culprit. But it's the right theory, Markham, and it's diametrically opposed to the sergeant's."

"Therefore, you've got to give me an opportunity to demonstrate it before you proceed against Jessup. Now, I can't demonstrate it here; so you and Heath must come with me to the Odell house. It won't take over an hour. But if it took a week, you'd have to come just the same."

He stepped nearer to the desk.

"I know that it was Skeel and not Jessup, he unbolted that door before the crime, and rebolted it afterward."

Markham was impressed.

"You know this — you know it for a fact?"

"Yes! and I know how he did it!"

(Monday, September 17, 11:30 a. m.)

Half an hour later we entered the little apartment-house in 71st Street. Despite the plausibility of Heath's case against Jessup, Markham was switchboard. Markham and I stood behind Heath in the little alcove, facing the front of the building.

"Enter Mr. Skeel," announced Vance. "Remember, it's half past nine." Then, as he came abreast of the switchboard: "Dash it all! You forgot your lines, Sergeant. You should have told me that Miss Odell was out. But it doesn't matter . . . Mr. Skeel continues to the lady's door . . . thus."

He walked past us, and we heard him ring the apartment bell. After a brief pause, he knocked on the door. Then he came back down the hall.

"I guess you were right," he said, quoting the words of Skeel as reported by Spively; and went on to the front door. Stepping out into the street, he turned toward Broadway.

For exactly three minutes we waited.

None of us spoke. Heath had become serious, and his accelerated puffing on his cigar bore evidence of his state of expectancy. Markham was frowning stoically.

The officer on guard outside of the Odell apartment came forward and saluted.

"How goes it?" asked Heath. "Any visitors?"

"Only one — a toff who said he'd known the Canary and wanted to see the apartment. I told him to get an order from you or the district attorney."

"That was correct, officer," said Markham, then, turning to Vance: "Probably Spotswood — poor devil."

"Quite," murmured Vance. "So persistent! Rosemary and all that."

Heath narrowed his eyes, but said nothing. Then he suddenly swung round and looked down the rear passageway to the oak door at the end. The handle of the bolt was in a vertical position, showing that the catch had been turned and that the door was unbolted. Heath regarded it for several moments; then he turned his eyes toward the switchboard. Presently he let out a gleeful whoop.

"Very good, Mr. Vance — very good!" he proclaimed, nodding his head knowingly. "That was easy, though. And it don't take psychology to explain it — After you rang the apartment bell, you ran down the rear hallway and unbolted the door. Then you ran back and knocked. After that you went out the front entrance, turned toward Broadway, swung round across the street, came in the alley, walked in the side door, and quietly let yourself into the apartment behind our backs."

"Simple, wasn't it?" agreed Vance.

"Sure. The sergeant was almost contemptuous. "But that don't get you nowhere. Anybody could figure it out if that had been the only problem connected with Monday night's operation."

"But it's the rebolting of that side door after Skeel had gone, that's been occupying my mind. Skeel in the way you did. "But he couldn't have got out that way, because the door was bolted the next morning. And if there was some one here to bolt the door after him, then that same person could've unbolted the door for him earlier, without his doing the ten-foot dash down the real hall to unbolt the door himself at half past nine. So I don't see that your interesting little drama helps Jessup out any."

"Oh, but the drama isn't over," Vance replied. "The curtain is about to go up on the next act."

Heath lifted his eyes sharply.

"Yeah!" His tone was one of almost jeering incredulity, but his expression was searching and dubious. "And you're going to show us how

"Ivy Irks Neighbor

TOLEDO, Ohio — Thomas M. Swinton has sued his neighbor, Olive Root, for $20,000 because she planted poison ivy. It has kept him ill, he says, for three years.

BY B. A. CLAFLIN

Among those who have followed my articles for the last few years, many have clipped and saved them. By so doing they have acquired an extensive compilation of the best places in the state to seek their favorite sport. This information is state wide. It has been served to the readers because it is authentic and first hand knowledge which required time and much effort on the part of the writer to get. There has been no guesswork; nor have any of the articles describing certain localities as conducive to good sport been written from hearsay.

We have received so much favorable comment from sportsmen about the state, that we feel disposed to continue along the same line. This season we shall make an extended trip throughout the northern half of the state, visiting new localities almost exclusively — that is, places that are yet new to us. Personally, the writer has visited a hundred and ten resorts in Vilas-co alone, to say nothing of the other counties. And that is far from all there are in Vilas-co as may be inferred from the fact that there are some 1200 chartered lakes within its confines; and practically all of them of any size or importance harbor from one to a dozen resorts. A similar condition prevails in the other counties as well.

Some conception of the importance of our resort business may be gleaned from the last report of the Highway Commission. This report was based on 6,6 replies to questionnaires sent out by them. And that was four years ago. The Commission's conservative estimate placed the amount of money left in the state by tourists at $100,000,000. Annually, more people are taking to the great outdoors for their recreation and, therefore, the above figures must have grown considerably since the last estimate was undertaken. The value of the fishing alone, was placed at $10,000,000. And this, also, is growing steadily.

Every year sees new fishing country opened up to the tourist. Good roads are taking the place of formerly "impossible" trails. A fair analysis of that is the White Lake country in Skeel got out and bolted the door on the inside without Jessup's help?"

"That is precisely what I intend to do, my Sergeant."

Heath opened his mouth to speak, but thought better of it. Instead, he merely shrugged his shoulders and gave Markham a sly look.

"Let us repair to the public atrium," proceeded Vance; and he led us into the little reception-room directly opposite to the switchboard. This room, as I have explained, was just beyond the starry case, and along its rear wall ran the little passage-way to the side door. (A glance at the accompanying diagram will clarify the arrangement.)

(TO BE CONTINUED)

More Than 1,200 Lakes In Borders Of Vilas-co

BY B. A. CLAFLIN

Langlade county — It is, perhaps, of more than passing interest just at this time because of the nearness of the approaching trout season. There are hundreds of miles of trout streams within an hour's drive of Spencer's place, which is on the Wolf river, four miles from the White Lake post office. The rates at Spencer's are low and the accommodations the very best.

The country is engrossed and wild; that's why the trout fishing is still good. Guides may be had at Spencer's, by their use, you will be sure of some wonderful sport. Because they will show you the best places at once, whereas, while you can get around alone, it will require longer time to learn the stretches of water where the big brookies hold trout, and not all have unlimited time to fish.

Before you go up there, however, if you want best results, get some Weber three-tined, tapered leaders, and a couple dozen of his 12-line flies, of at least a dozen different patterns. Let them average about eight to twelve in size for that reason, and good luck to you.

NO NEED TO CALL CITY HALL OFFICE TO GET THE TIME

Someone in Appleton pulled a new "gag" around the city hall Saturday morning when they called up a city officer and politely asked him what time it was "because our clock has stopped."

Being an accommodating officer the gentleman in the case probably gave the lady the time, although he did not say so when he told this story. But here's a hint for Appleton housewives: Don't call the city hall and ask for the time because there are no two checks in the building which can tick off if they run.

Dance at Watry's Hall,
Little Chute, Tues. night. Music
by Wis. Entertainers.

Appleton Souvenir Edition
The Wisconsin Magazine at News Stands, 10c. It's worth preserving.

STATE DEPARTMENT WATCHES CONTRACTORS ORGANIZATION

Madison — (AP) — The state department of markets will watch with interest the reformation of the Wisconsin Associated Highway Contractors, it was said in that office today. The organization of a score of more Wisconsin road builders into a group similar and possibly bearing the same name as the old road group, it is practically completed, it was reported. For the time being, the new group has no checks in the building which can tick off if they run.

The organization members are probably highway contractors for road materials and it is in this connection that the department of markets would observe the organization's work. In that office it was said today that the practice of the department to observe the information and work of any organization in which dealers in commodities are a part of the business.

AMUSEMENT INCREASES
PARIS — Paris has 559 opera houses, music halls, circuses, theaters and movies — a gain of 505 in 50 years.

GIRLS, GOOD HEALTH MAKES YOU ATTRACTIVE TO MEN
Bright Eyes,
Rosy Cheeks
Make a Woman Beautiful

Take a bottle or two of that well-known herbal Tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery
To Improve Your Health Generally
All Druggists

EVERY STORE A LOCAL ENTERPRISE
Appleton, Wis.

J.C. PENNEY CO.
"A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION"
"where savings are greatest"
Lutheran Aid Bldg

Feature Values! From Our Yard Goods Department

Two Splendid Household Items At Prices Worthy of Particular Attention

"Honor Muslin"

The standard of thousands of housewives — 36 inches wide bleached and 39 inches unbleached.

yd. 12<sup>1</sup>2c

"Belle Isle" Muslin

An outstanding value for a score of household needs. 36 inches wide bleached and 39 inches unbleached.

yd. 10c

"Gladio"

A Trademark That Assures Pleasing Quality

Our own brand of splendid 36 inch percale in a selection of patterns. Yd.

Plain and Fancy

15c

Pretty Dress Gingham

At a Real Saving

Evidence here of our ability to offer real quality at a saving. This gingham is 32 inches wide, finely woven and made up in better patterns.

Fancy Plaids — Good Colors

Mothers and their children can have a number of pretty dresses for summer when they can be made up as cheaply as this. The material will wash well and serve well.

10c a yard

The Name "Penco" is Outstanding When Sheets and Sheetings of Quality Are Mentioned

Fastidious housewives who still must be thrifty shoppers have found "Penco" the solution to many a problem. You will be proud to use this splendid line, even in your guestroom. Our range of prices is attractively moderate and surprising for an item of such outstanding quality.

Penco 8/4 bleached and 9/4 unbleached sheeting, yard . . . . . 49c

Penco 9/4 bleached unbleached sheeting, yard . . . . . 53c

Penco sheets, size 72x90, each . . . . . $1.28

Penco Sheets, size 81x90, each . . . . . $1.38

Penco Sheets, 81x99, each . . . . . $1.59

Penco Pillow Cases, size 42x36, each . . . . . 35c

Penco Pillow Cases, size 45x36, each . . . . . 37c

Penco linen-finish pillow tubing:

40 inch, yard . . . . . 33c

42 inch, yard . . . . . 35c

WICHMANN'S
Furniture Company

We now have a complete display of the popular Stewart Gas Ranges on our floors... including the beautiful new colored ranges which are exciting so much talk.

Nowhere else in Appleton can you see these ranges for Wichmann's, because of their enviable reputation, have the Stewart line exclusively. Backed by a leading Wisconsin manufacturer with almost a century's experience in building quality cooking and heating appliances... Fuller-Warren of Milwaukee. No wonder housewives prefer the Stewart... no wonder we were willing to stake our reputation on them.

By J. A. Panneck, D. C.
PALMER CHIROPRACTOR

Question: I am bothered with stomach, kidney and liver trouble. I have consulted different doctors and their diagnosis differ as to my case. I have been under their care for two years with no results. I am considering taking adjustments from you. Please explain more about Chiropractic. — E. F. J.

ONSWER: Chiropractic is a philosophy, science and art of things natural, a system of adjusting the vertebrae of the spine by hand, for the elimination of the cause of disease. The cause of disease is lack of life energy, which chiropractically speaking, is mental impulses or thought, going from the brain over the nerves to every cell in all parts of the body. Lack of mental impulses is due to impingements of nerves which pressing against the soft substance of nerve structure, decreases the normal flow of nerve energy. These impingements are due to subluxated (misaligned) vertebral segments.

The work of the true Chiropractor is to correct existing subluxations found in the spinal column. When such adjustment is complete mental impulses or function will flow unimpeded and health will result naturally.

Thereby, the claim and proven fact, principle, that interference with the nerve impulse from the brain cell tissue to the receptive organ or part, is the primary cause of disease, that function will diminish according to the reduced caliber of the spinal cord or nerve and the duration of time that interference exists.

Now if you, my reader, accept this as the truth, and are convinced that these statements are facts, you have accepted the chiropractic principle of the cause of disease.

We as doctors of chiropractic have individually, jointly, and collectively accepted this principle, and now that it is the truth it will survive all time and never die.

Therefore, I advise you to consult a competent Palmer Chiropractor for a spinal examination.

For your health appointment Phone

Office 1319-W, Residence 4319-R

APPLETON POST-CRESCENT

VOL. 49. No. 270.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE POST PUBLISHING COMPANY, APPLETON, WIS.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT APPLETON, WIS., AS SECOND MATTER.

JOHN K. KLINE ..... President

A. B. TURNBULL ..... Secretary-Treasurer

H. L. DAVIS ..... Business Manager

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

THE APPLETON POST-CRESCENT is delivered by carrier to city and suburban subscribers for fifteen cents a week, or $7.50 a year in advance. By mail, one month $5.00, three months $15.00, six months $25.00, one year $40.00 in advance.

MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The A. P. is exclusively entitled to the use of publication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

FOREIGN ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES

G. LOGAN PAYNE COMPANY

New York 247 Park Ave. Boston 50 Boylston St.

Chicago, 6 N. Michigan Ave.

BRING OUT EKERN

In spite of the right and the power the primary law is supposed to give into the hands of the people, the plain fact remains that the people are really limited to a choice between the candidates of each faction in a party. In so far as state offices at least are concerned an independent candidacy is almost hopeless.

While we make no pretense of having anything in common with the Blaine faction in the Republican party, still in a broader sense every person has an interest in seeing each faction put forth its best, its ablest men, for if success happens to crown that faction's efforts the government of the state is bettered when it has its best talent, its real ability directing its affairs.

The proposed candidacy of Congressman Beck has fallen entirely flat. Mr. Beck's swing around the circle didn't help him. It hurt him. His lack of qualifications for gubernatorial honors is too manifest.

He was in a hurry to open up fine, new broad subjects of interesting discussion, plunged in over his head, floundered, gulped heavily of sea water, called loudly for help and was rescued by Attorney General Reynolds with his "rather delightful remark about postponing further discussion "until some pleasant evening in June." All seemed to agree that Beck has a fine voice and Senator Blaine has a weakness for the musical cadences of mellow voices. Yet the Blaine faction should not try to force Mr. Beck upon the people of the state nor upon the members of its own political faction, certainly not while it has a man of much greater ability at hand.

Herman L. Ekern, former Attorney General and once candidate for the nomination of governor, is a man of ability, intelligence and education. We expect to differ from him politically but no person familiar with his record can say that he lacks qualifications for the position. Indeed why Senator Blaine should be a leader of his faction and Mr. Ekern a mere follower is impossible to understand excepting that the faction is heading for the rocks by putting incapable men in prominent positions and concealing its men of talent.

At the time Beck was selected by Senator Blaine to make the run there was some talk that Ekern was not considered available because not wet enough. The people of Wisconsin, we hope, are too intelligent to permit the wet-dry issue to either affect or in any manner control election to state offices. At a referendum not long since the voters registered in emphatic language their opinion of what should be done with the Volstead act. No man elected to the office of governor, regardless of his own personal opinions, would think for a moment of avoiding the referendum or taking any position contrary to it. That settles the wet-dry matter. Any effort to use that question for or against any candidate is on its face insincere. It cannot fool the people. It should have no effect upon the election. It is hard to think that it can.

Certainly the people of the state have the right to demand from the Blaine faction that it puts up its best qualified candidate for every position. While indications show that Blaine is losing favor with the voters, no one can pretend to prophesy the outcome of the primary in September. Were Beck to be nominated and elected the state would have to sail through two years of heavy fog, never knowing exactly where it stood, and with the pilot, instead of at the wheel where he belongs, listening to the resounding reverberations of his own mellow voice but listening in vain for anything of substance. It would take all of the Attorney General's time to keep him out of hot water.

Ekern, on the other hand, if he continued his past record would at least work and bring to his work a rather high order of intelligence. Still, Ekern hasn't really the right kind of a voice. Blaine insists on a rich baritone.

THEY DID IT!

All over the civilized world, Saturday, men and women breathed freely again, for the Germans, Baron von Huenfeld and Captain Koehl, and the laughing Irishman, Fitzmaurice, had landed on the bleak and forbidding shores of Labrador.

"All the world loves a lover" because all the world loves to be in love, and all the world admires courage because every individual desires, himself, to be courageous. It is a serious matter though to announce, "Mitchell Field or heaven," and start west from Ireland over two thousand miles of trackless waters, the dark and unfriendly north Atlantic, with a realization that no one who has tried thefeat has ever succeeded or ever lived to tell of the effort.

When men resolutely face a termination of their earthly existence, defiant of dangers or consequences, they exhibit the dauntless courage that approaches the sublime. The desire to overcome obstacles however great, the determination "to see if the thing can be done," is the kind of stuff, though wasted now and then on seemingly fruitless endeavor, that has in reality given to the world most of its material progress.

Columbus had the same spirit exactly. So had Amerigo Vespucci, Hendrik Hudson, Magellan, Sir Francis Drake and scores of others who sailed westward in little boats over storm tossed seas.

And now that the Atlantic has been crossed from both sides it cannot be considered out of order for the more timid to suggest full speed ahead on the precautions that may be taken to reduce the hazard of the crossing.

WOMEN AND STOCKS

Chicago brokers, it is said, are trying to discourage women clients. They don't want them because the women are "welchers," "unstable, teary when they lose and altogether without financial ability." They are even unreasonable when they win. One broker tells of making a good profit for a woman. The stock continued to advance and she accused the broker of cheating her.

This sort of criticism about the behavior of women in financial dealings is not new. It is chiefly surprising because it has not been heard much lately. Women were supposed to be taking a more normal attitude toward all business affairs, not expecting special favors because of their sex and bearing reverses as courageously as men.

Possibly the woman who speculates in stocks is lagging behind her sisters who are engaged in various business and industrial activities. Yet it is doubtful whether the Chicago brokers will keep up their boycotting campaign very long. They are more likely simply to resign themselves to the discomfort of dealing with the bad losers.

GOOD TASTE BEST CENSOR

You may remember that a couple of years ago, or less, there was much in the papers about the nudity of New York's musical revues. We had endless discussion of it, and many clamors for some censorship or supervision that would compel girls to put on more clothes.

No censorship came of it, however, and the producers were allowed to go their own sweet way. And what happened?

Just this; the nudity disappeared. Revues today, for the most part, are featured by elaborate costumes. The public simply got tired of nudity. The producers discovered it was no longer a drawing card. So they bought some dresses.

Which proves, perhaps, that the American public doesn't need anyone to protect its morals. Its own good taste is its best protector.

THE DEATHS OF 164 AVIATORS

One hundred and sixty-four aviators were killed in flights in the United States last year.

At first glance, that looks as if aviation is a pretty perilous business. Yet close examination of the figures, as tabulated by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce, puts a different aspect on things.

Of the 164 deaths, 131 occurred in unlicensed airplanes. Only one air mail pilot lost his life—and the air mail flew a total of 1,413,381 miles. More than 97 per cent of the licensed planes flew throughout the year without any fatal accidents.

If the plane is standard and the pilot capable, it would seem, flying is not so dangerous as it has been painted.

A taxicab driver in New York has sued for damages because a patron shot him in the collar bone. Before you shoot a taxicab driver always ask him where he prefers to be shot.

"Neap tides" are low tides which occur in the beginning of the second and fourth quarters of the moon.

Postcards of 10.5 x 15 centimeters only are permitted in Czechoslovakia; on all other sizes delivered, the receiver is required to pay a fine.

APPLETON POST-CRESCENT

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician And Author

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

AN OUTLINE OF HYGIENE
NO. 26—A LONG WAY FROM MICROBES TO INFECTION

In rendering the perennial spring song the other day a good friend of mine who writes editorials gave customers the customary warning about venturing forth these sunny bland spring days in habiliments appropriate to settled spring. He reminded us that you never can tell when the fitful spring weather will turn suddenly cold or sleepy and catch unwaried victims with their defenses down, so to speak. At this point my friend suffered a qualm, so he went on to opine that notwithstanding Dr. Brady, or something to that effect, results seem to bear out the popular belief that germs and microbes lurk under the edges of smudgy snowbanks. Then my editorial friend called it a day.

To my mind this was delightfully humorous.

There were so many soft touches in the blurb. First, I wondered how the girls would take it. I've studied the problem long and earnestly, giving every case the up and down or at least the once over, and I have not encountered more than two or three instances among the reckless sex to bear out my editorial friend's theory. These two or three girls who apparently had their heavy underwear on seemed quite well at the moment, though they looked unhappy. Then, too, there is something comical in the thought of germs and microbes furiously lurking behind snowbanks; the juxtaposition reminds one of salesladies graciously associating with saleswomen. But the funniest thing about the 1928 spring song was the way the pathogenic bacteria, as we doctors call 'em, were dragged into the picture by main force and as a sober afterthought. If the poor sap ventures out in the tricky spring sunshine without his goggles, chest protector, muffler, ear muffs and belly pad on, and the critter cold sheet gets him, oh, slush, why bother about any microorganisms? Well, these germs and microbes with which my editorial friend besprinkled the situation, are susceptible of various explanations. They help to fill the yawning space, for one thing. They serve as dust to blind customers to the absurdity of the song. And they tend to soften the impact of the slipper when Old Doc Brady discovers the discordance.

Quite seriously now I believe most of the laity and too many physicians fail to take a vital fact into consideration when thinking about the prevention or treatment of infectious disease, and this faulty or erratic reasoning leads to much disappointment, unnecessary danger and useless waste of money. The vital fact so often left out of the puzzle is simply that it is a long, long way from germs to infection. It calls for special emphasis, because otherwise it will be dismissed and soon forgotten.

Most intelligent persons now know that the presence of diphtheria germs in one's throat does not prove that one is ill of diphtheria. Everybody has had healthy disease germs "carriers." Evidently one may harbor disease germs on a mucous surface without suffering from infection—that is, the germs man. Not enter the tissues at all, to set up infection. But very few laymen and too few physicians bear this fact in mind when thinking of infection; far too much misdirected "sanitary precaution" and commercially inspired "personal hygiene" grows out of this common misunderstanding. The very idea of disease germs "lurking" and the ways and means the gullible housewife adopts to deal with them, is an instance.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Aw, Nawty! Nawty!

What is the cause of Benger's disease? What are the symptoms? If the tissues are gone . . . (B. S. M.)

Answer—Whoa, and back up! Who is the doctor here anyway? I'll have to tell a story with a moral. Once there was an old geezer who had a wooden head. He had no tobacco but his nerve was not quite dead. He paused one day—in fact his life was one long pause—in the old potato patch and said to his companion: "Have you a pipe and some tobacco handy? I think I have a match." This bender's disease is a new one to me, and even if I could find any symptoms of it I would not give them out.

We're Great on Corns

I've used your corn remedy, and there is nothing like it. I tried almost every patent medicine with no success, but since discovering Old Doctor Brady's infallible corn and wart annihilator I have no more corns. I am 26 years old, 62 inches tall and weigh 135 pounds. How much should I weigh? I would like to have the Brady Symphony. (Mrs. F. H.)

Answer—You should weigh 130 pounds without your corns on. Send a stamped envelope bearing your address, mention that you are suffering from that fatal feeling, and I'll send you the Brady Symphony. Let no fat reader assume, however, that the symphony will reduce a fat person one iota or titillate. It merely makes you look and feel slimmer. About the corn remedy—it is as good for warts as it is for corns. It isn't mine—it has been a standard formula for generations before I darkened the door of the profession. Better let your druggist prepare it for you, though you may make it yourself if you wish. It is thirty grains (30 grains) of salicylic acid dissolved in one-half ounce of flexible collodion. Paint the corn or wart with this once a day until it softens and comes away after a week or two. Keep the vial tightly corked, else the ether and alcohol will evaporate and leave a sticky mass. If this happens, the druggist can restore it to pristine youth by adding some more ether and alcohol. This same remedy will dispose of calluses on the soles of the feet, but should not be applied to raw surfaces.

(Copyright John F. Dille company.)

LOOKING BACKWARD

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Monday, April 20, 1903

Andrew Carnegie's benefactions then aggregate $37,212,923.

William Wenzel that day shipped six more centrifugal pumps to Buffalo.

Louis Hollingsworth won the prize at the silver medal contest at the Ryan high school, the previous Saturday. The fourth ward pupils and first pupils were to compete in a contest that evening. Miss Jessie Woodford was to give a reading during the conference of the judges.

Marriage licenses were issued to John Stroebe and Lotta Stroebe, both of Grand Chute.

Nat M. Roosevelt, a class mate of President Roosevelt and tenor soloist with the Harvard Glee Club was to give three illustrated lectures at First Congregational church that week.

TEN YEARS AGO

Monday, April 15, 1918

Charles Chaplin had been drafted for the army and it was expected he would receive his call in June. Although an Englishman Chaplin had waved his rights. At that time he was touring the country selling bonds.

In order to supply American soldiers in France with enough flour, C. A. Pardee, county food administrator, that day notified the state food administration that he was in a position to ship between 500 and 700 barrels of flour out of Outagamie county on a few hours notice.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lueckel and daughter Ann returned home after a several days visit at Mankato and St. Paul.

Miss Edith J. Ames entertained a company of 12 friends at her home on Eighth-st. the previous evening. Prizes were won by Miss Ruth Gilman and Miss Celia Stulp.

II Duce Walks on Eggs

LIBRARY ADVENTURES

By Arnold Mulder

AN ARTIST'S QUARREL WITH LIFE

The most successful description I have seen of the kind of feeling that underlies the artistic temperament is found, strangely enough, in a recent mystery story, "The Old, Dark House," by J. B. Priestley. The average run of us are in the habit of laughing at the artistic temperament; it is a common target of the paragraphe and the cartoonist. We seldom come within miles of sensing the bitterness on which it often rests.

Now all of this is probably one hundred percent incomprehensible to the people who have no acquaintance with the artistic temperament, who look upon it as an affectation. They are committed to the gospel that the real pleasure of life consists in the battle — for the business man in his business, for the professional man in his profession. They get a great deal of fun out of life because our civilization is so constituted that they have an opportunity to exercise their real powers. They were born into the right kind of world at the right time — for them.

In a very large number of cases this is not true of the artist. Some of them succeed in combining the artistic with the economic and are at peace, but many more find this impossible. They were born into the wrong kind of world at the wrong time. They have to trim their sails to a kind of life that seems hateful and they are of course unsuccessful, from the very nature of the case.

The young architect in the story by Priestley was like that. He was an architect, not a business man — primarily an artist. His day and civilization required of him to be economical and of course he was uncomfortable. Priestley himself is an artist and probably has the same quarrel with life that he makes his Philip express.

The artistic temperament sometimes is an affectation. More often probably it is a cause for real suffering that would seem incomprehensible most people.

The largest shipment of live black foxes ever to leave Canada, comprising 1000 animals, valued at $550,000 was recently dispatched from King Edward Island to Norway.

During 1924 one in five of the persons who died in the United States died as the result of one of the complications of high blood pressure, either heart failure, brain hemorrhage or uremia.

Of persons dying after 45 years of age, approximately one in three dies of one of the terminal complications of high blood pressure. Methods of recording the blood pressure accurately have been used only during the last twenty-five years. During that time many attempts have been made to determine the cause of high blood pressure, but without success.

Cause or Result? There has been much discussion as to whether chronic inflammations of the kidneys caused the high blood pressure or resulted from it. Even today there are many adherents on both sides of this question.

However, there is a vast amount of evidence to indicate that high blood pressure is not always associated with chronic inflammations of the kidneys, and the great number of cases in which the blood pressure is high without any apparent inflammation of the kidneys is sufficient to cancel the kidney disease as the universal cause.

CORRECTING DEFECTS The physician who discovers the presence of an increased blood pressure is likely to make a complete physical examination of the patient to determine any other defect which may exist in the body, and his first step will be to correct such defects.

Attention is paid particularly to infections of the teeth, of the tonsils, and of various organs in the body which may be the sources of chronic irritation or for the dissemination of infection to other portions of the body.

Today the aphorism in the treatment of high blood pressure is regular hours of work, regular hour of sleep, properly supervised, regular hours of rest, and plenty of rest, and a low diet.

These new Eagle Shirts just received will prove a boom to all men who do not run on the schedule of "early to bed."

See-Sawing On Broadway

BUSINESS EXPERT TELLS THE 'WHY' OF WALL STREET BOOM

Dealers Are Always Looking for "Brighter Prospects" on the Market

There are at least reasonable explanations for the enthusiasm of Wall Street in the face of depression elsewhere.

In the first place, the country is fundamentally prosperous. Despite spotty conditions through the winter in several branches of industry and in certain sections of the country and despite the fact that freight loadings are slightly behind last year's and in the face of other retroactive statistical data of unfavorable significance, business on the whole has been good.

More important still, beneath the surface there has now appeared a psychological undercurrent of business optimism that is not yet definite felt on the outside and has not yet been reflected in the newspaper. Wall-st has sensed it.

UNEMPLOYMENT NOT SERIOUS NOW

Unemployment, if more widespread than recent government figures indicated, is perhaps not so serious as others would have us believe, although it has been a definite condition in the coal regions, in Detroit, to some extent in New York and other sections. But this was all anticipated last fall, at least by Wall Street, so that it is uncertain but a dozen different people around town see a woodpecker has arrived at their house recently.

District presidents will be asked to report to the state convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs at Wisconsin Rapids in October on the work of the clubs which won distinction in their districts and the state awards will be based on these reports.

The federation's department of community service, Mrs. F. N. Spindie, Stevens Point, chairman, is sponsoring the achievement contest which has the approval of Mrs. Edward Hammel, Sheboygan, president of the State Federation.

The fact that the individual clubs have not been aware that such a contest was contemplated is an advantage rather than a disadvantage in the minds of those interested in the movement.

The national recognition given the Women's clubs of Kohler, Wisconsin in a similar contest conducted by the General Federation of Women's clubs prompted the move in Wisconsin to learn of the outstanding records of other clubs in the state many of which may not have participated in the national contest.

Suggestions for making the selections in the districts will be supplied the district presidents soon, the earliest district convention to be held being that of the First District which will be held at Delavan, April 24 and 25.

RAINBOW VETERANS BROADCAST PROGRAM

Rainbow veterans in Appleton were notified Saturday, in a letter received by John E. Hantschel, secretary, that Minnesota Rainbow veterans were to broadcast a program over WCCO, Minneapolis, Minn., at 10 o'clock Monday night. The program is a part of an American Legion celebration in Minnesota. The program Monday night will consist of numbers of interest to Rainbow veterans.

CHARGE FEE FOR USE OF TOURIST CAMP GROUND

The opening of the tourist camp grounds at Alicia park will be deferred until after the new city council is installed and the council committee appointed to act on tourist park problems is appointed by the mayor. Members of the present camp grounds committee feel the season has not advanced far enough to warrant opening of the grounds now. The camp grounds this year will not be free, a small fee being asked to offset expenditures made last year for improvements.

The market has been a special one in that the securities of two classes of companies have been most active—those whose business carry an imaginative appeal to the public and those which have been doing particularly well, such as General Motors. The tendency is discount future prospects has been operative. The technical position of Radio and General Motors also had considerable to do with the surprising upward movement they led. In each case, the amount of floating stock was limited and the law of supply and demand operates effectively in the stock market. There has in fact been a noticeable curtailment in the floating supply of most securities in recent years due perhaps to the fact that people are locking them up to avoid taking profits that will be subject to the prevailing high income taxes.

But what is to my mind perhaps the most important reason for the unusual activity in Wall Street at this time is the fact that there is so much money available for investment—more than at any time in the country's history. Our total income now is computed to aggregate seventy billion dollars annually, and out of these earnings there is estimated to be about eleven billion dollars available for investment of various kinds—more than $35,000,000 daily. Much of it is going into stocks and bonds.

Also, less money is needed to do business than formerly, and business borrowings are relatively less. Profiting by their experience of 1921, companies are maintaining a stronger cash position. Then our credit facilities are more elastic. The net result is that there is more money available for investment than ever before, and people are hurrying to place it.

GENERAL INCREASE IN PRICES
The natural demand for securities is greater, while the floating supply is less, and prices are naturally rising pretty much along the entire list. This is one of the fundamental reasons for the bullish tendency in Wall Street.

All in all, there would seem to be many reasons, or at least participating explanations, for the feverish excitement in Wall Street. Business conditions would seem to be improving and there is reason for optimism. On the other hand, conservative opinion in financial circles would hesitate to say that the feverish activity on the stock market has any special significance, or by any means indicates a banner year. There is certainly no sign of boom yet, and certainly no expectancy of serious depression.

The city of Strasbourg is the capital of the province of Alsace.

There are at least reasonable explanations for the enthusiasm of Wall Street in the face of depression elsewhere.

In the first place, the country is fundamentally prosperous. Despite spotty conditions through the winter in several branches of industry and in certain sections of the country and despite the fact that freight loadings are slightly behind last year's and in the face of other retroactive statistical data of unfavorable significance, business on the whole has been good.

More important still, beneath the surface there has now appeared a psychological undercurrent of business optimism that is not yet definite felt on the outside and has not yet been reflected in the newspaper. Wall-st has sensed it.

District presidents will be asked to report to the state convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs at Wisconsin Rapids in October on the work of the clubs which won distinction in their districts and the state awards will be based on these reports.

The national recognition given the Women's clubs of Kohler, Wisconsin in a similar contest conducted by the General Federation of Women's clubs prompted the move in Wisconsin to learn of the outstanding records of other clubs in the state many of which may not have participated in the national contest.

Suggestions for making the selections in the districts will be supplied the district presidents soon, the earliest district convention to be held being that of the First District which will be held at Delavan, April 24 and 25.

RAINBOW VETERANS BROADCAST PROGRAM

Rainbow veterans in Appleton were notified Saturday, in a letter received by John E. Hantschel, secretary, that Minnesota Rainbow veterans were to broadcast a program over WCCO, Minneapolis, Minn., at 10 o'clock Monday night. The program is a part of an American Legion celebration in Minnesota. The program Monday night will consist of numbers of interest to Rainbow veterans.

CHARGE FEE FOR USE OF TOURIST CAMP GROUND

The opening of the tourist camp grounds at Alicia park will be deferred until after the new city council is installed and the council committee appointed to act on tourist park problems is appointed by the mayor. Members of the present camp grounds committee feel the season has not advanced far enough to warrant opening of the grounds now. The camp grounds this year will not be free, a small fee being asked to offset expenditures made last year for improvements.

The market has been a special one in that the securities of two classes of companies have been most active—those whose business carry an imaginative appeal to the public and those which have been doing particularly well, such as General Motors. The tendency is discount future prospects has been operative. The technical position of Radio and General Motors also had considerable to do with the surprising upward movement they led. In each case, the amount of floating stock was limited and the law of supply and demand operates effectively in the stock market. There has in fact been a noticeable curtailment in the floating supply of most securities in recent years due perhaps to the fact that people are locking them up to avoid taking profits that will be subject to the prevailing high income taxes.

But what is to my mind perhaps the most important reason for the unusual activity in Wall Street at this time is the fact that there is so much money available for investment—more than at any time in the country's history. Our total income now is computed to aggregate seventy billion dollars annually, and out of these earnings there is estimated to be about eleven billion dollars available for investment of various kinds—more than $35,000,000 daily. Much of it is going into stocks and bonds.

Also, less money is needed to do business than formerly, and business borrowings are relatively less. Profiting by their experience of 1921, companies are maintaining a stronger cash position. Then our credit facilities are more elastic. The net result is that there is more money available for investment than ever before, and people are hurrying to place it.

GENERAL INCREASE IN PRICES
The natural demand for securities is greater, while the floating supply is less, and prices are naturally rising pretty much along the entire list. This is one of the fundamental reasons for the bullish tendency in Wall Street.

All in all, there would seem to be many reasons, or at least participating explanations, for the feverish excitement in Wall Street. Business conditions would seem to be improving and there is reason for optimism. On the other hand, conservative opinion in financial circles would hesitate to say that the feverish activity on the stock market has any special significance, or by any means indicates a banner year. There is certainly no sign of boom yet, and certainly no expectancy of serious depression.

The city of Strasbourg is the capital of the province of Alsace.

There are at least reasonable explanations for the enthusiasm of Wall Street in the face of depression elsewhere.

In the first place, the country is fundamentally prosperous. Despite spotty conditions through the winter in several branches of industry and in certain sections of the country and despite the fact that freight loadings are slightly behind last year's and in the face of other retroactive statistical data of unfavorable significance, business on the whole has been good.

More important still, beneath the surface there has now appeared a psychological undercurrent of business optimism that is not yet definite felt on the outside and has not yet been reflected in the newspaper. Wall-st has sensed it.

District presidents will be asked to report to the state convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs at Wisconsin Rapids in October on the work of the clubs which won distinction in their districts and the state awards will be based on these reports.

The national recognition given the Women's clubs of Kohler, Wisconsin in a similar contest conducted by the General Federation of Women's clubs prompted the move in Wisconsin to learn of the outstanding records of other clubs in the state many of which may not have participated in the national contest.

Suggestions for making the selections in the districts will be supplied the district presidents soon, the earliest district convention to be held being that of the First District which will be held at Delavan, April 24 and 25.

RAINBOW VETERANS BROADCAST PROGRAM

Rainbow veterans in Appleton were notified Saturday, in a letter received by John E. Hantschel, secretary, that Minnesota Rainbow veterans were to broadcast a program over WCCO, Minneapolis, Minn., at 10 o'clock Monday night. The program is a part of an American Legion celebration in Minnesota. The program Monday night will consist of numbers of interest to Rainbow veterans.

CHARGE FEE FOR USE OF TOURIST CAMP GROUND

The opening of the tourist camp grounds at Alicia park will be deferred until after the new city council is installed and the council committee appointed to act on tourist park problems is appointed by the mayor. Members of the present camp grounds committee feel the season has not advanced far enough to warrant opening of the grounds now. The camp grounds this year will not be free, a small fee being asked to offset expenditures made last year for improvements.

The market has been a special one in that the securities of two classes of companies have been most active—those whose business carry an imaginative appeal to the public and those which have been doing particularly well, such as General Motors. The tendency is discount future prospects has been operative. The technical position of Radio and General Motors also had considerable to do with the surprising upward movement they led. In each case, the amount of floating stock was limited and the law of supply and demand operates effectively in the stock market. There has in fact been a noticeable curtailment in the floating supply of most securities in recent years due perhaps to the fact that people are locking them up to avoid taking profits that will be subject to the prevailing high income taxes.

But what is to my mind perhaps the most important reason for the unusual activity in Wall Street at this time is the fact that there is so much money available for investment—more than at any time in the country's history. Our total income now is computed to aggregate seventy billion dollars annually, and out of these earnings there is estimated to be about eleven billion dollars available for investment of various kinds—more than $35,000,000 daily. Much of it is going into stocks and bonds.

Also, less money is needed to do business than formerly, and business borrowings are relatively less. Profiting by their experience of 1921, companies are maintaining a stronger cash position. Then our credit facilities are more elastic. The net result is that there is more money available for investment than ever before, and people are hurrying to place it.

GENERAL INCREASE IN PRICES
The natural demand for securities is greater, while the floating supply is less, and prices are naturally rising pretty much along the entire list. This is one of the fundamental reasons for the bullish tendency in Wall Street.

All in all, there would seem to be many reasons, or at least participating explanations, for the feverish excitement in Wall Street. Business conditions would seem to be improving and there is reason for optimism. On the other hand, conservative opinion in financial circles would hesitate to say that the feverish activity on the stock market has any special significance, or by any means indicates a banner year. There is certainly no sign of boom yet, and certainly no expectancy of serious depression.

The city of Strasbourg is the capital of the province of Alsace.

There are at least reasonable explanations for the enthusiasm of Wall Street in the face of depression elsewhere.

In the first place, the country is fundamentally prosperous. Despite spotty conditions through the winter in several branches of industry and in certain sections of the country and despite the fact that freight loadings are slightly behind last year's and in the face of other retroactive statistical data of unfavorable significance, business on the whole has been good.

More important still, beneath the surface there has now appeared a psychological undercurrent of business optimism that is not yet definite felt on the outside and has not yet been reflected in the newspaper. Wall-st has sensed it.

District presidents will be asked to report to the state convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs at Wisconsin Rapids in October on the work of the clubs which won distinction in their districts and the state awards will be based on these reports.

The national recognition given the Women's clubs of Kohler, Wisconsin in a similar contest conducted by the General Federation of Women's clubs prompted the move in Wisconsin to learn of the outstanding records of other clubs in the state many of which may not have participated in the national contest.

Suggestions for making the selections in the districts will be supplied the district presidents soon, the earliest district convention to be held being that of the First District which will be held at Delavan, April 24 and 25.

RAINBOW VETERANS BROADCAST PROGRAM

Rainbow veterans in Appleton were notified Saturday, in a letter received by John E. Hantschel, secretary, that Minnesota Rainbow veterans were to broadcast a program over WCCO, Minneapolis, Minn., at 10 o'clock Monday night. The program is a part of an American Legion celebration in Minnesota. The program Monday night will consist of numbers of interest to Rainbow veterans.

CHARGE FEE FOR USE OF TOURIST CAMP GROUND

The opening of the tourist camp grounds at Alicia park will be deferred until after the new city council is installed and the council committee appointed to act on tourist park problems is appointed by the mayor. Members of the present camp grounds committee feel the season has not advanced far enough to warrant opening of the grounds now. The camp grounds this year will not be free, a small fee being asked to offset expenditures made last year for improvements.

The market has been a special one in that the securities of two classes of companies have been most active—those whose business carry an imaginative appeal to the public and those which have been doing particularly well, such as General Motors. The tendency is discount future prospects has been operative. The technical position of Radio and General Motors also had considerable to do with the surprising upward movement they led. In each case, the amount of floating stock was limited and the law of supply and demand operates effectively in the stock market. There has in fact been a noticeable curtailment in the floating supply of most securities in recent years due perhaps to the fact that people are locking them up to avoid taking profits that will be subject to the prevailing high income taxes.

But what is to my mind perhaps the most important reason for the unusual activity in Wall Street at this time is the fact that there is so much money available for investment—more than at any time in the country's history. Our total income now is computed to aggregate seventy billion dollars annually, and out of these earnings there is estimated to be about eleven billion dollars available for investment of various kinds—more than $35,000,000 daily. Much of it is going into stocks and bonds.

Also, less money is needed to do business than formerly, and business borrowings are relatively less. Profiting by their experience of 1921, companies are maintaining a stronger cash position. Then our credit facilities are more elastic. The net result is that there is more money available for investment than ever before, and people are hurrying to place it.

GENERAL INCREASE IN PRICES
The natural demand for securities is greater, while the floating supply is less, and prices are naturally rising pretty much along the entire list. This is one of the fundamental reasons for the bullish tendency in Wall Street.

All in all, there would seem to be many reasons, or at least participating explanations, for the feverish excitement in Wall Street. Business conditions would seem to be improving and there is reason for optimism. On the other hand, conservative opinion in financial circles would hesitate to say that the feverish activity on the stock market has any special significance, or by any means indicates a banner year. There is certainly no sign of boom yet, and certainly no expectancy of serious depression.

The city of Strasbourg is the capital of the province of Alsace.

There are at least reasonable explanations for the enthusiasm of Wall Street in the face of depression elsewhere.

In the first place, the country is fundamentally prosperous. Despite spotty conditions through the winter in several branches of industry and in certain sections of the country and despite the fact that freight loadings are slightly behind last year's and in the face of other retroactive statistical data of unfavorable significance, business on the whole has been good.

More important still, beneath the surface there has now appeared a psychological undercurrent of business optimism that is not yet definite felt on the outside and has not yet been reflected in the newspaper. Wall-st has sensed it.

District presidents will be asked to report to the state convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs at Wisconsin Rapids in October on the work of the clubs which won distinction in their districts and the state awards will be based on these reports.

The national recognition given the Women's clubs of Kohler, Wisconsin in a similar contest conducted by the General Federation of Women's clubs prompted the move in Wisconsin to learn of the outstanding records of other clubs in the state many of which may not have participated in the national contest.

Suggestions for making the selections in the districts will be supplied the district presidents soon, the earliest district convention to be held being that of the First District which will be held at Delavan, April 24 and 25.

RAINBOW VETERANS BROADCAST PROGRAM

Rainbow veterans in Appleton were notified Saturday, in a letter received by John E. Hantschel, secretary, that Minnesota Rainbow veterans were to broadcast a program over WCCO, Minneapolis, Minn., at 10 o'clock Monday night. The program is a part of an American Legion celebration in Minnesota. The program Monday night will consist of numbers of interest to Rainbow veterans.

CHARGE FEE FOR USE OF TOURIST CAMP GROUND

The opening of the tourist camp grounds at Alicia park will be deferred until after the new city council is installed and the council committee appointed to act on tourist park problems is appointed by the mayor. Members of the present camp grounds committee feel the season has not advanced far enough to warrant opening of the grounds now. The camp grounds this year will not be free, a small fee being asked to offset expenditures made last year for improvements.

The market has been a special one in that the securities of two classes of companies have been most active—those whose business carry an imaginative appeal to the public and those which have been doing particularly well, such as General Motors. The tendency is discount future prospects has been operative. The technical position of Radio and General Motors also had considerable to do with the surprising upward movement they led. In each case, the amount of floating stock was limited and the law of supply and demand operates effectively in the stock market. There has in fact been a noticeable curtailment in the floating supply of most securities in recent years due perhaps to the fact that people are locking them up to avoid taking profits that will be subject to the prevailing high income taxes.

But what is to my mind perhaps the most important reason for the unusual activity in Wall Street at this time is the fact that there is so much money available for investment—more than at any time in the country's history. Our total income now is computed to aggregate seventy billion dollars annually, and out of these earnings there is estimated to be about eleven billion dollars available for investment of various kinds—more than $35,000,000 daily. Much of it is going into stocks and bonds.

Also, less money is needed to do business than formerly, and business borrowings are relatively less. Profiting by their experience of 1921, companies are maintaining a stronger cash position. Then our credit facilities are more elastic. The net result is that there is more money available for investment than ever before, and people are hurrying to place it.

GENERAL INCREASE IN PRICES</b

NEW FASHIONS

A PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

BEAUTY HINTS

Cynics Are Numerous In Our Nation

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

W<sup>E</sup> are becoming a nation of cynics. We stand by and smile mockingly at almost every decent, honest endeavor of other people who are trying to do something for the benefit of mankind.

Usually the cynic is the person who never lifts a finger to help anybody, who scolds a waiter if the rolls are hard and who scolds them if they're soft and blames the Pullman porter for a flat wheel, and bites his wife's head off for everything.

Now the professional cynic is no respecter of persons and he is no respecter of groups either. The chief objects of this scorn are the social club, the uplift society, and the fraternal organizations.

How it delights him to call them Babbitts!

Very well. While this cynical gentleman is sitting at home smoking his selfish cigar or making grand slams at bridge, let us see what his Babbitts are doing.

It is perhaps their weekly dinner night, the night on which each man would rather be at home with his wife and children, but which he sacrifices in order to cooperate with his fellow workers in some charitable or benevolent work.

There is the clinic for crippled children to be discussed, the prize for a scholarship to be awarded, a poor family to be helped, a fellow member in distress. Each meeting brings up its own questions.

Some fraternal organizations take care of their sick and pay insurance after death. Women's organizations are looking after the sick, homeless, and suffering everywhere. The Children's Aid is finding homes for babies. Boy Scouts are doing their good deeds daily and other handsome things too numerous to mention. The Girl Scouts are not idle.

The Salvation Army is bravely and quietly going about its rescue work without hope or desire for reward. Aid societies are doing more than their bit. They were the first to start homes for orphans and homeless girls! All these and more are doing their bit—a big bit. All except Mrs. Cynic!

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BREAKFAST—Sliced oranges, cereal coated with chopped figs, cream, bread crumbs pancakes, new maple syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of asparagus soup, cheese muffins, jellied fruit salad, coconuts.

ONE of the most attractive ways to use bread in a salad is to strip the leaves from the stalks and use them as a border for the other material comprising the "saled." This is done in the dinner salad with finely minced bread sprinkled over the top of the dressing on each serving.

CASSEROLE OF BEEF'S TONGUE—One beef's tongue, 1 cup sliced carrots, 1/2 cup sliced onion, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 1 lemon, 2 cups canned tomatoes, 1 cup sauteed mushrooms (optional but good), 3 slices fat salt pork.

Scald tongue in boiling water for twenty minutes. Drain and remove skin. Place on a bed of sliced fat pork sprinkled with carrot, onion and parsley in casserole. Add boiling water to cover. Add lemon juice. Cover closely and cook in a moderate oven three hours. Remove tongue to hot platter and cut in thin slices without cutting deep enough to separate them. Strain liquid in casserole and add to tomatoes rubbed through a coarse sieve. Heat to the boiling point and stir in 1/2 tablespoons flour stirred to a smooth paste with a little cold water. Bring to the boiling point and boil, stirring constantly for five minutes. Add sauteed mushrooms and pour over tongue.

ETIQUET HINTS

- Upon what should our manners in public be based?
- What is one of the things well-bred persons never do?
- What is one of the first lessons one has to learn to be a success socially?

THE ANSWERS

- Respect for ourselves and consideration of others.
- They never attract attention to themselves by doing, saying or wearing noticeable things.
- Self-restraint.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS—

With some women, staying young is an old habit.

Double Breasted Vests For The Man Of Fashion

Left is a modish ribbed white evening vest with bat's tail lapels and right a black and pearl gray checked wool double-breasted vest with converging buttons and pointed lower edge.

BY CURTIS WOOD

New York—Men are becoming vest-conscious. Evening waistcoats are just too individual and handsome—with unique touches and fine materials. And as for street and business wear, the double-breasted waistcoat is on the "up and up."

Some time ago fashion arbiters, forecasting spring styles for men's wear, touching lightly on the double-breasted waistcoat as perhaps a "dark horse" in the style race. But, as "dark horses" have been known to do before, the double-breasted waistcoat leads all other seasonal style features right now.

AN AID TO STOUT FIGURES Collegiates, business magnates, clerks and flaneurs are insisting on double-breasted waistcoats. There's no denying they give a smart and youthful look of style to the more settled figure as well as the supple one. Men's interest in this new style is indicative, moreover, in their increasing attention to their clothes.

These new waistcoats for street wear and business usually take single-breasted coats with notched lapels. Also the trousers are almost invariably pleated, into the belt, in proper English manner.

For ordinary wear the vest matches the suit. But when it comes to semi-formal wear, the masculine imagination hops off.

The snappiest of the new double-breasted vests come in semi-formal wear. And the trickiest of waistcoats are the new evening ones. There are rolled lapels, lapels with notches high, wide and handsome and even bat's tail lapels that are slightly feminine in their grace.

WIDE CHOICE OF COLOR SCHEMES

The former—those double-breasted waistcoats for informal daytime wear may be of cream colored cashmere, with small or large overchecks of tan and brown, navy and light blue or black and grey, depending on the color scheme Mr. Man picks. One style has its rolling lapels, its dipping front and its buttons all covering in a smart manner. Another has its lapels less rolled, its buttons in a straight line and it's cut straight across the bottom.

Newest of the new is the bat's tail lapel evening waistcoat of some fine white material, such as ribbed silk. The white vest is much snappier than the moire on broaded dark one. The points of the vest dip to further grace and ornamental buttons prove very ornamental in holding it shut.

Daytime's night morning or afternoon, it seems this season that a tricky vest's the thing. And the stylish man will not overlook the double-breasted coat for ordinary wear.

KNOWS HER JEWELRY

Longview, Wash.—Butter-and-egg men know from experience that a chicken loves jewels, but whoever heard of one of the farmyard variety possessing a similar taste?

A hen owned by Mrs. Charles Miller of Castle Rock, Washington, upon being dissected for culinary purposes, disclosed a $250 diamond lodged in her gizzard. Mrs. Miller had lost it several weeks before.

THE TINYMITES

By Hal Cochran

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

THE Timies eyed the funny man and right up to him they all ran. He readily seemed quite friendly, and the Timies weren't afraid. "Well, who are you?" wee Copy said. "And where'd you get that wooden head? I'll bet right in some wood shop is the place where you were made."

"You're right," replied their new-found friend. "I'm made of wood, but I can bend. If it were not for being square, I'd be just like a man. 'Course I can do a lot of things that men can't do. I have big wings. No man I've ever known could fly, but look at me, I can!"

"You bet you can. We've seen you fly," said Scouty, "way up in the sky. I wish that we could fly like that. I know right where we'd go. You see, a bird flew down on us and promptly started quite a fuss. He took poor Clowdy with him. Where they've gone we do not know."

"If we could fly, we'd take to air in the next story."

TWELVE BOOKS-FAVORITES OF ALLENE SUMMER

"I'm so far behind on reading that I don't care whether I read one or two or three-year-old books," writes Mrs. S. "Now I have time to read and don't know where to begin. Would you please list me your favorite dozen novels of the past couple of years if that isn't too big an order?"

It's rather a big order to be held to just a dozen. But here they are in no order as to time or superiority.

"The Old Nick" by Bronson; "Kitty" and "Doomsday" and "Sorrell and Son" by Deeping; "The Brige of San Luis Rey" by Wilder; "Giants of the Earth" by Rolvag; "The Islanders" by Hull; "Time of Man" by Roberts; "The Grandmothers" by Westcott; "The Ugly Duchess" by Feuchtwanger; "Love Is Enough" by Young; "Red Sky at Morning" by Kennedy; "Three Wives" by Seymour; "Red Rust" by Cannon; "Mr. Fortune's Maggot" by Warner; "Winternoon" by Walpole."

SASHES AGAIN

EXQUISITE LINES

Just as simple as the new season demands is a charming dress of Chanel purple flat silk crepe with serape collar with scarf ends and plaited lace cuffs. The fluttering circular skirt is attached to yoke in diagonal line which adds considerable length to silhouette. Separate trimming piece with knot at center fastened at left side of skirt gives the effect of irregular hemline. It is stunning with bodice, yoke of skirt, and sleeves made of the dull side of crepe satin in soft tan shade, with circular skirt, sash, collar and cuffs of shiny surface. Printed silk crepe with collar and cuffs of plain crepe, figured georgette crepe and two tones of flat silk crepe are very chic for Style No. 3414. Pattern in sizes 16, 18 years, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust. Price 15 cents in stamp or coin (coin preferred). Patterns are made by the leading Fashion Designers of New York City and are guaranteed to fit perfectly. We suggest that in ordering your pattern you enclose 10 cents additional for copy of Spring Fashion Magazine. It contains a section of movie-star styles and 100 others, including styles for 'outs, home wear, lingerie, children, etc.

Order Blank for Margot Patterns, MARGOT, Care Appleton Post-Crescent, Appleton, Wis. Inclosed find 15c. Please send me the patterns listed below:

Pattern No. Size Price

Name _____

Street _____

City _____

State _____

Dearest Mom:

Maybe you did read my mind right about Billy and his presents but truth compels me to admit that I was not pulling any wool over my own eyes. I haven't been married very long, 'tis true, but I learned right away that husbands are quick to take advantage of any little excuse for trying to do a Houdini on the ball and chain now and then.

For this reason I've got to drop out. But it isn't because there's anything wrong in his beautiful affection for me. It's a sacrifice I've got to make to Alan's ridiculous jealousy. As you say I can't insist that he keeps his record clean as a dutiful husband unless I break with Billy. But it isn't fair. Billy thinks I'm a saint. And I'm sure that any girl who calls a man "Old Fart" isn't thinking of him in saintly terms. So, to put a stop to that affair I've got to wound the feelings of a darling boy who is as harmless as a baby. It's perfectly disgusting but what's the use? Alan can't see that it isn't a fifty-fifty proposition at all.

Now I think I've been pretty honest about my motive. But I can't yet see that it isn't more harmful for Alan to get letters from a girl who is old enough to know what she is doing when writing to a married man than for me to receive little notes from a boy who's passing through that stage where flappers bore him.

I've told Billy that Florence is older than she really is and that I think she is secretly married. That ought to intrigue him, don't you think? If they fall hard enough for each other maybe Billy'd forget me and Florence'd forget Kenneth Gates. Everything would be taken care of.

I'm going down in a little while to meet Florence at the station. Billy's going to drive the car for me because I can't get through the traffic in that part of town. Besides I want him and Florence to meet when they isn't an audience around to interfere with their getting acquainted. I can't ask him to the apartment unless there's

Royal Countess Works In Tin In New York Shop

COUNTESS ANNA MANGALES WORKER HER SALVATION WITH HER FINGERS

BY JULIA BLANSARD

NEA Service Writer

New York—A quaint little French lantern, with gay flowers twining around its white lattice work, was the beacon light that showed a former European court lady that one way to comparative peace and happiness can be found by working with one's fingers.

In a sunny room in the Park-avenue home of the Princess de Braganza, the Countess Anna Mangales now spends busy days fashioning lovely metal flowers that she makes into candelabra, wall-brackets, table bouquets and little French lanterns—very decorative things that are quietly finding their way into some of the most famous Newport's villas and other homes where authentic period interiors are appreciated.

Formerly the Countess was lady-in-waiting to Little Marie Adelaide, Grand Duchess of Luxembourg. Well-born Marie, the daughter of a Russian nobleman and a famous Bavarian diplomat, the Countess' earliest memories are of the pomp of European courts, the dash of royal hunts, the discipline of court etiquette.

TRAVELED ALL OVER EUROPE

As lady-in-waiting to a prospective ruler, she traveled all over Europe, being entertained in court; she spent hours studying with the young Marie Adelaide, riding, playing tennis, strolling in the woods and gardens of the palace—a full, satisfactory, happy life.

Then was traveled Europe. She was even busier then, helping her 18-year-old Grand Duchess run a children's hospital, managing other hospitals for wounded soldiers. Then came peace—later, revolution. The Grand Duchess abdicated, entered a convent, contracted typhoid fever and died.

"There seemed nothing left to live for," the countess' brave blue eyes falter as she passes quickly over this a party going on. Maybe Alan will kick even then but if Florence is any kind of a fast worker she'll soon have Alan sympathizing with me.

I thought I'd see what Florence can do before I tell Billy everything is off. Don't want to break his heart if it isn't necessary.

Lovingly, MARYE.

NEXT: Alan remonstrates.

(Copyright, 1928, NEA Service, Inc.)

Dearest Mom:

Maybe you did read my mind right about Billy and his presents but truth compels me to admit that I was not pulling any wool over my own eyes. I haven't been married very long, 'tis true, but I learned right away that husbands are quick to take advantage of any little excuse for trying to do a Houdini on the ball and chain now and then.

For this reason I've got to drop out. But it isn't because there's anything wrong in his beautiful affection for me. It's a sacrifice I've got to make to Alan's ridiculous jealousy. As you say I can't insist that he keeps his record clean as a dutiful husband unless I break with Billy. But it isn't fair. Billy thinks I'm a saint. And I'm sure that any girl who calls a man "Old Fart" isn't thinking of him in saintly terms. So, to put a stop to that affair I've got to wound the feelings of a darling boy who is as harmless as a baby. It's perfectly disgusting but what's the use? Alan can't see that it isn't a fifty-fifty proposition at all.

Now I think I've been pretty honest about my motive. But I can't yet see that it isn't more harmful for Alan to get letters from a girl who is old enough to know what she is doing when writing to a married man than for me to receive little notes from a boy who's passing through that stage where flappers bore him.

I've told Billy that Florence is older than she really is and that I think she is secretly married. That ought to intrigue him, don't you think? If they fall hard enough for each other maybe Billy'd forget me and Florence'd forget Kenneth Gates. Everything would be taken care of.

I'm going down in a little while to meet Florence at the station. Billy's going to drive the car for me because I can't get through the traffic in that part of town. Besides I want him and Florence to meet when they isn't an audience around to interfere with their getting acquainted. I can't ask him to the apartment unless there's

Doctor Found What is Best for Thin, Constipated People

As a family doctor at Monticello, Illinois, the whole human body, not any small part of it, was Dr. Caldwell's practice. More than half his "calls" were on women, children and babies. They are the ones most often sick. But their illnesses were usually of a minor nature—colds, fevers, headaches, biliousness—and all of them required first a thorough evacuation. They were constipated.

In the course of his 47 years' practice (he was graduated from Rush Medical College back in 1875), he found a good deal of success in such cases with a prescription of his own containing simple laxative herbs with pepsi. In 1892 he decided to use this formula in the manufacture of a medicine to be known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi, and in that year his prescription was first placed on the market.

The preparation immediately had as great a success in the drug stores as it previously had in his private practice. Now, the third generation is using it. Mothers are giving it to their children who were given it by their mothers. Every second of the working day someone somewhere is going into a drug store to buy it. Millions of bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi are being used a year.

Its great success is based on merit, on repeated buying, on one satisfied user telling another. There are thousands of homes in this country that are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi, and we will send you prepaid a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.

from grateful people telling us that it helped them when everything else failed.

Every drug store sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi. Keep a bottle in your home—where many live someone is sure to need it quickly.

We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi can mean to you and yours. Just write "Syrup Pepsi," Monticello, Illinois, and we will send you prepaid a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.

PARTIES

SOCIAL AND CLUB ACTIVITIES

MUSIC

Name New President Of A. A. U. W.

MISS CARRIE MORGAN was elected president of the American Association of University Women Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Frank, 921 E. College-ave. Other officers selected for next year, which begins in October were Miss Ruth Mielke, vice president; Mrs. H. H. Heller, secretary; Mrs. F. F. Wheeler, corresponding secretary; Miss Dorothy Mae Fenton, treasurer.

Why Go to College was the subject of a talk given by Mrs. George Banta, Jr., at the meeting, at which 36 girls who are members of the senior class at high school were guests. Among the reasons given by Mrs. Banta for attending college were the value of associations made, cultural background, the development of a sense of loyalty, of independence, and an incentive to go deeply into things. Mrs. Banta also made a plea for young people of today and asked for tolerance in regard to them.

Miss Elizabeth Wilson will speak on Some Aspects of the International Federation of University Women at the next meeting the second Saturday in May at the home of Mrs. J. S. Reeve, 212 N. Green Bay-st.

LARGE CROWD AT DE MOLAY PARTY

John F. Rose chapter, Order of DeMolay, held a dancing party Saturday night at Masonic temple. Ninety couples attended the party. An exhibition was given by the Oshkosh drill team and Robert Neller gave a ventriloquist act. Interpolation service was at 10 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Lacer Horton, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pugh and Mr. and Mrs. H. Heller were the chaperones. Guests from Neenah and Oshkosh were present.

There will be a meeting of the chapter at 7:30 Thursday night at which time the initiatory degree will be conferred and there will be installation of officers. The local chapter will be host to the district conclave of DeMolay on May 12 at the temple.

PARTIES

An All-Masonic card party for all women affiliated with the Masonic order will be given at 2:30 at 7:30 Saturday afternoon at Masonic temple. Mrs. G. R. Rohan is chairman of the committee in charge and Mrs. E. F. Harris and Mrs. W. Witte are members of the committee. Bridge will be played and prizes will be given.

Mrs. Max Schiedermayer, 48 E. Sherman-Bl., entertained a dinner at 6 o'clock Sunday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Greunke, who will leave for Europe in May. Mr. and Mrs. Greunke expect to be gone about six months. Covers were laid for 12 guests at the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Decker, 617 W. Atlantic-st., entertained a group of relatives and friends Sunday in honor of their son, Emmett, who was confirmed Sunday. Cards and music provided entertainment for the guests and dinner and supper were served. Those present were Mrs. Margaret Decker, Mrs. Martin Stiegel, son Joseph, and Mrs. John Striegel, son Jesus Joseph of Appleton. Mr. and Mrs. John Decker, and sons, Mr. and Mrs. William Kohl and family, Grand Chute; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Decker of Oshkosh; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kury of Darboy; the Misses Edna Tesch, Alma Mueller of Neenah; Raymond Tesch, Arnold Burmeister, Cleo.

Mrs. Edwin Arndt, N. Fair-st., entertained a group of friends at five hundred Sunday evening. The prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. John Wehrman. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. John Mulder.

CLUB MEETINGS

The Line o' Nine club met at the home of Miss Viola Behnke, 536 N. Bateman-st on Friday evening. Routine business and plans for reorganization were discussed. The club will meet next Friday evening at the home of Miss Margaret Franck, 1014 W. Franklin-st.

The Women's Benefit association will meet on Wednesday evening at the Appleton Woman's club rooms. Routine business will be discussed.

Mrs. A. J. Pfankuch, S. Cherry-st. will be hostess to members of the General Review club at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon at her home. Mrs. Elmer O'Keefe will present the program.

NEW PRESIDENT

THREE SPEAKERS AT MEETING OF C. E. SOCIETY

Miss Ruth Meyer was the leader at the meeting of Christian Endeavor society of First Reformed church Sunday evening at the church. Gerald Franz discussed Crusading with Christ through World Evangelism. Miss Ruth Brandy discussed Crusading with Christ through World Peace and the third aspect of the topic, Crusading with Christ through World Citizenship was discussed by Miss Tillie Jahn.

A report of the talk given by Dr. D. A. Poling, one of the speakers at the coming Christian Endeavor convention, at a meeting at Cleveland last year was given by Miss Emma Kippenham.

CARD PARTIES

Group No. 1 of St. Theresa church will hold an open card party at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. April 25 at the parish hall. Bridge, schafkopf, dice, and plumpack will be played. Mrs. George Kessler is captain of the group and Mrs. Albert West is assistant captain.

Thirty nine tables were in play at the open card party given by Delta chapter, Employees Mutual Benefit Association, Saturday night at Odd Fellow hall. Prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. H. W. Miller, Miss Mable Ross and Mrs. William Toll. Schafkopf winners were Patrick Ferguson, F. Wirtz, Mrs. R. Schroeder and Mrs. F. Fredericks. Mrs. V. Forster and Mrs. R. McCarter won the prizes at dice. Members of the committee for the party were Mrs. Frank Sommer, Mrs. E. Kotz, Mrs. Percy Widstrom, Mrs. E. Williamson, Mrs. H. Meyer, Mrs. G. Leinenhus, Mrs. W. Darrow, Mrs. J. E. Fowler and Mrs. H. Fum-

Teachers and officers of the Memorial Presbyterian church will meet at 7:30 Tuesday evening at the manse. A business meeting will be held. Harold Heller is superintendent of the Sunday school.

There will be a meeting of All Saints Auxiliary at All Saints Episcopal church at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Luthe Moore, 122 N. Union-st. Regular business will be followed by a social meeting.

Plans were made for the church picnic of St. Matthew church in June at Pierce park, at a meeting of the Ladies Aid society on Thursday afternoon at the church. Mrs. A. Schultz and Mrs. G. Glander will be in charge of the picnic.

The officers and teachers of the Sunday school of Trinity English Lutheran church will meet at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Bridge, schafkopf and dice will be played, prizes will be given and a lunch will be served.

Nineteen tables were in play at the All Masonic card party Friday evening at Masonic temple. Mrs. David Smith, Mrs. Earl Weiternau, Glen W. McRoy and James Wagg won the prize at bridge and J. T. Gillespie and James Nelson won the prizes at schafkopf. Members of the social committee for the party were Mrs. E. B. Morse, Mrs. James Taylor, Mrs. Frank Hammer, and Miss Josephine Loveland.

An open card party will be given by the Parent-Teachers Association of the Woodland school at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the school. Schafkopf and dice will be played.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

Group No. 3 of First Baptist church will sponsor a concert played by a 20 piece orchestra composed of high school students assisted by five conservatory students at 8:15 Tuesday night at the church. E. C. Moore will direct the orchestra. Miss Alice Gilligan is chairman of the group.

Thirty five members attended the meeting of the Baptist Young People union Sunday evening at First Baptist church. How may One Become a Christian was the subject of discussion. Miss Myrtle Trentlage was the general leader and those who took part in presenting the topic were Miss Ethel Stellman, Miss Josephine Jacobson and Harold Eads.

Miss Lucretia Zimmerman announced a meeting of all members who are to take part in a sketch to be presented in connection with the topic for next Sunday evening. Should a New Christian Join the church? The members of the Baptist Young People Union of Green Bay and Neenah will be guests of the local union at a party Friday evening at the church. Miss Linnea Johnson, chairman of the social committee, will be in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Edwin Arndt, N. Fair-st., entertained a group of friends at five hundred Sunday evening. The prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. John Wehrman. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. John Mulder.

Revolution in China will be the subject of the program by the Baraca class of the First Congregational church at the evening meeting of the Women's Association of First Congregational church on April 24. Divisions 12 and 5 will be the hostesses. The chairman of the divisions are Mrs. L. Eushey and Mrs. H. J. Ingold. Devotionals will be lead by F. J. Harwood. Husbands of members are invited to the supper at 6:30 and the evening meeting which will follow it. Members of the association will meet for sewing in the afternoon.

Victors was the subject discussed at the meeting of Christian Endeavor society of Memorial Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Newton Walther led the meeting which was attended by 18 members. A piano solo was played by Miss Annette Heller.

PARTIES

SOCIAL AND CLUB ACTIVITIES

MUSIC

Sixty "Pro" Women Hear Talk By Field Secretary

MISS RUTH RICH, field secretary of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women gave the principal address Saturday night to 60 business and professional women of Appleton, Neenah and Green Bay at the Concourse hotel.

In tracing the progress of women during the last 25 years the speaker pointed out that women always have been in business that at the present time it is just a question of greater numbers of women engaged in business. The change of attitude, and the granting of suffrage are two reasons assigned to the increased number of women in business field.

The history of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women was outlined during the talk and among the results accomplished was greater opportunity for women due partly to the vast amount of publicity secured by the organization. Last year 3,000 columns of newspaper publicity alone was accorded the federation.

One outstanding statement Miss Rich made was the opinion Mary Dillon, head of a utility corporation in the east. She quoted Miss Dillon as saying, that marriage stabilizes the woman in business just as it stabilizes men.

Initiative, self expression, assurance are gained by members of the business and professional women's club believes Miss Rich, who also believes that these characteristics gained through contact with other business women and through conducting an organization, carry over into the business world.

The educational program of the federation was discussed and an example of a club selling itself to the community on the strength of its educational program alone was described. One half million dollars has been loaned, not given, to girls to finish school by the national federation.

Other speakers at the meeting were Miss Leora Westlake, who gave a history of the Wisconsin federation and spoke on the state convention at La Crosse and Miss Clara Mae Ward who also stressed the value of conventions and urged members to attend.

Decorations for the dinner were in yellow and green. Miss Janet Curness, Miss Mary Voeks and Miss Romona Huesman played during the dinner hour. Community singing, accompanied by Mrs. Elsie Foor, was led by Miss Clara Mae Ward, head of the music department of the state normal school at Eau Claire. Mrs. Sylvia Hettl, president of the club, presided.

The club will hold its monthly business meeting Tuesday night. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock at the Appleton Women's club. There will be election of officers and election of delegates to the state convention at La Crosse.

WOMEN GOING TO GREEN BAY FOR MEETING

Officers for the coming year will be installed by Elks at their regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening at Elk hall. The evening's session will begin with a concert by the Elk band at 6:15 and will be followed by a dinner at 6:30. Installation of officers will be preceded by the regular business meeting and followed by a report from the bowling banquet committee. The annual bowling banquet will be held next month.

Members and friends of Fraternal Reserve association will be entertained at a dancing party Tuesday night at Odd Fellow hall. Schultz orchestra will play for dancing which will begin at 8 o'clock. Arthur Kob is chairman of arrangements.

Guest day will be observed at the meeting of the Women of Mooseheart Tuesday afternoon at Moose temple. The party will be for members of the club and wives of members of Loyal Order of Moose and their friends. Bridge, schafkopf and dice will be played. Mrs. Wilbur Hauer will be chairman of the arrangements.

An open card party will be given by the Parent-Teachers Association of the Woodland school at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the school. Schafkopf and dice will be played.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

There will be a meeting of Waverly Lodge, No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Moose temple. Master-mason degree will be conferred.

LETTER GOLF

THE ANSWERS
Here is one solution to the LETTER GOLF puzzle on page 2.

R	I	V	E	R
L	I	V	E	R
L	I	V	E	R
L	I	V	E	R
L	A	K	E	S

PREPARE CHURCH BAZAAR BOOTH

Mrs. Edward C. Deichon is chairman of the committee which will decorate the booth for the bazaar which will be held at Trinity English Lutheran church Thursday. The committee, composed of Mrs. R. C. Beutling, Mrs. E. Fauth, Mrs. August Bluhm, and Mrs. Gust Tesch, will meet at 7:30 Monday evening to decorate the booth and at 7:30 Wednesday night to mark the sales articles. There will be a meeting of the kitchen and dining room committees Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Ratzman, 802 N. Oneida-st. Mrs. Ratzman will have charge of the kitchen and Mrs. R. Krabbe will have charge of the dining room, on the day of the sale.

DELEGATES OFF TO CONVENTION

Mrs. Georgia Ashman and Mrs. F. G. Wheeler have gone to Washington to attend the national convention of Daughters of the American Revolution as delegates of the local chapter.

Miss Ashman left Friday evening and was joined Sunday by Mrs. Wheeler.

The proposed county zoning ordinance and the proposed $250,000 road bond issue, matters laid over from the February session, are the most important subjects to come before the board.

THREE NEW SUPERVISORS TAKE SEATS TOMORROW

Three new supervisors chosen at the spring election two weeks ago will take their seats Tuesday afternoon when the county board gathers at the courthouse for the opening session of the spring meeting. The new August Linke succeeding Anthony McClone from the town of Deer Creek; William Powers succeeding Jacob Lummerberg from the Third ward; Kukukuna; Max Stretch succeeding A. P. Andersen, Fourth ward, Kukukuna.

The proposed county zoning ordinance and the proposed $250,000 road bond issue, matters laid over from the February session, are the most important subjects to come before the board.

WANT SCOUT TROOPS TO HELP REFORESTATION

The Fox river valley council of Boys Scouts has received a letter from F. G. Wilson, extension forester for the state of Wisconsin, instructing the council to procure land to be used for reforestation. Twenty to thirty scouts are to be chosen to plant trees on this land and to care for them during the year.

CALUMET COUNTY

KAUKAUNA - LITTLE CHUTE - KIMBERLY

NEARBY TOWNS

ELK BOWLERS ROLL
INTO FIRST PLACE
IN STATE TOURNEYElectric City Squad Knocks
Over 2,897 Pins to Take Lead at Waukesha

Kaukauna—Kaukauna bowlers at last came into their own after waiting nearly the entire season. Electric City squad of Elks rolled into first place in the Elks state bowling tournament at Waukesha on Sunday with a score of 2,897. Members of the squad are F. Minkebege, P. A. Smith, Lester Smith, William Johnson and Amay Bayegeon. The Kaukauna team, however, displaced Milwaukee team.

Not content with this glory, H. Minkebege dropped a pin until he had a total of 1,872 pins, for all events, only a couple behind first place. It was good for second. Amay Bayegeon and his partner, Minkebege, rolled 1,196 in doubles and took fourth place. W. Johnson hit the maple for a 642 count and fourth place in the singles while Minkebege rolled 635 for sixth place in the same.

The Kaukauna Volsteads, the other local team participating in the tournament, rolled 2,021 in the team event. Members of this outfit were P. H. McCarty, Joseph Jansen, M. H. Nielsen, John Coppers and William Van Lieshout.

MISS ADA ROHM OF KAUKAUNA IS BRIDE

Kaukauna—Miss Ada Rohm, daughter of John Rohm, and Wilbur Foerster, both of this city, were married at 12 o'clock Saturday at Immanuel Reformed church. The Rev. E. L. Worthman performed the ceremony and the attendants were Miss Luella Rohm of Milwaukee, a cousin of the bride, and Howard Foster, Corp., of Kaukauna, a nephew of the bridegroom. A reception followed the ceremony at the bride's home. And a wedding dinner was served to 35 guests.

Miss and Mrs. Foerster left on a wedding trip to New York. On their return they will live with the bride's father, John Rohm. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Foerster of Ripon, Mr. and Mrs. W. Brown of Appleton and Miss Helena Corp and Marvin Thoson of Mauston.

CHANGE MEETING NIGHT OF PAPER MILL CLASS

Kaukauna—The pulp and paper making class of Kaukauna Vocational school will meet in the vocational school building at 7 o'clock Wednesday night of this week instead of Tuesday evening, the usual meeting night. Gilbert Hill of the Gilbert Paper Co. of Menasha will deliver a lecture on The Fourdrinier Machine. Only one other meeting will be held after this one.

Social Items

Kaukauna—A regular meeting of St. Agnes court of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will be held in the north side Forester hall on Tuesday evening. Officers will be installed. A covered dish party will precede the installation of officers at 7 o'clock. Members will bring sandwiches besides their usual covered dish.

Electric City chapter of DeMolay will hold its regular meeting on Thursday evening in the Masonic hall. The initiatory degree will be exemplified.

THE BROTHEROOD OF ANDREW AND PHILIP OF IMMENFELD REFORMED CHURCH MET ON FRIDAY EVENING. A SMOKER FOLLOWED A SHORT BUSINESS MEETING.

INSTALL OFFICERS OF KAUKAUNA MOOSE LODGE

Kaukauna—Mayor W. C. Sullivan of this city and Norton Williams of Neenah were the principal speakers at the installation of officers of Kaukauna Moose Lodge at the high school auditorium on Sunday afternoon. Earl Bates of Appleton was the installing officer. Officers installed were Arthur Vandenberg, dictator; Clarence Kastell, vice dictator; F. Wenzel, past dictator; Norman Gerhart, secretary; M. Weber, treasurer and F. Towsey, T. Lelek and C. Fein, trustees. A banquet was served at Moose hall at 6 o'clock. About five hundred attended the installation ceremony. Music was furnished by the Kaukauna Moose band.

SHOW MOVIE FILM

Kaukauna—The film "The Only Way" was shown at Brokaw Memorial Methodist church on Sunday evening as part of the usual Happy Sunday evening program. Rev. T. Parker Hiborne, the church pastor, delivered a short address and the usual illustrated songs were sung.

OPEN SIDEWALKS

Kaukauna—A crew of men plowed the sidewalks of the city following the snow storm. Joseph Kuehne, south side street commissioner, has charge of one plow and Thomas Beanson, north side street commissioner, the other.

The lower house of the Irish Free State parliament is known as the Dail Eireann.

The Post-Crescent's representative at Kaukauna is Gordon Patton. His telephone numbers are 298 J and 10. Business with The Post-Crescent may be transacted through Mr. Patton.

HIGHEST RENT GOES UP
PARIS—the highest renters in Paris have to pay more rent. For 40 years the owners of the Eiffel Tower have paid but $200 a year on the land where the tower stands. The council plans to raise this amount, wherefore the radio operators who work on the little top platform almost 1,000 feet high will find their rental increased by the owning company.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT OF FORMER CHILTON MAN

Special to Post-Crescent
Chilton—The engagement of Miss Elizabeth Deibler of McAllister, Okla., and John Kroehnke of Chicago, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Kroehnke of this city has been announced. Miss Deibler is a senior in the university of Wisconsin, and a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, while Mr. Kroehnke graduated from the university in 1926, and is a member of Delta Sigma Pi fraternity. Both were guests at the Kroehnke home last week.

Miss Alice Mortimer visited friends in Fond du Lac during the past week. County Judge H. F. Arps left Kansas City on Wednesday to try a case in probate court.

W. S. Lloyd of Appleton spent several days in this city visiting old friends.

Mrs. Frank Tesch and daughter, Miss Gertrude, went to Milwaukee on Thursday to visit relatives for several days.

Miss Josephine Koch visited friends in Elkhart Lake Thursday.

Lester Hippke spent several days in this city the past week at the A. S. Hippke home.

Mrs. Emma Kaczorek of Kiel visited the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Minahan Thursday.

Guido L. Weber was at Waukesha Wednesday to attend a stock sale.

Mrs. Fred Roske, who has spent the winter with her daughter Mrs. Wm. Schnell, left for Milwaukee this week for an indefinite stay.

Miss Marie Kersten of New London visited at the William Scabach home during the past week.

Harold Groetzinger came up from Chicago to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Groetzinger for several days.

Frank Teich spent several days at Waukesha during the past week.

Miss Margaret Einoff of Milwaukee visited her aunt Miss Elizabeth Einoff during the past week.

Mrs. William Paulsen and sister, Miss Anna Magnusson, who spent the past week visiting their sister, Mrs. E. A. Lange in DePere, returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Julia Stahl visited relatives in Milwaukee and Adell the past week.

Mrs. C. D. Klumb is visiting relatives in Milwaukee.

Miss Lucia Sturm of Milwaukee visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Haner for a few days.

Mrs. George Meyer went to Green Bay Thursday to visit her mother, Mrs. William Rau, who is a patient in St. Vincent's hospital, where she is recovering from a serious surgical operation. Mr. Rau also visited his wife during the week.

Louis Siegrist of this city purchased the electrical stock of Edward Thieszen in Hilbert, and the store will be under the management of Kenneth Edens, who left for Hilbert this week.

A. W. Butterfield, who recently accepted the position of prescription clerk in the J. C. McGrath drug store, has rented rooms in the Juchem home on Madison St. and will keep house there. Mr. and Mrs. Butterfield have been making their home in Fond du Lac.

Edward Bonk went to Chicago Wednesday to sell two car loads of beef steers. Mr. Bonk, manager of the Chilton Canning company, purchased the steers in Omaha shortly before Christmas and since then they have been fattened on the Canning company's farms. For some years past the Canning company has been fattening western cattle as a complementary industry.

The public schools of the city reopened Monday after a week's vacation.

150 PIGEONS IN FIRST RACE OF THIS SEASON

Kaukauna—About 150 birds belonging to members of the Kaukauna Pigeon club flew in the preliminary twenty-five mile race from Ne. London Sunday morning. The birds were released by the express agent at that city. Most of the birds returned to their respective lots. No timing was done for this race. Next Sunday the birds will be shipped to Wisconsin Rapids for another preliminary trial.

KAUKAUNA PERSONALS

Kaukauna—Edward Whiteman and family moved to a farm in the town of Holland on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henessey of Green Bay were visitors in this city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Cairns of Chicago are spending a few days in Kaukauna with relatives.

Horace Griswold of Green Bay moved to Kaukauna Sunday to visit with relatives.

John Kircher of Green Bay visited relatives in this city Sunday.

3 COUNTIES BID FOR NEW FISH HATCHERY

Kaukauna—When Louis E. Nagler, state conservation director, and E. O. Webster, superintendent of fisheries, went with Matt Patterson, head clerk in the conservation commission offices to Burlington recently, they found Racine, Kenosha and Walworth counties all making strong bids for the fish hatchery to be located in one of the three counties.

Twelve sites for the hatchery, which was proposed by the 1927 legislature, were set forward by the county representatives. Rivalry between the counties is reported here to be keen.

The legislature appropriated $10,000 for erection of the hatchery. The conservation officers are to give their recommendations regarding a site for the hatchery to the conservation board at its April 27 meeting in Waukesha.

HIGHEST RENT GOES UP

PARIS—the highest renters in Paris have to pay more rent. For 40 years the owners of the Eiffel Tower have paid but $200 a year on the land where the tower stands. The council plans to raise this amount, wherefore the radio operators who work on the little top platform almost 1,000 feet high will find their rental increased by the owning company.

Difference Between Brothers In Politics
Shown By Wisconsin And Virginia Stories came back, their sidecars loaded with weapons.

"We traded hams for guns," they explained. • • •

In 1920, Hoover returned to the United States on the crest of world-wide fame and admiration. A popular and commanding figure arose for his election to the presidency but, not being a politician, he muffed it by being unable to decide whether he was a Republican or a Democrat. He finally announced himself as a Republican, but his indecision had killed his chances with both parties.

President Harding appointed Hoover as secretary of commerce, then a comparatively unimportant post but almost immediately Hoover began making a big job out of a little one. He needed more trained assistants, and being unable to afford them out of his appropriation from Congress, he hired them and paid them out of his own pockets—which he still does today.

TOMORROW: The Mississippi valley flood.

PRIZES FOR ESSAYS ON HIGHWAY SAFETY

MADISON—(AP)—The state highway commission has announced to Wisconsin schools a national essay contest in which $6,500 in prizes are to be given for fine writing on highway safety.

The brothers were born in Bremen, Germany, and came to America in 1883. They went to the University of Wisconsin together and were law partners for eight years after their graduation, until the mysterious quarrel ended their friendly relationship. Edward is 54; Charles is two years younger.

is a story of six hundred million dollars spent for supplies, of ports being reopened and railroads restored, of the resumption of industry in factories, of the return to agriculture and always the grim fight against diseases. Once typhus reared its ghastly head in Eastern Europe and claimed 600,000 cases, but an organized campaign succeeded in reducing this to 10,000 cases in six months.

There were difficulties to be met and obstacles to be overcome.

Vienna was starving. The Italians had tried to send food but the trains had been blocked at the frontier. Red tape prevented. Up came a train of American doughboys. This train went ahead and on into Vienna—with one of the doughboys holding a pistol against a protesting official's head.

As an organizer and relief director he fed the starving multitudes of Belgium and occupied France, not with loaves and fishes but with $1,400,000,000 that his semi-official commission raised in America and other countries. He was U. S. food administrator in 1917. In 1918 he introduced "Meatless Tuesdays," and "Wheatless Wednesdays," and the like. And directing all this great work of organization was one man who sat at a desk in Washington and occasionally went out in the late afternoons to build dams with his two boys in the tiny streams of Rock Creek park.

Well, it worked. The 200,000,000 bushels, saved at American tables, went forward for export according to schedule. Countless other cargoes of food followed across the Atlantic and the flow continued until the war ended.

The war came to a close, but Hoover's job did not. Instead he faced even a bigger task.

The war left Europe practically bankrupt, without food and without money. Countless millions were facing starvation in the general chaos of disorganized misery that marked the wake of the great conflict. Much of Europe tottered on the edge of bolshevism and ruin.

A man was needed—a man who was equal to the gigantic task—and that man was Hoover. And so President Wilson sent him to Europe to head the newly-organized Allied Relief Administration.

Poland, Germany, Austria, Jugoslavia, Rumania, Czechoslovakia, Estonia, Finland, Lithuania, Latvia and Armenia with their starving multitudes came under Hoover's wing. For more than a year Hoover wielded more power in Europe than any man on earth.

The rest of that story is history. It

But that job was only a prelude. Belgium, overrun by German armies, was in grave danger of starvation. An American living in Brussels went to London and appealed to Hoover for aid. At the same time, the Belgian ambassador in London appealed to the American ambassador, who likewise suggested Hoover. Hoover accepted; he chucked his private business affairs and went to work for humanity.

By October, 1914, he had a skeleton organization set up and receiving contributions, well on the way toward the gigantic task of feeding 8,000,000 hungry people. Then he appealed to the allied governments, and enlisted their contributions.

Before long the Belgian Relief Commission was spending $17,000,000 a month, $10,000,000 of which came from France and England and the rest from private contributors, mostly in the United States. The commission had a fleet of 70 cargo ships. It flew its own flag, issued its own passports and maintained an organization of 50,000 workers in Belgium and occupied France.

In those days, Hoover was the one man in the world who could come and go wherever he pleased, without asking anyone's permission, even through the German lines.

It was a tremendous job. Hoover, after the war, admitted it.

"There was never a time," he said, "when our finances were certain for 60 days ahead, or when our contracts did not exceed our assets by anywhere from $5,000,000 to $20,000,000."

In its four years of existence, Hoover's commission spent upwards of $1,400,000,000. The administration expense never averaged more than one-half of one per cent.

The record that he made in Belgium caused President Wilson, in 1917, to Their teachers will write on "Objectives and methods of education in street and highway Safety." The latter essays are limited to 1,000 to 3,000 words. These essays are to be in the nature of suggested lessons for

The school teacher winning the competition will receive $500 and a trip to Washington. Other prizes are divided on a national and state basis.

The contest is under the auspices of the Highway Education Board.

Drunkenness
Is a Disease!

The Liquor or Drug User Should be Pitied Rather Than Blamed

Most persons misunderstand the real reason for alcoholic addiction. They say it is due to lack of will power on the part of the drinker. Others say it is downright depravity. But they are wrong.

Alcoholism is as much a disease as any other. It is a physical ailment as such. Today with the aid of trained medical experts and the World Famous Keeley Treatment and the Keeley Institute, men and women in all walks of life are recovering.

The campaign was bitter. Edward announced that he "stood on his record," and said nothing about his brother. But Charles accused Edward of having been pro-German during the war, and asserted that he did not have enough knowledge of law to fill a judgeship capably.

The brothers were born in Bremen, Germany, and came to America in 1883. They went to the University of Wisconsin together and were law partners for eight years after their graduation, until the mysterious quarrel ended their friendly relationship. Edward is 54; Charles is two years younger.

is a story of six hundred million dollars spent for supplies, of ports being reopened and railroads restored, of the resumption of industry in factories, of the return to agriculture and always the grim fight against diseases. Once typhus reared its ghastly head in Eastern Europe and claimed 600,000 cases, but an organized campaign succeeded in reducing this to 10,000 cases in six months.

There were difficulties to be met and obstacles to be overcome.

Vienna was starving. The Italians had tried to send food but the trains had been blocked at the frontier. Red tape prevented. Up came a train of American doughboys. This train went ahead and on into Vienna—with one of the doughboys holding a pistol against a protesting official's head.

As an organizer and relief director he fed the starving multitudes of Belgium and occupied France, not with loaves and fishes but with $1,400,000,000 that his semi-official commission raised in America and other countries. He was U. S. food administrator in 1917. In 1918 he introduced "Meatless Tuesdays," and "Wheatless Wednesdays," and the like. And directing all this great work of organization was one man

PEABODY ATTENDS RACIAL RELATIONS
MEET AT CHICAGO

Congregationalist Leaders
Make Study of Situation at Mid-West Metropolis

Dr. H. E. Peabody, pastor of the first Congregational church, was one of the denomination's leaders who attended a four day seminar on race and church and racial relations held last week under the auspices of the Congregational Education society. The meetings were held at Hull house, Chicago, and Miss Jane Adams, founder of the social center, delivered the opening address.

Both white and negro speakers addressed the gatherings over the four day period discussing Negro problems. Each of the speakers was a man who had intimate connection with the question he was discussing.

Visits were paid by the groups to the Chicago Negro business centers, Negro churches, the Savoy ballroom, and the Regal theater, both of which are places of entertainment frequented entirely by the Negro race.

The more practical side of the program was the discussion of Negro education, the physical basis of racial achievement, the hospital phase of inter-racial relationships, the Negro and the arts, the Negro's contribution to literature, the Negro in politics, the brotherhood of sleeping car porters, and the Negro in the courts and in religion.

During the discussion on the hospital phase of inter-racial relationships, it was brought out that more than nine-tenths of Chicago hospitals refuse the admittance of Negroes regardless of the severity of their illness or the fact that they need immediate attention following an accident which might prove fatal in more than a few minutes elapses before treatments can be given.

STAGE And SCREEN

"RAMONA" Dolores Del Rio's first United Artists starring production is the feature attraction at the Elite for 4 days starting today.

Director Edwin Carewe, who presents the picture in association with Inspiration Pictures, Inc., feels that no finer vehicle could have been chosen for Miss Del Rio's debut than Helen Hunt Jackson's immortal American love classic. As the halfbreed girl, the sensation of "What Price Glory" and "Resurrection" is said to have the finest opportunity her cyclonic career has yet given her.

In the supporting cast of featured players are found such artists as Warner Baxter, Roland Drew, Vera Lewis and Michael Visaroff. The first because of characterizations in "Aloma of the South Seas" and "The Great Gatsby," needs no introduction. Drew is a young protege of Carewe. "Ramona" gives him his first real part. Miss Lewis carved herself a neat little niche of fame in "Resurrection." Carewe's picturization of the Tolstoy novel, in which Miss Del Rio appeared as the heroine. As for Visaroff, he is a continental actor who will soon be heard from on this side.

Finally, Fox, Mr. Carewe's brother, prepared the scenario just as he did the "Resurrection" screen play. Robert B. Kurrie supervised the camera work on "Ramona," having Al. M. Greene as his assistant. Jeander De Cordova and Richard Easton aided the director. Jeanne Spencer acted as film editor. The Tex Art Studios designed the beautiful settings.

For those few who are not familiar with "Ramona"—it is now in its 92nd edition—it should be noted that "Ramona" is a tale of love in nineteenth century California. It is a story of white men's greed. It is the romance of a halfbreed girl and her Indian lover. In bringing the Jackson novel to the screen, Carewe has done something decidedly worthwhile.

Tonight at Fischer's Appleton Theatre, John D. Winninger Co., to open their engagement in

"IF I WAS RICH"

A comedy in three acts by William Anthony McGuire.

THE CAST
(In the order in which they speak)
James Sterling . . . . . Robert Blakeslee
Henry King . . . . . B. K. Mercer
R. Murray Pembroke Howard Stillman
William Donov . . . . . Frank Dane
Elizabeth McCull . . . . . Winnifred Brewer
John Spelvin . . . . . John D. Winninger
Ruth Sterling . . . . . Minet Winninger
Harold Rogers . . . . . E. E. Douglas
Beatrice Van Ness . . . . . Elsie Steig

Tillie Buttler . . . . . C. R. Montgomery
Lieutenant Spalding . . . . . Lew Silvers
Lillian Pembroke . . . . . Margaret O'Brien
Mrs. Peggy Burton . . . . . Kathryn Van Esse
George Hildreth . . . . . Ray Beckley
Synopsis of Scenes

Act 1: James Sterling's Apartment.
Act 2: Villa Rosa. The Pembroke home on Long Island. A few days later.

Act 3: The same as Act 1. A few days later.
This rollicking speedy comedy has been selected by the Winninger Players to start their engagement in Appleton. It is considered to be one of the season's best laugh makers.

HINT CATLIN WILL SEEK SENATE SEAT

Madison Writer Says Appleton Man Will Go After John Englund's Job

Political dopesters at Madison and Milwaukee are forecasting the entrance of Mark Catlin, Appleton, in the race for state senator in opposition to John Englund, Wittenburg present senator from the fourteenth district which includes Outagamie and Shawano cos. Mr. Catlin formerly was state assemblyman.

Mr. Catlin is much encouraged over the large vote cast by regular republicans and he believes the result of the recent primary election augers well for the result he may be able to obtain in the September primary election, according to a Madison writer. John Englund is a LaFollette Progressive Republican.

The Madison writer states Mr. Englund has about decided to be a candidate for renomination. Anton M. Miller, Kaukauna, will not be in the race from present indications, it is believed, but will be a candidate for renomination to the assembly from the second Outagamie-co district, which he now represents.

TRIES TO DRIVE TWO CARS ON ONE LICENSE

Thomas Cochrane, 26 Sherman pl. was fined $10 and costs by Judge Theodore Berg in municipal court Monday morning when he pleaded guilty of driving an automobile without proper license plates. Cochrane was arrested Friday by Sergeant Mathew McGinnis. It was alleged that Cochrane was driving two automobiles on one set of plates.

Frank St. Andrews, 1835 S. Outagamie st., left Monday for Rochester Minn., where he was to take medical treatments at the Mayo Brothers Clinic.

$157,000 LEFT IN CITY SCHOOL FUND

Board Hopes to Have Enough Money to Carry on Until Next Tax Collection

Appleton schools have $157,621 to carry them through the remainder of the year.

have been forced to borrow money pending tax collections to carry through from late fall to Feb. 1, the usual end of the collection period. An effort now is being made to arrange school finances so that the schools can carry through to tax collection time without borrowing money.

Dance at Watty's Hall,
Little Chute, Tues. night. Music
by Wis. Entertainers.

4--Days Starting--4
TODAY

Mat: 2:00 & 3:15 10c & 25c
Eve. 7:00 & 9:00 35c

FISCHER'S APPLETON THEATRE

STARTING WITH THE BIG LAUGH HIT
JOHN D. WINNINGER PLAYERS Present
"IF I WAS RICH"

Today's Photoplay Attractions Before The Stage Play Only
PAT O'MALLEY — GLADYS HULETTE
— in —
"A BOWERY CINDERELLA"

News

Complete Change of Scenery, Stage Plays and Photoplays Daily
— PLAYS THAT SOLD FOR $3.00 AND UP ON BROADWAY — BROUGHT TO YOU AT POPULAR PRICES

TUESDAY "Is Zat So" WEDNESDAY "Cradle Snatchers" THURSDAY "Butter and Egg Man" FRIDAY "My Country"

MAT.
10c-15c MAJESTIC EVE.
10c-15c

NOW SHOWING
Surging Spirit of Youth!
Intriguing Secrets!

The First Call of Love!

BY THE WORLD'S GREATEST WRITER OF LOVE SORRIES

Laura Jean LIBBEY'S
"A POOR
GIRL'S ROMANCE"

The Great Heart of LAURA JEAN LIBBEY warms every foot of this smashing big story of young love!

SEE IT NOW!

Gloudemans-APPLETON, WIS.
Gage Co.

"The Best Place to Shop — After All"

Save In Our Sanitary Grocery.
Phone 2901 — Free Delivery

CREAM LOAF FLOUR
49-Pound Sack	$2.10
98-Pound Sack	$4.15
Per Barrel	$8.25

Tomatoes, Dameron's brand, No. 2 cans, each . . . . . 10c
Sugar Corn, "Red Star", No. 2 cans, 2 for . . . . . 25c
Sauer Kraut, Hamilton's fancy quality, 2-lb. cans, 2 for . . . . . 25c
Coffee, fancy quality Rio, per lb. . . . . 31c
Evaporated Milk, Van Camp's, tall cans, each . . . . . 10c
Peanut Butter "Plymouth", 1lb. jar . . . . . 25c
Dessert Tapioca, "Monarch" brand, 8 oz. pkg. . . . . 13c
Mince Meat, "Monarch" brand, 9-oz. pkg. . . . . 15c

Instant Postum, 8-oz. tin . . . . . 39c

Postum Cereal, pkg. . . . . 21c

TELMO Fine Products
The TELMO brand is a complete assurance of Superior quality and packing. Save money by buying the best at moderate prices!
Asparagus Tips, Natural, 15-oz. tin . . . . . 40c
Spinach, new crop, 18-oz. cans, each . . . . . 20c
Hawaiian Pineapple, finest quality, sliced, No. 2½ cans, each, 6 cans for . . . . . $1.92

"Monarch"
Pork and Beans. Packed in fine, rich tomato sauce, 18-oz. cans each—

10c

Dried Peaches, fancy quality peeled California in 2-pound sealed boxes, per box . . . . . 48c
Dried Peaches, fancy quality Muir in bulk, per lb. . . . . 23c
Kellogg's Corn Flakes, large pkgs., 2 for . . . . . 25c
"Rye-Crisp" large packages, each . . . . . 40c

KARO Blue Label Syrup
5-lb. pail . . . . . 28c
10-lb. pail . . . . . 56c

A great syrup for cakes, candies, and a wonderful bread spread for hungry kids. Absolutely pure and of wonderful appetizing flavor.

ELITE THEATRE

DOLORES DEL RIO

in Helen Hunt Jackson's American Love Classic

'RAMONA'

Warner Baxter, Vera Lewis, Roland Drew and Michael Visaroff

Millions have read the book! Millions will live the romance on the screen! See "RAMONA"! Dream with her! Thrill with her! Love with her! It's adorable Dolores at her best!

BIJOU
TONITE - 10c - 15c
"Leaders Nite"

Feature Photoplay —

OLIVE BORDEN

in
"THE JOY GIRL"

The gayest picture of modern youth and modern love you've ever roared at!

You will laugh your head off at the way she gets her man.

Don't Miss This Special Program —
2 Stage Shows — 7 and 9 — Come Early!

MIDWESCO THEATRES —

Neenah

Neenah, Wis.

Constance TALMADGE

in

"BRAKFAST AT SUNRISE"

A spicy slice of gay Paris! It shows Constance at her dazzling best in a picture you'll remember for days and days!

Comedy — "LIMOUSINE LOVE"

Screen Oddity

Orpheum

Menasha, Wis.

Tues. & Wed.

ESTELLA TAYLOR

— TONITE —

Comedy Riot

"BRINGING UP FATHER"

— LADY RAFFLES —

A picture for the whole family, baffling and mystifying.

SUITS

made to your individual measurement from choice woolens, in exclusive patterns, look better, fit better, wear better. Our assortments of fine imported worsteds, saxonies, cassimeres, and flannels, in the new spring colors, are now ready.

GEO. GRIESHABER
TAILOR
318 E. College Ave. Tel. 379

Once Upon A Time

there were no classified ads, but that was long before we reached our present degree of civilization.

If you can't figure it out for yourself, see if a Classified ad can do it for you.

PHONE 543

FRISCH GETS THIRD HOMER AS CARDINALS DOWN BRUINS

Sherdel Halts Chicago With Six Hits To Give St. Louis 4-3 Victory

Card Second Baseman Hits Safely Nine Times in Fourteen Trips to the Plate

Frankie Frisch, Cardinals' second baseman who was the fielding sensation in the majors last season, threatens to distract some of the batting laurels from Messrs Ruth, Gehrig, et al, in the present pennant races. Away to a vigorous start, the former Giant star hit his third home run Friday which aided in the St. Louis victory over the Cubs, 4 to 3. Frisch also cracked a triple with one aboard in the seventh, which produced what proved to be the deciding run.

In the four games played thus far, Frisch has hit safely nine times in fourteen trips to the plate, scored seven runs himself and batted in eight runs. Pitcher Sherdel stopped the Cubs with six hits, one of which was a homer by Gabby Hartnett. Sherdel also contributed a circuit smash.

PIRATES FINALLY WIN

Pittsburgh broke into the winning ranks for the first time of the 1928 campaign, the Reds falling victims by 3 to 2. Cincinnati made six safeties off the combined efforts of pitchers Dawson and Hill. In the ninth, Granham doubled off Jablonowski, who had relieved Luque, to drive Wright across with the needed margin.

At New York, the Giants rapped three Philadelphia twirlers for 12 hits to hang up an 8 to 1 decision. Frank O'Dowd had a big day with the McGrawmen blazing out with a pair of doubles and a homer. Andy Cohen and Jackson belted for the route as well.

Brooklyn dropped Rogers Hornsby and the Braves, 3 to 2. Southpaw Clark of Terre Haute shading Dutch Brandt, recruit from the Pacific coast in a pitchers' battle. Clark limited the Boston warriors to six hits while Brandt yielded seven.

WATCH THE BROWNS

Fans are remembering the advice of President Barnard of the American League: "Watch the Browns." Sam Gray stopped the White Sox after six scattered hits while the Howleyans of St. Louis galloped off with their fourth straight by a score of 4 to 1.

Through some sparkling pitching from Josh Billings, Detroit took the Indians into camp, 8 to 2, thumping Brown and Buehke for ten safeties. Billings held the Cleveland batters to five hits.

Goose Goslin featured in the Washington triumph over the Red Sox, 6 to 5, by hammering out a home run in the third inning with two runners on the paths. It was Marberry's second victory on the mound in as many starts.

The Philadelphia Athletics romped off with a 9 to 7 verdict over the Newark Internationals in an exhibition Ruth and Gehrig connected with a circuit wallop apiece as the Yankees tripped up the Baltimore Orioles 5 to 2.

BREWERS SHOVED INTO CELLAR IN A. A. RACE

Chicago—(AP)—Kansas City was perched alone atop the American Association heap Monday as a prize for its 3 to 2 victory over Columbus at the Ohio capital Sunday.

Lyon held the Blues to eight hits. Indianapolis was knocked into second place by St. Paul when Betts held the Hoosiers to seven scattered hits and shut them out 15 to 9.

The win put the Saints into third place, ahead of Columbus and Louisville, tied for fourth. The colonels, De Berry pitching, shut out Minneapolis 5 to 0.

Toledo climbed out of the basement by defeating Milwaukee 7 to 4, pushing the Brewers down to the bottom with Minneapolis.

SHERDEL BREAKS BAT MARK OF KIKI CUYLER

Chicago—(AP)—When "Wee Willie" Sherdel of the St. Louis Cardinals turned back Kiki Cuyler without a safety Monday, he broke the slugging Cub outfielder's record of poling a hit in every game since the exhibition season started.

May Do It Again

Six times in the past seven years, American entries have won the British open golf championship. Walter Hagen and Bobby Jones won the title twice in that time. Jock Hutchinson started it in 1921, Hagen in 1922 and 1924, Jim Barnes in 1925 and Jones in 1926 and 1927. A. G. Havers, a Britisher, won it in 1923.

How They Stand

TEAM STANDINGS

American Association

W. L. Pct.

Kansas City ..... 5 0 1.000

Indianapolis ..... 3 2 .750

St. Paul ..... 3 2 .600

Columbus ..... 3 3 .500

Louisville ..... 3 3 .500

Toledo ..... 1 3 .250

MILWAUKEE ..... 1 4 .200

Minneapolis ..... 1 4 .200

National League

W. L. Pct.

New York ..... 3 0 1.000

St. Louis ..... 3 1 .750

Brooklyn ..... 3 1 .750

Cincinnati ..... 3 2 .600

Chicago ..... 2 3 .400

Philadelphia ..... 1 2 .333

Pittsburgh ..... 0 3 .250

Boston ..... 0 3 .000

American League

W. L. Pct.

St. Louis ..... 4 0 1.000

New York ..... 2 0 1.000

Cleveland ..... 3 1 .750

Washington ..... 3 1 .750

Boston ..... 1 4 .250

Philadelphia ..... 0 2 .000

Chicago ..... 0 3 .000

SUNDAY'S RESULTS

American Association

TOLEDO 4, MILWAUKEE 4.

St. Paul 5, Indianapolis 0.

Kansas City 3, Columbus 2.

Louisville 5, Minneapolis 0.

National League

St. Louis 4, Chicago 3.

Pittsburgh 3, Cincinnati 2.

New York 8, Philadelphia 1.

Brooklyn 3, Boston 2.

American League

Washington 6, Boston 5.

St. Louis 4, Chicago 1.

Detroit 8, Cleveland 2.

Only games scheduled.

MONDAY'S SCHEDULE

American Association

MILWAUKEE AT TOLEDO.

Kansas City at Columbus.

St. Paul at Indianapolis.

Minneapolis at Louisville.

National League

Chicago at St. Louis.

Pittsburgh at Cincinnati.

Boston at Brooklyn.

Philadelphia at New York.

American League

St. Louis at Chicago.

Cleveland at Detroit.

New York at Boston.

Washington at Philadelphia.

GANZEL INHERITS HIS ABILITY AS BALL STAR

Washington—If there is anything in heredity, and there must be something in this case, it is easy to understand why Foster Ganzer is a major league ball player.

The young outfielder with the Washington Senators is the son of a former major leaguer, had an uncle who was in the major leagues, and three brothers were quite nifty in semi-pro circles.

His father, Charles Ganzer, was a big league catcher in the late nineties, reaching the height of his career in 1898. He played with Detroit, Philadelphia and Boston. He died in 1914.

His uncle is still active in baseball, being a present manager of the Laurel club in the Cotton States League. The club is a farm of the St. Louis Cardinals. Ganzer played with Clark Griffith in New York.

Young Ganzer is only 24 years old and reached the Senators late last summer after a great season in the Southern League. He played in 13 games for the Senators and batted .437. He is playing regularly this year and shows prospects of a long career.

HELEN WILLS FLASHES OLD FORM IN WORKOUT

New York—(AP)—Flashing her old time skill, Miss Helen Wills, national women's tennis champion, impressed a gallery at the West Side Tennis club during her first workout in the east since she captured her laurels at Forest Hills last year.

Miss Wills defeated Elmer Griffin, former Californian, in a practice match Sunday, 2-6, 10-8, 6-4. Her forehand whip was as demoralizing as it was in 1927 and her backhand a strong weapon of attack.

“OIL” SMITH LOST TO PIRATES WITH INJURY

Pittsburgh, Pa.—(AP)—Earl Smith, chattering backstop of the Pittsburgh Pirates is lost to the team for at least ten days. A badly sprained leg tendon and ruptured blood vessel caused him to be sent here from Cincinnati to recover.

Smith was injured Saturday when he attempted to field a bunt laid down by Dresen.

FEAR DEATH OF FRIEND MAY HALT MITT CAREER

Champaign, Ill.—(AP)—Friends of Les Marinier, slugging University of Illinois professional heavyweight boxer, were apprehensive Monday lest the death of his chum, Fred M. Bobzin, 21 year old Chicago student, would ruin his fighting career.

Marinier sparred with Bobzin Saturday. After the bout, Bobzin died in a hospital.

A coroner's jury absolved Marinier from blame.

THINKS HE WILL WIN

"If I didn't think I had a good chance to win I wouldn't be here," Jim Barnes told British golf writers when he arrived in England to start practice for the British open. Barnes, one of the six American entries who have won the last seven tournaments, copied the prize in 1926.

Ohio State with a better four-mile team than it had last year should give Indiana, a big ton opponent, a keen battle in that event. The Hoosier quartet is the favorite in the event but is certain to meet real opposition from Ohio State and several other strong combinations.

In the special events Ohio State will have two men in the hammer throws, three in the 400 meter hurdle race, three in the hop, skip and jump and four in the 120 yard high hurdles, all on Friday. On the second day,

APPLETON COUPLE TAKES EIGHTH IN ELK PIN TOURNAMENT

Jacobson and Johnston Roll 1,175 Score for High Place in National Event

An Appleton team composed of F. T. Johnston and W. C. Jacobson crashed into eighth place in the doubles of the Elks National Bowling tournament Sunday at Louisville, Ky., with a score of 1,175. Jacobson led the way with games of 210, 195 and 215 for a 620. Johnston started with 194, but fell to 158 in his second game which lost the Appleton men a higher rating in the standings. He closed with a 203 for a 555. One other Appleton doubles team went over the 1,000 mark, C. Currie and F. Fries, with a 1,036. The tourney for 1929 was awarded to St. Louis late Sunday.

Appleton scores:

Doubles:

Johnston 184, 158, 203; Jacobson

210, 195, 215, 1175. C. Currie 159, 165, 200; F. Fries 161, 179, 172, 1036. W. Fries 146, 160, 145, R. Stark 132, 207, 153, 943.

Singles:

F. Johnston 176, 202, 175, 554;

W. C. Jacobson 206, 159, 171, 536;

C. Currie 172, 186, 151, 519; F. Fries

181, 171, 213, 565; W. Fries 204,

172, 149, 180; Stark 188, 184, 180, 552.

Team event:

Appleton Elks

F. Fries 245, 162, 201, 608

C. Currie 159, 200, 176, 571

W. Fries 146, 145, 176, 467

F. Johnston 134, 183, 198, 513

W. Jacobson 197, 190, 148, 585

Totals ..... 917 880 897 2694

VIKINGS POSTPONE LAKE FOREST MEET

Lack of Outdoor Practice Caused by Snowfall, Changes Date

When the snow started falling Friday evening after Lawrence college track and field athletes had had just three days of outdoor practice this season, and those in extra poor weather for outdoor work, it resulted in a postponement of the first Viking meet of the year. The Lawrence team was to meet Lake Forest in a dual meet at Lake Forest next Saturday, but the three days of lack of real outdoor work and the prospect that the snow will continue to cover the track for several days this week, caused the change.

Latest reports have it that the meet will be postponed until the first or second Monday in May. The next meet for the Blue will be a dual meet with Oshkosh Normal school here on April 28, which will give the home fans their first chance to see the 1928 Viking machine in action and speculate on prospects for the year.

The Vikings appear to have as strong a team as any in the state and perhaps in the Midwest conference in the track events but it is in the field that the Blue lacks power. All of the first-place winners in field events last year have graduated and Denny's only hope is that his trackmen can pile enough points to win the meets for the Blue if the weightmen come through with seven or third and fourths. In a dual meet this proposition is not so good and is liable to lose to the Vikings.

Wills, a blond bantam, showed a wicked wallop and beaucoup intestinal fortitude when he was sent out to Tim—old-time trainer and second of fighters in the finish scrap days—for tutelage. He's hitting as hard or harder. And in addition, he's ringwise.

NEHF'S RETURN TO FORM CHEERS CUBS

Veteran Southpaw Would Round Out Great Hurling Corps

New York—(AP)—The bairish movement in Chicago Cub stock that followed the injury to home-run Hack Wilson has been checked by the sensational return to left-handed pitching form of Arthur Nehf.

If the veteran southpaw's exhibition in blanking Cincinnati is any criterion of what may be expected from him this season the Cubs won't have many pitching worries. They already have a sharpshooting corps of right-handers, led by Charley Root.

Nehf was a big factor in McGraw's pennant triumphs with the Giants a few years ago after he had been purchased from the Boston Braves for about $5,000. The Terre Haute twirler was particularly handy to have around when the Pirates were threatening. He usually had the well-known Indian sign on the Bucs.

Three years ago Art's arm went back on him and he was shipped to Cincinnati in 1926. He didn't help the Reds a bit and was unconditionally released last year. The Cubs, desperately in need of pitching help, signed the veteran last September. But his record for the last two years shows a grand total of only four victories and seven defeats.

Ever since they sold Alexander "down the river" the Cubs have been badly in need of an old pitching hand or two for rough pennant weather. Nehf will fill the gap nicely if he keeps coming back.

FEW LEFTIES LEFT

Since such stars as Rube Marquard, Nap Rucker, Wilbur Cooper, Jim Vaughn, Hooks Wiltse, Nehf and Rixey have either passed out of the picture completely or at least passed their prime, the National League's left-handed talent hasn't been much to write home about.

The older circuit hasn't produced any porters in recent years to match the American League crop that includes such aces as Herb Pennock, Mose Grove, Rube Walberg, Joe Shauta, Tom Zachary, Earl Whitehill and some up and coming youngsters. This group has been carrying on where Rube Waddell and Eddie Plank left off.

The National has few first class southpaws and Brooklyn has three of them—Petty, Elliott and Clark. Willy Sherdel of the Cardinals is an old reliable and Nehf will help lift the portside prestige, if he continues the way he started. The Reds have a capable leftie in Jackie May while the Giants have a youngster of sensational promise in Will Walker.

The Pirates won the National League flag last year without a southpaw on their roster worth mentioning and are working under the same handicap this season.

BARNEY JOHNSON OUT

The National has few first class southpaws and Brooklyn has three of them—Petty, Elliott and Clark. Willy Sherdel of the Cardinals is an old reliable and Nehf will help lift the portside prestige, if he continues the way he started. The Reds have a capable leftie in Jackie May while the Giants have a youngster of sensational promise in Will Walker.

The Pirates won the National League flag last year without a southpaw on their roster worth mentioning and are working under the same handicap this season.

Political Forecast Is That All Records for Campaigning Will Be Broken

Milwaukee—(AP)—Having disposed of the task of selecting its representatives in nominating presidential candidates, Wisconsin faces the busiest six months of political activity in four years.

A presidential year always brings politics into the foreground, and nowhere is this more true than in Wisconsin where state officers, members of the legislature and congressmen are elected simultaneously with the president of the United States.

Politicians give promise of making Wisconsin's summer months hot with their activity. Both parties will nominate their candidates for state offices, congress and the legislature in a primary in September, with the election following in November.

By rolling up a big vote the democratic party which has been slumbering for years, showed it was a factor to be reckoned with seriously in Wisconsin this year. They are expected to capitalize upon the presidential race with the hope that a strong presidential nominee will carry the rest of the state.

The state must elect the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general and treasurer, one United States senator, eleven congressmen, half of the state senators and all members of the assembly.

While early for the campaign to get underway, several men are avowed candidates.

Senator Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., who stepped in to fill his father's shoes upon his death in 1925, is assured of the support of Progressives for re-election.

LaFollette's popularity was demonstrated in the delegate fight when he received approximately 150,000 votes to lead the field in the delegate-at-large fight.

The state must elect the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general and treasurer, one United States senator, eleven congressmen, half of the state senators and all members of the assembly.

While all assemblymen will be elected, the seats of only 16 of the 33 state senators are at stake. The other 17 were elected two years ago and have two years to serve.

Some of the most prominent senators of both factions have filled out their four year terms. Those whose terms expire are: Second district, John B. Chase, Oconto; 4th, Oscar H. Morris, Milwaukee; 8th, Harry B. Daggett, Milwaukee; 10th, Walter H. Hunt, River Falls; 16th, Axel Ruffing, Milwaukee; 17th, J. H. Carroll, Gladwin; 14th, John Englund, Wittenberg; 17th, Edward J. Roethe, Fennimore; 18th, William A. Titus, Fond du Lac; 20th, Herman E. Boldt, Sheboygan Falls; 22nd, George W. Hull, White-water; 24th, William L. Smith, Neillsville; 26th, Harry E. Sauthoff, Madison; 28th, Herman T. Lange, Eau Claire; 30th, James A. Barker, Antigo, and 32nd, V. S. Keppel, Holman.

EXTENDED PAYMENT OF TAXES CAUSING DELAY

The apparent long time being taken in the collection of personal property taxes by police officers is caused by the month's extension for paying tax from Jan. 31 to Feb. 21, according to Fred Bachman, city treasurer.

The officers are not spending any more time on the work than usual, he said.

They often find it necessary to visit homes several times before they find anyone home.

SAY REAL ESTATE MAN WAS WITHOUT LICENSE

Ervin Hageman, Manawa, was bound over for trial on May 9, on a charge of selling real estate without a license, by Judge Fred V. Henneman in municipal court Friday afternoon following his preliminary hearing.

Bonds of $150 were furnished Hageman, who was arrested about a month ago on complaint of August Martin, Shiocton farmer, who alleged Hageman sold him property in the town of Bonoma on Nov. 1, 1926, without a realty dealer's license.

While he was endorsed by the state

Progressive conference for governor, Congressman Joseph D. Dele, of Viroqua has not said yet whether he would enter the race.

He made a tour of the state during the spring, speaking for the Progressive candidates for delegates to the Republican national convention.

He has said little, however, concerning his own intentions.

There was one report that he had withdrawn from the race but this was denied by Progressive headquarters.

The large vote received in the primary election, which surpassed the record of many years, has led to hopes of a Democratic renaissance.

The Wisconsin followers of Jeffersonian principles, who acknowledge John M. Callahan and Otto Laubude of Milwaukee as their leaders, nurture the hope that the party may sweep to victory in both the state and the nation.

In a statement this week, Mr. Laubude, who is the chairman of the state central committee, extended the peace peace and urged all factions to smoke it.

Party harmony suffered somewhat in the primary when the leadership of the state health department. She will be assisted by Miss Klein and Miss Raether, state health nurse.

Most Versatile Player

Jimmy Dykes, with the Athletics, is believed to be the most versatile player in the big leagues. He played every position except that of catcher last year with the Macks.

Jim to Eddie Morgan

When Eddie Morgan played football in Chicago several seasons ago as a member of the Tulane Greenies, he was hurt. A few days ago, as an out-fielder for the Cleveland Indians, he went to Chicago to make his major league debut—and was hurt again.

NURSE WILL ASSIST AT PRE-SCHOOL CLINIC

Miss Marie Klein, county nurse, will assist at a pre-school clinic in the city hall at Seymour, Thursday, April 19. All children of pre-school age in that district will be examined without charge. Examinations will be made by Dr. Eleanor Hutchinson of the state health department. She will be assisted by Miss Klein and Miss Raether, state health nurse.

WHERE THE BREMEN RETURNED TO EARTH

A typical hamlet on the Labrador coast, near where the trans-Atlantic plane Bremen landed is Battle Harbor, shown in the above picture. These isolated settlements, which dot the coast of the sparsely inhabited country, are occupied mostly by fishermen, and often are ice-bound from September until late in April. Battle Harbor is only a short distance from Greenly Island where flyers landed.

This map shows the route followed by the German airplane in the first east to west crossing of the Atlantic ocean.

BADGER POLITICIANS GETTING READY FOR SUMMER OF ACTIVITY

Political Forecast Is That All Records for Campaigning Will Be Broken

Milwaukee—(AP)—Having disposed of the task of selecting its representatives in nominating presidential candidates, Wisconsin faces the busiest six months of political activity in four years.

A presidential year always brings politics into the foreground, and nowhere is this more true than in Wisconsin where state officers, members of the legislature and congressmen are elected simultaneously with the president of the United States.

Politicians give promise of making Wisconsin's summer months hot with their activity. Both parties will nominate their candidates for state offices, congress and the legislature in a primary in September, with the election following in November.

While all assemblymen will be elected, the seats of only 16 of the 33 state senators are at stake. The other 17 were elected two years ago and have two years to serve.

Some of the most prominent senators of both factions have filled out their four year terms. Those whose terms expire are: Second district, John B. Chase, Oconto; 4th, Oscar H. Morris, Milwaukee; 8th, Harry B. Daggett, Milwaukee; 10th, Walter H. Hunt, River Falls; 16th, Axel Ruffing, Milwaukee; 17th, J. H. Carroll, Gladwin; 14th, John Englund, Wittenberg; 17th, Edward J. Roethe, Fennimore; 18th, William A. Titus, Fond du Lac; 20th, Herman E. Boldt, Sheboygan Falls; 22nd, George W. Hull, White-water; 24th, William L. Smith, Neillsville; 26th, Harry E. Sauthoff, Madison; 28th, Herman T. Lange, Eau Claire; 30th, James A. Barker, Antigo, and 32nd, V. S. Keppel, Holman.

EXTENDED PAYMENT OF TAXES CAUSING DELAY

The apparent long time being taken in the collection of personal property taxes by police officers is caused by the month's extension for paying tax from Jan. 31 to Feb. 21, according to Fred Bachman, city treasurer.

The officers are not spending any more time on the work than usual, he said.

They often find it necessary to visit homes several times before they find anyone home.

SAY REAL ESTATE MAN WAS WITHOUT LICENSE

Ervin Hageman, Manawa, was bound over for trial on May 9, on a charge of selling real estate without a license, by Judge Fred V. Henneman in municipal court Friday afternoon following his preliminary hearing.

Bonds of $150 were furnished Hageman, who was arrested about a month ago on complaint of August Martin, Shiocton farmer, who alleged Hageman sold him property in the town of Bonoma on Nov. 1, 1926, without a realty dealer's license.

While he was endorsed by the state

Progressive conference for governor, Congressman Joseph D. Dele, of Viroqua has not said yet whether he would enter the race.

He made a tour of the state during the spring, speaking for the Progressive candidates for delegates to the Republican national convention.

He has said little, however, concerning his own intentions.

There was one report that he had withdrawn from the race but this was denied by Progressive headquarters.

The large vote received in the primary election, which surpassed the record of many years, has led to hopes of a Democratic renaissance.

The Wisconsin followers of Jeffersonian principles, who acknowledge John M. Callahan and Otto Laubude of Milwaukee as their leaders, nurture the hope that the party may sweep to victory in both the state and the nation.

In a statement this week, Mr. Laubude, who is the chairman of the state central committee, extended the peace peace and urged all factions to smoke it.

Party harmony suffered somewhat in the primary when the leadership of the state health department. She will be assisted by Miss Klein and Miss Raether, state health nurse.

Most Versatile Player

Jimmy Dykes, with the Athletics, is believed to be the most versatile player in the big leagues. He played every position except that of catcher last year with the Macks.

Jim to Eddie Morgan

When Eddie Morgan played football in Chicago several seasons ago as a member of the Tulane Greenies, he was hurt. A few days ago, as an out-fielder for the Cleveland Indians, he went to Chicago to make his major league debut—and was hurt again.

NURSE WILL ASSIST AT PRE-SCHOOL CLINIC

Miss Marie Klein, county nurse, will assist at a pre-school clinic in the city hall at Seymour, Thursday, April 19. All children of pre-school age in that district will be examined without charge. Examinations will be made by Dr. Eleanor Hutchinson of the state health department. She will be assisted by Miss Klein and Miss Raether, state health nurse.

Quits Diamond for Ring

Jack Smith, a huge catcher who tried out with the New York Yankees last year, has given up baseball for the present and is trying to be a prize fighter. He works as "Yankee Jack." He has beaten a couple of hams.

Strain Runs to Filius

The strain of Guy McKinney, the world's fastest living trotting stallion seems to run to the female issue. His first six foals were all fillies. His latest arrivals at Hanover, Pa., Shoe Farm were from Nella Dillon, 2.054% and Maiu, 2.294%.

Germany Is Favorite

Spain, by defeating Chile three to two in their first round match of the Davis Cup eliminations, enters the second round and will play the winner of the Germany-Greece test. Germany is expected to beat both Greece and Spain and meet Australia in the semi-final match of the European zone eliminations.

FIGURES SHOW 50 DOGS ARE WITHOUT LICENSES

There now are 873 licensed dogs in the city of Appleton, according to records in the city treasurer's office indicating that either the city has about 50 less dogs this year or that there are 50 or more persons who have neglected to pay the tax license and are jeopardizing the life of their dog. The first checkup on licensed dogs still is being undertaken by members of the police department along with their collection of delinquent personal property taxes.

ANNOUNCE CENTERS FOR EXAMINATIONS

Centers for holding final examinations for sixth, seventh and eighth grade students of Outagamie county schools were named this week by A. G. Meating, county superintendent of schools. They are Bear Creek, Shiocton, Black Creek, Seymour, Horton

SANDBURG'S RECENT BOOK AT LIBRARY

Many Popular Books Among Recent Purchase of 64 Now at Disposal of Public

"The American Sonbird" by C. S. Sandburg, well known to many Appleton people as a writer and lecturer, and "Christ of the Round Table," by Stanley J. Jones, are considered to be among the best books recently added to the shelves at the Appleton Free Public Library.

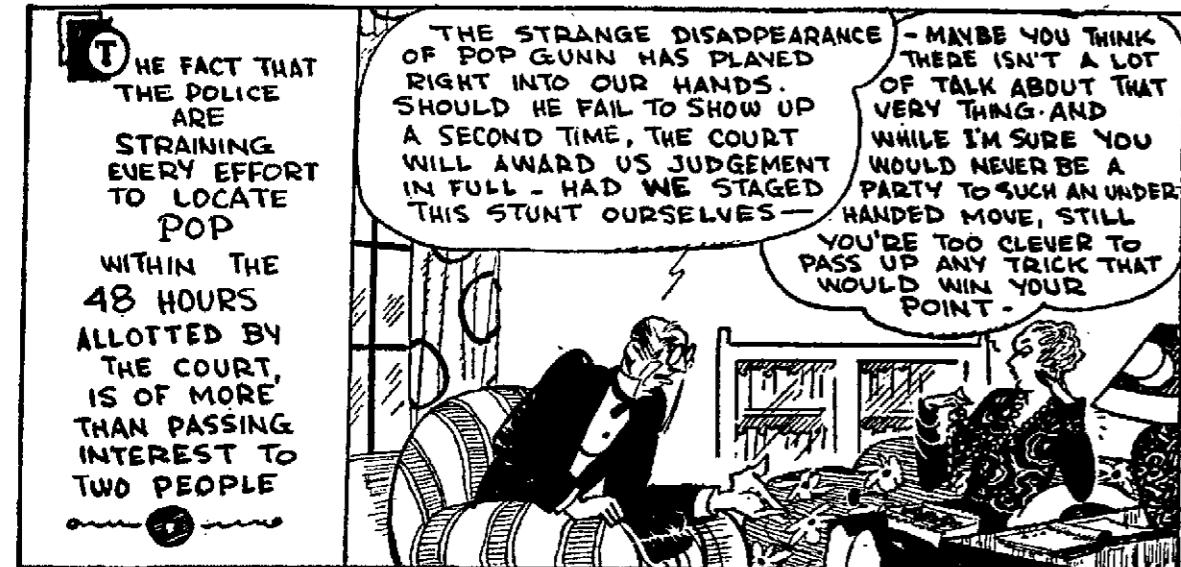

"Christ at the Round Table," is a record of 12 sessions of round table discussions of religious experience which the author has held with professed Christians and devout adherents of non-Christian religions in an effort to find the truth. The work is marked by an unusual attitude of respect for what the adherents of other faiths have to offer.

Since January 1, 61 new books have been added to the public library. They are "We Have Changed All That," by Gruck and MacMahon; "Gilbert Sullivan," by Godwin; "The Great American Bandstand" by Neitz; "Babik and other Patterns," Baker; "Chats on Old Coins," Burgess; "China: What is It Today," Millard; "Essentials of Linoleum Block Print," Volk; "New York, not so Little and not so Small," Lockwood; "Mostly Miss," Speckman; "Dictionary of Modern Usage," Fowler; "Safety first for school and home," Beard; "What can a man believe," Batten; "The Great American Songbird," Carl Sandburg; "The Miracle Box," Golding; "Cups, Wands, and Swords," Simpson;

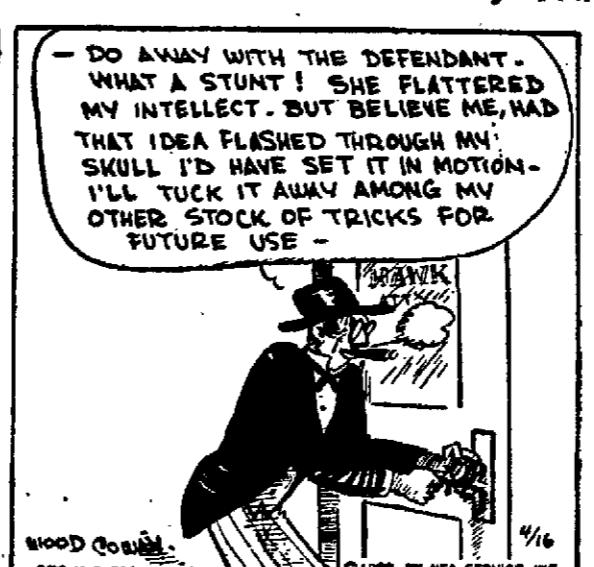

"Crusade," Evans;

POST-CRESCENT'S DAILY PAGE OF FUN

MOM'N POP

Suspicious

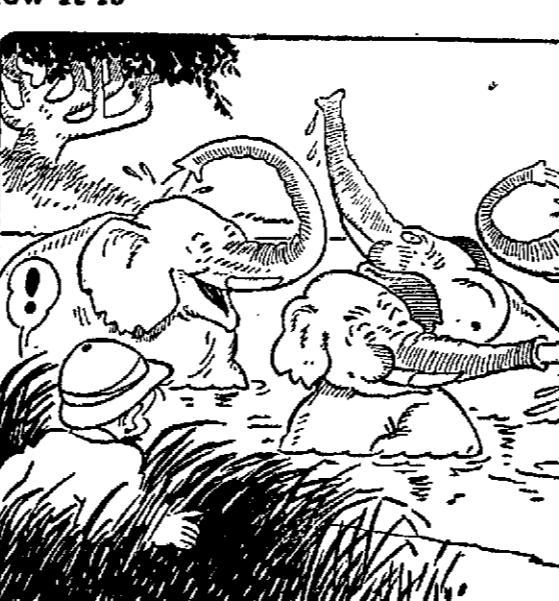

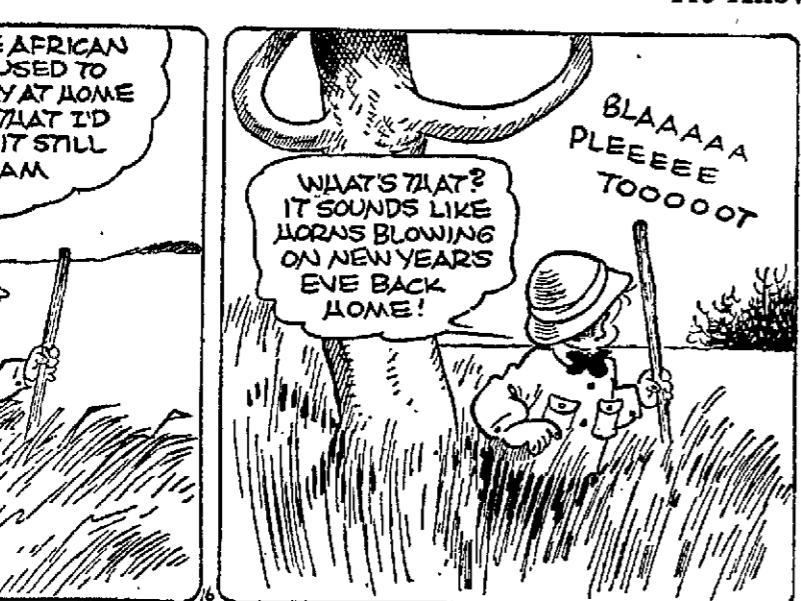

By Cowan

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

He Knows How It Is

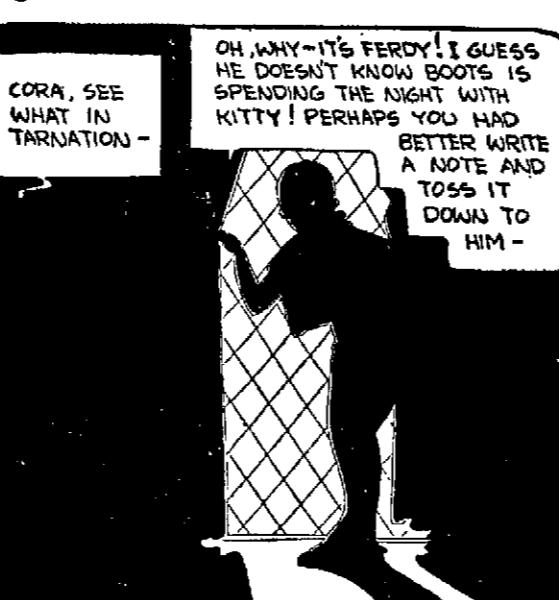

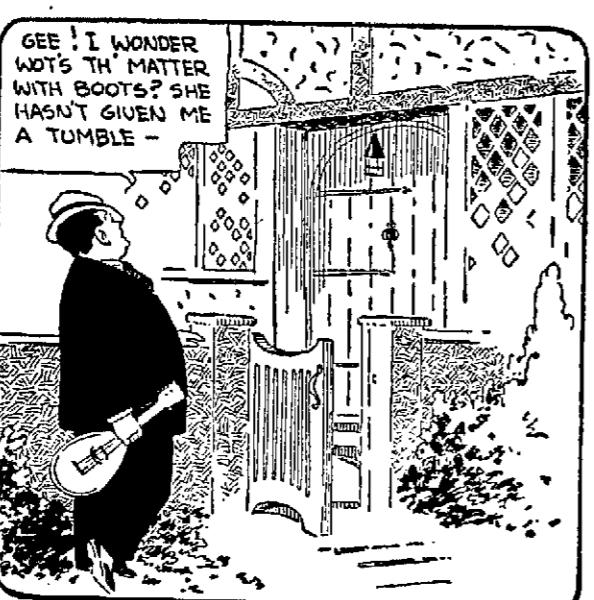

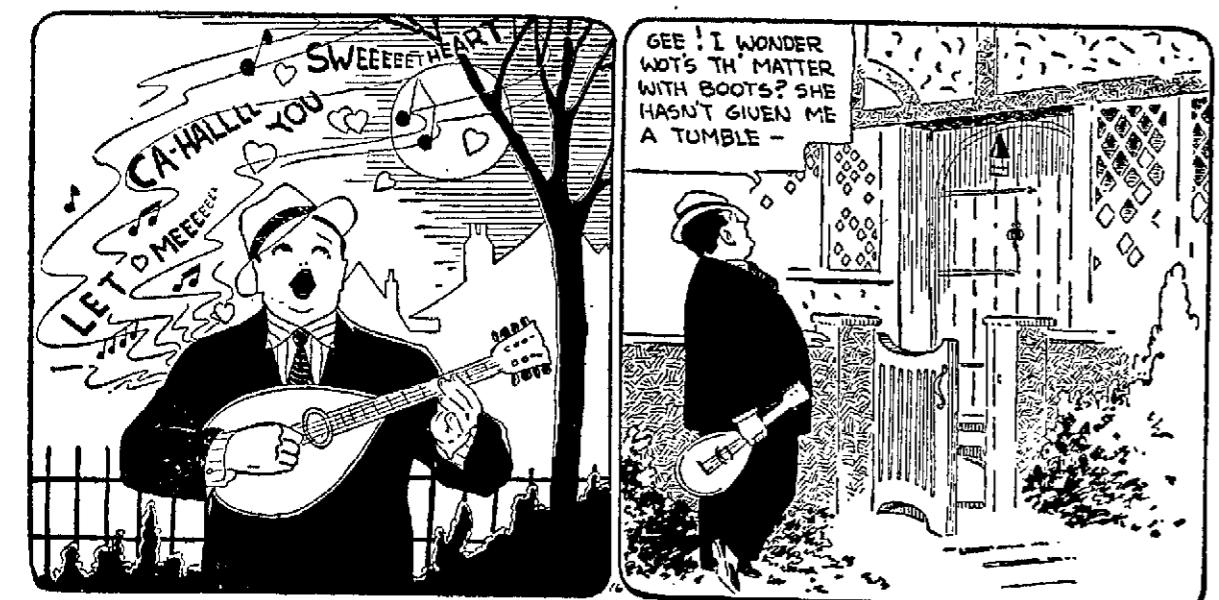

By Blosser

SALESMAN SAM

By Small

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

By Martin

In the Spring

By Ahern

OUT OUR WAY

BEAN SPROUTS.

By Williams

Galli-Curci Sings Exclusively for Victor Records

HERE ARE SOME CHOICE RECORDS SUNG BY GALLI-CURCI

1267 "Gypsy and the Bird"
"Parla! Valse" ("Oh, Speak")
1144 "Sometime"
"Dreaming Time"
1167 "Serenade",
"Carceleras" (Prison Song)
6784 "Porch's Air and Variations"
"Zemire et Azor—La Fauvette" 6127 "Lo, Here the Gentle Lark"
"Echo Song"

112 S. ONEIDA ST.

Book Of Knowledge

Life In The Forest

The artist has sketched here the entrance into Wascash National Forest, Utah, of a flock of sheep. Forest officers count the flocks before they leave the corral in order that the government may determine the amount of the fee due for the use of the range. The forest ranger must know something about raising cattle, sheep and horses.

By NEA, Through Special Permission of the Publishers of The Book of Knowledge. Copyright, 1928.

Now and then forests become too thick and must be thinned out. Rangers are going through a forest here to mark timber to be cut.

Many railroad ties are cut from the national forests. They are counted and stamped with a "U.S." by forest officers before they are marketed. The government charges the cutter so much per tie hewed from green or dead trees picked out by men of the forest service.

(Next: Our Feathered Friends) 331

Sketches and Syncopes, Copyright, 1928, The Croller Society.

ANOTHER SMILE FOR TODAY

THE LAST FRONTIER
"What's your advice to women on this clothing question?"
"Don't give up the slip." —Life.

NOT COMPANIONATE
"They tell me you have a trial wife." —Life.

HER FATHER: Yes, that's just the trouble. Nice thing it would be for me to go through the rest of my life with you held up as a shining example.—The Humorist.

TOUGH ON MR. DONAHUE
"And how is your husband?"
"He has such a stiff neck, my dear, that for a month he has only been able to drink his beer by sitting in that rocking-chair." —Passing Show.

IF HE HAD ENOUGH
"BESSIE: Would you marry a spendthrift?"
BETTY: It would depend on how much he had to spend." —Til-Blu.

WAUPACA COUNTY

NEW LONDON-CLINTONVILLE-WAUPACA

NEARBY
TOWNSPOPULARITY CONTEST
LEADERS BUNCHED AS FINISH DRAWS NEARLess Than 2,000 Votes Divide
First Ten With Marjorie Zaug First

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—With the popularity contest of the hospital benefit carnival here narrowing to the close of the ballot casting, which will occur Monday evening, the ten candidates whose names were posted Saturday stood in the following order: Marjorie Zaug, headed the list, followed by Angevine Reitzner, Gertrude Polk, Elsie Tant, Betty Garot, Jean Dessel, Angeline Hintzke, Alice Fellenz, Venice Zerrenner and Helen Schoenrock. All of these are local girls with the single exception of Helen Schoenrock of Sugar Bush.

Votes counted Sunday evening showed the race to be close one. There was found to be less than 2,000 votes difference between candidates and it was expected that matters would narrow down considerably before Monday evening.

The carnival spirit prevailed throughout the two days of the benefit affair, which is being staged in the Borden Annex. Despite the heavy storm which made outlying roads almost impassable Saturday, the patronage was good and the committee in charge of affairs felt that financially, as well as socially, success was assured. The musical and vaudeville numbers have been good, orchestras and bands filling in between solo numbers in a most satisfactory manner.

There have been few hitches in the manner in which matters have progressed. Those of the managing committee were highly successful in interesting merchants, the booths are colorful and gay.

Nearly 30 business firms were represented by booths and Monday the exhibition of cards will end and the space cleared will be used for dancing. The floor will be well prepared and during an intermission, announcements will be made as to the three winners in the popularity contests and various other attractions. All proceeds will be appropriated by the New London Community hospital.

Those in charge of the festival are Norman Orteib, George Rupple and Dr. John Monsted, Jr.

NEW LONDON
PERSONALS

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—Albert Martin of Chicago is a guest of relatives at Mukwa this week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vern Belanger Friday, April 13.

Mesdames E. H. Ramm, Phoebe Ann Potter, Mrs. L. A. Drown, Mrs. W. G. Bate and Miss Helen Dean will attend the concert given by Galt-Curci at Memorial Chapel Monday evening.

Miss Eleanor Lintner and Gordon Turner of Appleton, spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lintner.

Mrs. William Gens, Mrs. Albert Gehrike and Mrs. Gustave Hanke will spend Wednesday at Appleton where they will rehearse with members of the cast for the play "One hundred per cent" which will be given in the near future by leading members of the Home Economics clubs of the districts of Outagamie and Waupaca.

Mrs. William Lintner spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. George Wolf, Appleton.

E. M. Worby, proprietor of the Snow White Laundry, and family moved on Saturday into the house on W. Beacon-ave, owned by John Herres.

Gordon McElroy spent Sunday at Milwaukee where he visited Mrs. McElroy and son Fred. The latter who has been seriously ill at a Milwaukee hospital, is reported as still being in a grave condition.

Mrs. William Hoffman of Maple Creek motored to Clintonville Sunday to accompany Miss Lela Hoffman who spent the weekend at the William Hoffman home. Miss Hoffman is a teacher in the Clintonville schools.

Mr. and Mrs. William Viel and Mrs. Charles Abrams motored to Appleton Sunday.

Robert Leonardson, a student at Lawrence University, was a weekend guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. George Polzin.

E. H. Ramm, E. F. Ramm, and E. W. Wendland were business visitors at Fond du Lac Saturday.

MUSS SULLIVAN DIES
AT CHIPPEWA FALLS

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—Funeral services for Miss Johanna Sullivan, 42, who died at a hospital at Chippewa Falls, Friday, April 13, were held Monday morning from the Catholic church at Lebanon, the Rev. Father Brockman conducting. Burial was in the Lebanon Catholic cemetery. She was born at Lebanon, March 14, 1886, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sullivan and spent her entire life in that community. She was taken to Chippewa Falls five weeks ago for treatment. Surviving are two brothers, Florey, Chicago, and John, Lebanon.

SUDDEN HEART ATTACK
KILLS ROYALTON MAN

New London—John Sullivan, 57, died suddenly at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at his home in Royalton, of heart failure. Mr. Sullivan was born in Northport and moved to Royalton with his parents when he was a boy. He resided in Royalton since.

Survivors are six sisters, Mrs. J. M. Egan, Omro, Mrs. M. J. Olan and Mrs. Robert Van Adstine Minawa, Mrs. Louis Auer, Bushnell, N. D., Mrs. John Grawe and Mrs. John Martin, Royalton, three brothers, Edward, Arthur and Bernard, Royalton; 17 nieces and nephews. Funeral services are pending the arrival of a sister from Bismarck.

You can now buy standard quality automobile supplies at mail order prices and save their transportation. Ask for our catalog.

30x3½ Cord Tires, $5.65. Guaranteed 8000 miles. — A new 29x4.40 Cord for spare or for old cars. $5.75 unguaranteed.

Appleton Souvenir Edition
The Wisconsin Magazine at News Stands, 10c. It's worth preserving.

NEW LONDON
SOCIETYFIRE CAUSES $500
DAMAGE AT WAUPACA
MAYOR'S RESIDENCE

Blaze of Unknown Origin
Starts in Attic of F. E.
Chandler's Home

Special to Post-Crescent

Waupaca—Fifty friends were entertained by Rudolph Ploetz and August Prahl at Ernst hall at Northport Friday evening. The evening was devoted to dancing, Frederick Old Time Orchestra furnishing the music. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Tribby, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ploetz, Mr. and Mrs. William Ploetz and Miss Irene Schroeder of New London; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prahl, Mr. and Mrs. August Prahl and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mentzel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prahl of Northport; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kusserow, and Mrs. Mary Horton, Mrs. Albert Hanson, Mrs. Carl Peterson, Mrs. Chas. Yost, and Mrs. Eugene Rasmussen and Miss Estelle Stone, Minnie and Etta Yost, Minnie Johnson, Jennie Chady, Blanche Niles and Hilda Stenge. Following the dinner, bridge was played at the home of Mrs. Lukes on S. Division-st. Prizes were awarded to Jennie Chady and Miss Estelle Stone.

The Waupaca fire company responded to a call from the residence of Mayor F. E. Chandler S. Main-st at 11:30 Thursday night. Fire of unknown origin had started in the attic over the kitchen. Loss by fire and water is estimated at $500.

Mrs. George Lord entertained a number of friends at a Mexican dinner at her home in honor of his seventeenth birthday anniversary.

Cards furnished the evenings entertainment. The guests included Berta Dole, Helen Abrahams, Ed Miller, Helen Spurr, Vera Tate, Irvin Lang, James Edminster, August Becker and Lowell Selms.

Mrs. Arthur Lasch entertained at his home Saturday evening by a few of his school friends in honor of his seventeenth birthday anniversary.

Cards furnished the evenings entertainment. The guests included Berta Dole, Helen Abrahams, Ed Miller, Helen Spurr, Vera Tate, Irvin Lang, James Edminster, August Becker and Lowell Selms.

Dr. Dinsmore Delano will spend the weekend in Oshkosh.

C. H. Bacher and Miss Stuart of the Oshkosh Normal school are working in the rural schools of Waupaca this week.

About 25 members of the local Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary witnessed the flag dedication ceremony of the Hortonville Unit, held at the opera house, Sunday afternoon.

Among those from here who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Donner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spear, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lasch, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Manske, Mrs. A. C. Borchard, Miss Gladys Borchard, Mrs. D. B. Egan and daughter Patricia, Mrs. Milton Ullrich, Mrs. Ida Basch, Mrs. Anthony Herres, Mrs. Joseph Schoenhaar, Mrs. Harvey Greenlaw, and Mrs. Raymond Prahl.

Mrs. F. S. Dayton entertained at a Sunday night supper, the event being her birthday anniversary. Guests included Mrs. Carrie Archibald Hooper, Miss Alice Mulroy, Miss Gertrude Morgan, Mrs. Milton Ullrich of this city and Miss Fannie Cameron of Oshkosh.

MISS RUTH ARONIN
WEDS CHICAGO MAN

Special to Post-Crescent

New London—Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Ruth Aronin of Green Bay to Henry Vlotsky of Chicago, the ceremony taking place at Waukegan, Ill., during the latter part of the last week.

Mrs. Vlotsky was a recent teacher in the kindergarten department of the New London public schools and during the present year has been engaged in the same capacity in the Green Bay public schools.

FEAR ACCIDENT VICTIM WILL LOSE EYESIGHT

Special to Post-Crescent

New London—The condition of Roy Small, injured last week in an automobile accident, is being reported as being quite alarming. He suffered the loss of one eye in the accident and complications which have since developed indicate that he may lose the sight of the other eye.

YOUTH SERIOUSLY ILL

Special to Post-Crescent

New London—Little hope is given for the recovery of Freddie Meiklejohn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Meiklejohn of this city, a patient in a Milwaukee hospital. Complications have developed since he was stricken with an attack of pneumonia.

MRS. JULIUS ERICKSON BURIED AT WAUPACA

Special to Post-Crescent

Waupaca—Funeral services for Mrs. Julius M. Erickson, 58, who died suddenly Friday afternoon, were held at 9 o'clock Monday morning from St. Mary church with the Rev. A. O. Reinhauer in charge. Burial was in the Lakeside cemetery.

The bearers were James Cawse, James Liner, Fred Davis, Albert Kreger, William Classon and M. Hopkins.

Survivors are the widow, three sons, Irvin and James, Waupaca, and William, Riverside, Calif.

The Gamble Auto Supply Company of Appleton is open for business.

You can now buy standard quality automobile supplies at mail order prices and save their transportation. Ask for our catalog.

30x3½ Cord Tires, $5.65. Guaranteed 8000 miles. — A new 29x4.40 Cord for spare or for old cars. $5.75 unguaranteed.

Appleton Souvenir Edition
The Wisconsin Magazine at News Stands, 10c. It's worth preserving.

RESORT OWNER DIES
ON WAY TO PRISON

Elmer Cronce Formerly Operated Resort on Clover Leaf Lakes

Special to Post-Crescent

Clintonville—Word was received here Saturday of the death of Elmer Cronce, who for many years operated the resort on Clover Leaf Lakes, between Grass and Round Lakes. He was being taken to Milwaukee by Federal officers for violation of the liquor law, dying suddenly while on the train, enroute. For many years he was a familiar figure in this community.

Mrs. E. C. VanHekken entertained several ladies at her apartments at the Ward hotel Friday afternoon.

Two tables of bridge were in play for which prizes were awarded to Mrs. Dwight Bred and Mrs. Nichols.

Mrs. Harry Wright of Two Rivers, for many years a resident of this city, spent a few days in this city on business, returning to her home on Friday.

Mrs. Edward Kellogg's recent diplomatic visit with Foreign Minister Brandt of France over the outlawry of war was given a share of humor in another song that brought a broad smile from the Secretary himself. It ran:

Secretary Kellogg is feeling very sick;

Let's rush him to the hospital and call a Doctor quick.

An international specialist should take his case in hand.

"Cause he ate too much French pasty or of unreliable 'Brandt.'

The singing sisters next took a vocal flight in Will Hays, former chairman of the Republican National Committee, who recently testified before the Senate, Oil Committee that he vainly sent Sinclair's Liberty bonds to Mellon, Butler and others to be used as party contributions.

They're working out in Hollywood on a picture for Will Hays.

They even say he'll take the lead, he has such taking ways.

The title is a knockout and the film has vim and dash.

They're planning now to call it "Take Marquette Saturday to visit a nephew.

Trachoma Specialist First Tried Cure On Mountaineers

—to come in them their scattered homes and let him help them.

From that beginning, he moved from place to place throughout the affected sections of the vast region chiefly on mule back, setting up his little hospitals with a mule or two.

At first, the patients came slowly and with little confidence, but he proved himself a helpful friend and more and more they brought their suffering eyes to him.

The disease first attacks the eyes. Then, the inflammation formed on the lid so that the eyeball and even the eyelid became red. Forced to create his own method of treatment, he found that his best instrument was a tooth brush with the bristles sputtered.

Public Health physicians first became interested in trachoma through their work with aliens entering the country. Except among the foreign population, few cases were found in the large cities, but they were numerous and apparently contagious, among the Indians. Then the affliction of the mountain folk, who think and speak in the language used in Shakespeare's time, was called to the attention of the service and Dr. McMullen was sent into their hills to help them.

A large, jovial man, he first traveled among the suspicious, isolated mountaineers on mule back, cracking jokes, visiting with them, convincing one who was their friend, one who could be trusted. He opened his first clinic in an old house at Hindman, Ky., September 12, 1912, and invited the sufferers—whole families and communities to come in and get their scattered homes and let him help them.

From that beginning, he moved from place to place throughout the affected sections of the vast region chiefly on mule back, setting up his little hospitals with a mule or two.

At first, the patients came slowly and with little confidence, but he proved himself a helpful friend and more and more they brought their suffering eyes to him.

The disease first attacks the eyes. Then, the inflammation formed on the lid so that the eyeball and even the eyelid became red. Forced to create his own method of treatment, he found that his best instrument was a tooth brush with the bristles sputtered.

Public Health physicians first became interested in trachoma through their work with aliens entering the country. Except among the foreign population, few cases were found in the large cities, but they were numerous and apparently contagious, among the Indians. Then the affliction of the mountain folk, who think and speak in the language used in Shakespeare's time, was called to the attention of the service and Dr. McMullen was sent into their hills to help them.

A large, jovial man, he first traveled among the suspicious, isolated mountaineers on mule back, cracking jokes, visiting with them, convincing one who was their friend, one who could be trusted. He opened his first clinic in an old house at Hindman, Ky., September 12, 1912, and invited the sufferers—whole families and communities to come in and get their scattered homes and let him help them.

From that beginning, he moved from place to place throughout the affected sections of the vast region chiefly on mule back, setting up his little hospitals with a mule or two.

At first, the patients came slowly and with little confidence, but he proved himself a helpful friend and more and more they brought their suffering eyes to him.

The disease first attacks the eyes. Then, the inflammation formed on the lid so that the eyeball and even the eyelid became red. Forced to create his own method of treatment, he found that his best instrument was a tooth brush with the bristles sputtered.

Public Health physicians first became interested in trachoma through their work with aliens entering the country. Except among the foreign population, few cases were found in the large cities, but they were numerous and apparently contagious, among the Indians. Then the affliction of the mountain folk, who think and speak in the language used in Shakespeare's time, was called to the attention of the service and Dr. McMullen was sent into their hills to help them.

A large, jovial man, he first traveled among the suspicious, isolated mountaineers on mule back, cracking jokes, visiting with them, convincing one who was their friend, one who could be trusted. He opened his first clinic in an old house at Hindman, Ky., September 12, 1912, and invited the sufferers—whole families and communities to come in and get their scattered homes and let him help them.

From that beginning, he moved from place to place throughout the affected sections of the vast region chiefly on mule back, setting up his little hospitals with a mule or two.

At first, the patients came slowly and with little confidence, but he proved himself a helpful friend and more and more they brought their suffering eyes to him.

The disease first attacks the eyes. Then, the inflammation formed on the lid so that the eyeball and even the eyelid became red. Forced to create his own method of treatment, he found that his best instrument was a tooth brush with the bristles sputtered.

Public Health physicians first became interested in tr

A Trained Ad-Taker Will Gladly Help Solve Your Problems

Appleton Post-Crescent Classified Advertising Information

All ads submitted to their proper classifications and to the regular Appleton Post-Crescent style of type.

Daily rate per line for consecutive insertions:

Charges Cash

One day . . . . . 13 .12

Three days . . . . . 11 .10

Six days . . . . . 9 .09

Annual charge, 50¢

Advertising ordered for irregular insertions takes the one time insertion rate, no ad taken for less than six days from the date of insertion.

Charged ads will be received by telephone and if paid at office within six days from the date of insertion, no lines. Count 5 average words to a line.

Charged ads will be received by telephone and if paid at office within six days from the date of insertion, no lines. Count 5 average words to a line.

Ads ordered for three days or six days and stopped before expiration will only be charged for the number of days the ad remained and adjusted made at the rate earned.

Special rate for yearly advertising upon request.

Publishers reserve the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy.

Telephone 543, ask for Ad-Taker.

The following classifications and numerical order here given, closely allied classifications being grouped together.

Individual advertisements are arranged under these headings in alphabetical order for quick reference.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2—Card of Thanks.

3—In Memoriam.

4—Flowers and Mourning Goods.

5—Funeral Directors.

6—Burial Services and Cemetery Lots.

7—Notices.

8—Religious and Social Events.

9—Societies and Local Events.

10—Automobiles—Bound.

11—Automobile Agencies.

12—Automobile for Sale.

13—Auto Accessories, Tires, Parts.

14—Garages Autos for Hire.

15—Motorcycles and Bicycles.

16—Recreational—Service Stations.

17—Wanted—Automobiles.

BUSINESS SERVICE

18—Business Services—General.

19—Cleaning, Dyeing, Renovating.

20—Heating, Plumbing, Roofing.

21—Laundries.

22—Moving, Trucking, Storage.

23—Painting, Papering, Decorating.

24—Professional Services.

25—Repairing and Refinishing.

26—Tailoring and Pressing.

31—Wanted—Business Service.

EMPLOYMENT

32—Help Wanted—Female.

33—Help Wanted—Male.

34—Recruiters—Canvassers, Agents.

35—Situation—Wanted—Male.

36—Situation—Wanted—Female.

37—Business Opportunities.

38—Investment Stocks, Bonds.

39—Money to Loan—Mortgages.

40—Wanted—Instruction.

41—Correspondence Courses.

42—Local Instruction Classes.

43—Musical, Dramatic.

44—Private Instruction.

45—Wanted—Instruction.

LIVE STOCK

46—Dogs, Cats, Other Pets.

47—Horses, Cattle, Vehicles.

48—Poultry and Supplies.

49—Used Cars.

50—Wanted—Live Stock.

MERCHANDISE

51—Articles for Sale.

52—Barter and Exchange.

53—Boats and Accessories.

54—Building Materials.

55—Fuel, Fertilizers and Dairy Products.

56—Food, Fruits, Vegetables.

57—Good Things to Eat.

58—Household Goods.

59—Household Goods.

60—Watches, Jewelry, Diamonds.

61—Machinery and Tools.

62—Musical Instruments.

63—Radio Equipment.

64—Seeds, Plants, Flowers.

65—Special at the Stores.

66—Wearing Apparel.

67—Rooms and Board

68—Rooms and Board.

69—Rooms for Housekeeping.

70—Vacation Places.

71—Where to Eat.

72—Where to Shop in Town.

73—Rooms and Board or Board.

REAL ESTATE FOR RENT

74—Apartments and Flats.

75—Business Places for Rent.

76—Houses for Rent.

77—Houses for Rent.

78—Offices and Desk Room.

79—Shops and Businesses.

80—Suburban Homes.

81—Wanted—To Rent.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

82—Brokers—Real Estate.

83—Farms and Land for Sale.

84—Houses for Sale.

85—For Sale—Real Estate.

86—Rooms and Resorts—For Sale.

87—Suburban Homes for Sale.

88—To Exchange—Real Estate.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Notices

NOTICE—Wm. Shultz, 620 W. Brewster St. (Successor to Chas. Gehl) Folding chairs and tables, rented. Prompt service. Phone 1512.

O. W. SCHAEFER—Steamship Agency. Leading Lines to all Countries. 309 N. Morrison St. Phone 1272.

Strayed, Lost, Found

BILL FOLD—Lost, containing money and claim check for diamond ring. Liberal reward. Tel. 211.

PIRELL'S BARGAINS—P. K. A. Lost, name on the back. Reward. Tel. 211.

GLASSES—Dark rimmed, lost. Return to John Balliet, 112 W. College Ave. Reward.

PAIR GLASSES—Lost, shell rimmed. Reward to return to Beach Sport Shop.

PACKAGE—Lost containing two silk remnants. Phone 2321. Reward.

AUTOMOTIVE

Automobile Agencies

A

OLDSMOBILE

LET US DEMONSTRATE

THE NEW OLDSMOBILE

FOR YOU

You'll be surprised. Two door Sedan, $1025 delivered equipped.

J. T. McCann Co.

Phone 272.

Automobile for Sale

11

WOLTER'S BARGAINS—

Dodge 4 Cabriolet Coupe. New—discount.

1924 Dodge Brothers Spec. Sedan.

1925 Dodge Brothers Sp. Coupe.

1924 Dodge Brothers De Luxe Sedan.

1924 Dodge Brothers Sp. Coupe.

1922 Dodge Brothers Touring.

1927 Essex Coach. Run 4 months.

1921 Ford Coupe.

1921 Ford Coupe.

1922 Ford Ton Truck, stake body.

1922 Ford Ton Truck, stake body.

SATISFACTORY terms for time payment.

WOLTER MOTOR CO.

Dodge Brothers Motor Cars

Graham Brothers Trucks.

FORD—1922 Coupe, $60.00. 921 W. Summer St. Tel. 1527.

CADILLAC—V8 Victoria, 4 passenger Coupe. In very good condition.

$600. Phone Neenah 720.

EMPLOYMENT

Help Wanted—Female

33

GIRL—Over 17 to assist with house work. Wickerham Farms. Tel. 662211.

PRACTICAL NURSE—Permanent position. Good wages. Address 306

Dousman St., Green Bay.

GIRL—Over 17 wanted to do house work in Amherst. Wisconsin. young couple, one child. Apply Adolph Hamilton, New London. Phone 236 or 136.

MAID—Competent, for general house work. Apply to Bartman's

Grocery, 228 N. Meado St.

WOMAN—Young, to wash dishes, nights. Snider's Restaurant.

Help Wanted—Male

33

RADIO—Anvils—Rent at sacrifice price if taken at once. 413 N. Benjamin St. Tel. 1678W.

YOU CAN'T make any mistake by reading the classified offer.

AUTOMOTIVE

Automobile for Sale

11

Help Wanted—Male

33

AVIATION—Ground mechanic training, 5 days a week, while learning. Limited time. Apply room 11

Olympia Bldg. Open evenings.

&lt;p

POULTRY RAISERS HEAR SPECIALISTS ON RAISING CHICKS

Cleanliness Is Most Important Feature in Keeping Flocks Healthy

By W. F. WINSEY
Despite the unfavorable conditions of the roads, a large number of chicken fanciers attended the poultry meeting in the court house here Friday afternoon. Robert Amundson, county agent, presided at the meeting and the speakers were A. A. Brown, poultry specialist of the Wisconsin Department of Markets and Prof. G. Annin, a poultry specialist of the College of Agriculture. Prof. Annin had for his subject the Selection and Rearing of Chicks Under Sanitary Methods and Mr. Brown, The History of Chick Hatcheries in Wisconsin.

As only one-half of the chicks are raised, getting strong, healthy variety of chicks, is of great importance, said Mr. Annin. Never wait till your chicks get sick as you may lose more time than the birds are worth in trying to cure them. In the chicken industry, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," he said.

As reasons for the use of sanitary methods in rearing chicks, Prof. Annin discussed round worms, tape worms, coccidiosis and Avian Tuberculosis, with which chicks may become afflicted. He described each one of these pests, stated the symptoms of each in the chick, pointed out how the infection in each case is spread, and argued that control is effected by preventative sanitation.

Prof. Annin urged poultry raisers to buy healthy chicks from an accredited hatchery in which the chicks are properly hatched and managed afterwards, to start and finish the chicks on a clean range, to use trough and hopper methods of feeding, to keep milk dishes and grounds clean, to break up harboring places of flies, to keep chicks away from old birds and to move the chicks at the proper time from the colony house direct to confinement in a clean poultry house.

The colony house recommended by Prof. Annin is the portable type 10 by 12 feet, resting on skids with a capacity of 250 chicks.

The colony house is provided with the usual heater heated with a coal stove, screens or guards to prevent draughts, two large windows, two baffle windows and a single floor.

Pullets should be six months old by October 1, and in that case they will be ready for winter laying. The time of laying should not be advanced by over-feeding as a pullet that begins to lay before getting her growth will break down in a short time and go into molt while the full grown pullet is not apt to do so.

Chicks should remain in the box in which they are shipped the first 48 hours. At the end of that time, they should be freed in the brooder and given a little grit scattered on paper. They should get nothing to drink but skimmed milk. The chicks should be fed what is known as "The Wisconsin Home Brew Mash, five times a day. The formula for the ration is 80 parts ground yellow corn, 20 parts wheat middlings, 5 parts raw bone, chick size, 5 parts pearl grit or fine oyster shell. 1 part common salt, and one percent crude cod liver oil.

"Four hundred million chicks are hatched yearly in ten thousand hatcheries in the United States but two-thirds of the farmers of the old hen to do the hatching of United States are still depending on chicks for them," said Mr. Brown in his talk on the growth of chick hatcheries. The average production of hens is 75 eggs."

The first commercial chick hatcheries were started in 1904 but their number did not increase rapidly till the war. During and after the war, the numbers increased by leaps and bounds. The first hatcheries turned out nothing better than mongrel chicks. A poultry man might order one color of chick and get every color but the one ordered.

Afterward, jobbers got hold of the hatchery business. One of these jobbing houses took orders for any breed of chickens but filled each order with White Leghorns and invariably appoggiated after the shipment was made.

Now the hatcheries are giving attention to breed and information of chicks. One hundred thirty-eight hatcheries in Wisconsin are accredited by the state. This accreditation is the result of state inspection of hatcheries and of flocks that supply the hatcheries with eggs. All birds in a flock that do not show the marks of the breed are culled by the inspectors before the flock is accredited.

Certified flocks must also show the qualities of the breed and the co-operation needed for egg production but females must be handled twice a year for egg production. The cockerels must be wing-banded and must come from dams of 200 egg production. The eggs from a hen are placed in a basket when the eggs are hatched and the chicks are wing-banded so that breeding may be traced.

In the R. O. F. or Registry of Production classification, the birds must possess all the qualities of the two breeds mentioned above but females to be eligible must have a record of 200 eggs made under official supervision, and the males must be descended from pure breed dams having a production record of 225 eggs.

PROVIDE AIRPORT FOR LOCAL COMPANY

Menominee, Mich., City and County Band Together for Terminal Landing Field

A landing field rivaling that of the George A. Whiting airport here has been provided for airplanes of the North American Airways company of this city at Menominee, Mich., the northern terminus of the company's Menominee-Chicago air route, according to Karl M. Haugen of the Airways company who attended a two-day air booster meeting there last week.

Several other local men were present at the meeting and made speeches boosting aviation and telling of the advantages of air mail, passenger and freight service.

Word from the Michigan city states that the city and county banded together to purchase the field and the present site will be enlarged by filling in an adjoining swamp with sand pumped from the lake. The field permits the landing of both land and sea planes.

As a compliment to the city for its cooperation, the new Stinson monoplane to be placed on the route will be named the "Pride of Menominee."

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Hanner of Milwaukee spent the weekend with friends in Appleton.

NINE CASES LISTED ON PROBATE CALENDAR

Nine cases are listed for hearing at a special term of Outagamie co court to be held before Judge Fred W. Heinemann at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. The calendar: Hearing on petition for administration in the estates of Harriet Ruth Kuehmgard and Oscar J. Van Ryzin; hearing on proof of will in the estates of Ernestine and Fred Lenz.

Pingel, George Van Berk and Joseph Bleier; hearing on claims in the estates of Herman Rich and John Feldkamp; hearing on final account in the estate of Herman Schoenrock and Fred Lenz.

America produced 22 billion cigarettes last year, breaking the record of the year previous for the sixth time in succession.

A barrel of flower requires 47 bushels of wheat.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

ORIGINAL

April 18th, 19th, 20th

ONE CENT SALE

COPYRIGHT 1927 UNITED DRUG CO

TOILET GOODS DEPARTMENT

50c Jontee Cold Cream
Face Powder

A soft blending powder that appeals to discriminating women.
All Tints.
2 for 51c
YOU SAVE 49c

50c Jontee Cold Cream
A good cleansing cream. Soft, smooth.

2 for 51c
YOU SAVE 49c

35c Rexall
Shaving
Cream

Produces an abundant moist lather. May be used with either hot or cold water.
2 for 36c
YOU SAVE 34c

50c Bouquet Ramee Talcum

An imported talcum perfumed with the odor of freshly cut flowers.
2 for 51c
YOU SAVE 49c

$1.00 Bouquet Ramee Face Powder

Blends perfectly with the complexion.
All shades.
2 for $1.01
YOU SAVE 99c

25c Orange Blossom
Talcum
Powder

Of fine imported talc. Delightfully soft and refreshing.
2 for 26c
YOU SAVE 24c

75c Rexall Theatrical Cold
Cream

A good cleansing cream for every-day use.
One-Pound Can
2 for 76c
YOU SAVE 74c

CANDY

$1.00 Challenge Package
Assorted Chocolates

One Pound Box
A full pound of delicious high-grade assorted chocolates.
A real value for those who like good candy.
2 for $1.01
YOU SAVE 99c

50c Assorted Wrapped Cream Caramels

One Pound Box
Tasty, pure caramels.
The favorite kind for children as well as for grown-ups.
2 for 51c
YOU SAVE 49c

WHAT A Rexall ONE CENT SALE IS

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Dental Creme is 50c, you buy a tube at this price and by paying 1 cent more, or 51 cents, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold every day at the regular price.

This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the sacrifice in profit is justified, knowing the goods will please you.

SUNDRIES and BRUSHES

35c Quality Tooth Brushes
An assortment of styles and sizes that will satisfy the requirements of your family.

2 for 36c

50c Klenzo Liquid Antiseptic

Kills germs, banishes bad taste, purifies the breath. Valuable in the treatment of pyorrhea.

2 for 51c
YOU SAVE 49c

PURE FOOD PRODUCTS

The Food Specials offered in connection with our One Cent Sale represent big savings and we quote them because of their value.

Opko Coffee, 1 lb. . . . . 2 pounds for 69c
Opko Teas, 1/2 lb. . . . . 2 pkgs. for 66c
Symond's Inn Peanut Butter, 10 ozs. . . . . 2 for 40c
Pure Virgin Olive Oil, 12 1/2 ozs. . . . . 2 for $1.19
Symond's Inn Vanilla Extract, 2 ozs. . . . . 2 for 36c
Symond's Inn Lemon Extract, 2 ozs. . . . . 2 for 41c

Symond's Inn Cocoa Powder, 1 1/2 lb. . . . . 2 for 28c
Symond's Inn Baking Chocolate, 1 1/2 lb. . . . . 2 for 36c
Symond's Inn Beef Cubes, 12's . . . . . 2 for 31c
Ballardvale Strawberry Preserve . . . . . 2 for 49c
Ballardvale Raspberry Preserve . . . . . 2 for 49c
Ballardvale Pineapple Preserve . . . . . 2 for 49c
Ballardvale Orange Marmalade, 15 ozs. . . . . 2 for 49c

During This Sale the Store Will Open at 8 A. M. and Close at 10 P. M.
No Telephone Orders Can Be Accepted, Nor Delivery Made of Sale Merchandise

SAVE with SAFETY at your Rexall DRUG STORE

Downer's

The Drug Store Where You Save With Safety

PURETEST HOUSEHOLD PRODUCTS

50c Puretest Milk of Magnesia

Smooth as cream.
A good laxative for children and elderly people.
2 for 51c
YOU SAVE 49c

69c Puretest Aspirin Tablets

Bottle of 100
Prompt relief from pain. Will not depress the heart.
2 for 70c
YOU SAVE 68c
Also box of 12 Tablets 2 for 16c

Boric Acid, 4 ozs. . . . . 2 for 26c
Cream Tartar, 3 ozs. . . . . 2 for 26c
Zinc Stearate . . . . . 2 for 26c
Castor Oil, 3 ozs. . . . . 2 for 26c
Epsom Salt, 16 ozs. . . . . 2 for 26c
Mi 31 Liquid Antiseptic . . . . . 2 for 1.01

Eyclo . . . . . 2 for 51c
Little Liver Pills . . . . . 2 for 26c
Zinc Ointment, 1-oz. tube . . . . . 2 for 26c
Carbolic Salve . . . . . 2 for 26c
Hygienic Powder . . . . . 2 for 51c
Gipsy Cream . . . . . 2 for 41c
One-Minute Headache Pwdrs. . . . . 2 for 26c
Diuretic Pills . . . . . 2 for 51c
Spring Tabs . . . . . 2 for 26c
Syn of Hypo, clear or cloudy . . . . . 2 for 1.01
Etervest Sod. Phos., 4 ozs. . . . . 2 for 51c
Twin-Tabs Laxative, 36's . . . . . 2 for 26c

Soda Mint Tablets . . . . . 2 for 26c
Tr. Iodine with Applicator . . . . . 2 for 26c
No. 6 Disinfectant, 16 ozs. . . . . 2 for 51c
Glycerin Suppos, Adult . . . . . 2 for 31c
Glycerin Suppos, Infant . . . . . 2 for 26c
Mineral Oil, Russian type, full pint . . . . . 2 for 1.01

59c Puretest Rubbing Alcohol

Full Pint
Used in hospitals, gymnasiums and training camps for bathing and rub-down.
2 for 60c
YOU SAVE 58c

RUBBER GOODS

$1.00 Monogram Rubber Gloves

An excellent heavy glove for household use.
2 for $1.01
YOU SAVE 99c

Maximum Comb . . . . . 2 for 76c
Maximum Comb . . . . . 2 for 36c
Labor-Lite Apron . . . . . 2 for 1.01

Maximum Comb . . . . . 2 for 76c
Maximum Comb . . . . . 2 for 36c
Labor-Lite Apron . . . . . 2 for 1.01

$2.00 Maximum Fountain Syringe
Guaranteed for One Year

Molded in one piece.
2 for $2.01
YOU SAVE $1.99

Also
$2 Maximum Hot Water Bottle

2 for $2.01

Wash Cloths, fancy borders . . . . . 2 for 21c

2 for 21c